

MRS. TOMMY HARRALL FETES FRIENDLY DOZEN BRIDGE CLUB

Three tables of bridge were in play Wednesday evening at eight o'clock when the Friendly Dozen Bridge Club met at the home of Mrs. Tommy Harrall in Carr Heights.

The hostess had her home very attractively arranged for the most enjoyable occasion with bouquets of gladiolus, pastel shades of sweet peas, snapdragons and roses adding a lovely note to the home.

Trays of tempting assorted sandwiches, potato chips, pickles, cocktail onions, cup cakes and cokes were passed among the players between the second and third progression.

Mrs. James Yates received high score among the players and received a china vase. A carton of cokes went to Mrs. Johnny Ciccone for traveling award and Mrs. Edwin Stewart won guest high, a fruit plate. Mrs. Grover Mitchell received an antique dish for consolation prize.

The guests playing were Mrs. Hank Curran, Mrs. Oliver Holmes and Mrs. Edwin Stewart.

Members playing were Mrs. Bob Dickey, Mrs. Wayne Justesen, Mrs. Johnny Ciccone, Mrs. Hubert Peay, Mrs. James Yates, Mrs. Grover Mitchell, Mrs. Ed Hood, Mrs. Everette Doffermire and Mrs. Harrall.

BIRTH

Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Smith of Route 3, Clinton announce the birth of a son on June 10 in the Dunn Hospital. Mrs. Smith is the former Magdalene Lawhorn.

WEDNESDAY GUESTS

Mrs. Bowden Warren and children, Mike, Karen, and Butch of Newton Grove were visitors of Mrs. J. Furman Turnage on Wednesday.

MISS NITA BEST PLEDGES VOWS TO LOTHROP JOHNSON SUNDAY

MR. AND MRS. LATHROP JOHNSON

DUNN HOSPITAL PATIENTS June 10 and 11

Miss Vickie Sue Olds, Dunn; Tony Martin, Newton Grove, Rt. 2.

Mrs. Mable Parker, Route 2, Dunn; Baby Rayvon Goodman, Coats; Violet Williams, Colored, Wade; Mr. Eleryemkin Ezzell, Godwin; Mrs. Jackie Marie Carl, Route 4, Dunn.

Mrs. Eloise Jernigan, Benson; Mrs. Pearl Godwin, Route 2, Wade; Mrs. Pearl Strickland, Dunn; Janie Williams, colored, Route 2, Dunn.

Bertha Thompson, Route 3, Lillington; Mrs. Katherine Denning, Route 2, Dunn.

IN RALEIGH

Mrs. George Marks, Mrs. Hoover Adams, and Miss Lillian Ezzell were visitors in Raleigh Tuesday.

Black's Chapel Methodist Church was the scene of the marriage of Miss Nita Best, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Best of Goldsboro to Lothrop Johnson, son of Mrs. O. M. Johnson of Falcon and the late Mr. Johnson last Sunday afternoon.

The five o'clock ceremony was officiated by the Rev. Sam Dodson, pastor of the church.

Tall white flickering tapers, interspersed with fern and ivy and large floral containers of glads and fern made a beautiful setting for the marriage vows.

Miss Best was given in marriage by her father and her two sisters, Misses Jean and Janice Best of Goldsboro were bridesmaids, Becky Sills was the ring-bearer.

The bride was attired in a gown of pale blue with a white bridal corsage and accessories of white. The bridesmaids also were gowned in pale blue dresses.

Best man for the groom was his cousin John W. Johnson of Dunn. Wallace Warren and Onnie Johnson and Bill Sills were ushers. A reception was held at the home of the groom after the wedding.

Pearl Whitehurst Presides At Meet Of Beauty Guild

The Hairdressers Guild of Harnett and Johnston Counties met at Johnson's restaurant Wednesday evening in the General Lee Room for their regular meeting.

A delicious supper of tomato juice cocktail, fried chicken, garden peas in patty shells, new potatoes, tossed salad, cheese, hot rolls, iced tea and pineapple cream pie was served the guild members. Mrs. Pearl Whitehurst of Smithfield presided over a business session. The meeting of the Eastern Guild was announced and several members from the local guild are going to attend.

After the business session Mrs. Reta Whittenton played several numbers at the piano and the group enjoyed games.

There were eighteen members of the guild present for the meeting.

Advertisement for 'CHING CHOW' featuring a cartoon character and the text 'HALF TALENT IS NO TALENT'.

Our bank is air conditioned for your comfort - Our safe deposit boxes are for your protection. FIRST CITIZENS BANK & TRUST CO., DUNN, N. C.

Bridal Luncheon Honors Pat Snipes Wednesday At Two

Miss Patricia Snipes, who on Saturday will be wed to Mr. Jimmy Coats, was honored on Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock at a luncheon. Mrs. R. L. Cromartie, Jr., and her daughter, Mrs. Lloyd Coats were co-hostesses for the event at the Coats home.

Graceful arrangements of mixed summer flowers were used throughout the house. Centering the dining room table was a bouquet of white lilies, glads and carnations.

