

Carlyle, Tally To Debate Here Wed. At 8 Colonial Lockers Safe Robbed Of Over $400.

STATE AMVETS COMMANDER — Pictured here is Paul Hester of Dunn, who has been elected State commander by North Carolina AMVETS. Mr. Hester, local insurance and veterans' leader, organized the Dunn AMVETS post about two years ago. (Daily Record photo by T. M. Stewart).

Police Think Three Involved In Robbery

Thieves last night broke into the Colonial Frozen Food Lockers in Dunn, rolled a 500 - pound safe from the office of the building into a freezer room, cracked open the safe and got away with more than $400 in cash and checks.

Police Chief Alton Cobb, who is investigating, said at noon today that he was awaiting arrival of an SBI agent to assist in taking of prints in an effort to help solve the robbery.

The robbery was discovered this morning by two employees of the plant, Eddie Barefoot and Glenn Riddle. Upon arrival they noticed the safe missing and found it in the freezer room, known as the "Zero Room."

Al Wullenwaber, head of the company, told reporters that approximately $400 to $500 was taken, including cash and checks. He said he had not yet had an opportunity to make a final check.

THOROUGH JOB

Chief Cobb said it took at least two people and possibly three to complete the job. The locker plant is located at the corner of South Wilson and Canary and the area is brightly lighted.

The robbers entered the plant through a toilet window on the South side of the building and then went to the north side where the office is located and took the safe. They apparently locked all

BASIL O'CONNOR, president of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, is reported recovering from a slight heart attack in a Riverhead, N. Y., hospital. Overwork, while attempting to help others, was responsible for his illness, doctors said. (International)

Home Is Lost In Fire Today

Fire of undetermined origin completely destroyed the six-room frame house of the Rev. J. A. Ashley at Shawtown around 2 a.m. this morning.

Lillington firemen who answered the call found the Ashley house already burning rapidly and managed to save the adjoining home and store, owned by Baptist Moore.

Ashley, well-known Negro minister and his wife, Annie Ashley, were asleep in the house at the time.

Ashley told Fire Chief W. F. Burton that when he awoke it seemed as if he were looking in the bottom of a hot stove.

Ashley owned his home, which he said was covered by a very small amount of insurance.

Neighbors said the house was nicely furnished and modern appliances were among the items lost.

State Interest Centering On District Event

The heated Seventh District Congressional campaign will shift to Dunn Wednesday night when Congressman F. Eitel Carlyle of Lumberton and his opponent, Mayor Joe Tally of Fayetteville, will come here to debate the issues in the city courtroom.

Jim McMillen of the Dunn Information Clinic announced this morning that both candidates have accepted and that all arrangements have been completed.

The debate will be carried by direct broadcast and transcription to every radio station in the district.

City Judge H. Paul Strickland will serve as moderator at the debate. Each candidate will be given 20 minutes to begin with and then 15 minutes for rebuttal.

They will