Miss Snipes was presented a lovely corsage of white asters. Mrs. Cromartie's gift to the honoree was a silver butter dish and Mrs. Coats gave her a mahogany antique frame with flower print.

The menu for the luncheon consisted of tomato juice cocktail, chicken salad, boiled new potatoes, butter beans in rosettes, candied apples stuffed with cream cheese and nuts, pickled peaches, hot biscuits, iced tea, and chocolate pies with ice cream.

Those attending the delightful party were Miss Snipes, Mrs. Ralph Snipes, Miss Barbara Snipes, Mrs. L. L. Coats, Miss Betty Sue Draughton, Miss Rita Fleishman, Miss Fay Jackson, Miss Fannie Sue Turnage, Miss Sally Whitehead, Miss Mary Lou Lee, Miss Jackie Campbell, Miss Margaret Cathey, Miss Hilda Sorrell, Mrs. Robert Draughton, Miss Betty Cathey, Miss Polly Pope, Mrs. A. C. Parker, Mrs. Lloyd Wade, Miss Jennie Barbour, Miss Rogie Tyler, Mrs. Wesley Coats, Mrs. Bill Warren, Mrs. Howard Hodges and the two hostesses.

ATTEND MEETING

Mr. and Mrs. H. Paul Strickland attended the North Carolina meeting of the Order of the Eastern Star in Raleigh's Memorial Auditorium on Monday night and also on Wednesday night.

MISS THORNTON BETTER

Miss Vera Lee Thornton, who has been a patient in the Dunn Hospital for the past week, is reported to be in good condition.

ENTERS U. N. C.

Bobby Wells, son of Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Wells of Dunn, has entered the University of North Carolina to begin his Freshman year of study.

ARRIVES TUESDAY

Miss Rogie Tyler, who has completed her freshman year at Hollin's College in Virginia, has re-

The Turlingtons Entertain Guests

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie J. Turlington of Blue's Creek entertained Miss Jean Jordan of Rockingham and Raleigh, bride-elect of June 21, at a shore dinner Saturday June 7 at 6:30. The menu included the bridal cake and ices.

Invited to share the occasion with Miss Jordan were her fiancé, Mr. Bruce A. Coats of Chapel Hill and Benson, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Jeff Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. D. Thomas Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Harris of Raleigh, Mrs. E. A. Coats of Benson, Miss Mary Shearion of Cary and Whitakers, Mr. James Atkins of Cary, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Shepherd of Coats, Mr. and Mrs. Grady C. Ferguson of Charlotte and Mrs. Wyatt B. Martin of Anderson, S. C.

The honoree was presented a leather bound guest book and place mats.

On Thursday, June 5, Miss Elaine Brooks of Vass and Sanford was the honored guest when the Turlingtons entertained at luncheon. Surprise guests were Mrs. Turlington's nephew, John M. Callaway of Lakeland and Manatee, Florida and his G. I. friend, Ed Bass of McDill Field, Tampa, Florida, and Richmond, Va. The out-of-state guests were due in Charlottesville, Va. Sunday.

Mrs. Turlington and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Wyatt B. Martin of Anderson, S. C., were guests of the D. P. Harris' family in Raleigh for the State College commencement. At this time, Mrs. Martin's nephew, Edward Harber Shirley of Greenville, S. C., was graduated in architecture. Mr. Shirley was awarded the $5,000.00 Paris Prize in architecture in the School of Design.

leather bound guest book and place mats.

On Thursday, June 5, Miss Elaine Brooks of Vass and Sanford was the honored guest when the Turlingtons entertained at luncheon. Surprise guests were Mrs. Turlington's nephew, John M. Callaway of Lakeland and Manatee, Florida and his G. I. friend, Ed Bass of McDill Field, Tampa, Florida, and Richmond, Va. The out-of-state guests were due in Charlottesville, Va. Sunday.

Mrs. Turlington and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Wyatt B. Martin of Anderson, S. C., were guests of the D. P. Harris' family in Raleigh for the State College commencement. At this time, Mrs. Martin's nephew, Edward Harber Shirley of Greenville, S. C., was graduated in architecture. Mr. Shirley was awarded the $5,000.00 Paris Prize in architecture in the School of Design.

Unpledged Bloc

(Continued from page one) said Sen. Richard B. Russell of Georgia "is the only Democrat I know who will be able to carry the entire South," but Russell "is not a sectional candidate in any sense of the word."

turned to her home here for the summer. She arrived Tuesday.

GARDNER CHILD IMPROVING

Master David Gardner, son of Mr. and Mrs. "Red" Gardner, is reported to be improving. He was taken to the hospital on Saturday following a freak accident in which he was seriously injured.

Advertisement for 'HOT BISCUIT SELF-RISING FLOUR' by McLAMB FLOUR MILL, featuring an image of a flour bag and promotional text.

Large advertisement for 'A&P food values' featuring a list of grocery items with prices, including Camay Soap, Orange Drink, Peaches, Peas, Flakes, Jewel Cheese, and various canned meats.

Large advertisement for 'Tussy PERMASTICK' lipsticks, featuring a large image of a lipstick tube and promotional text including 'SALE!' and 'Dunn Pharmacy'.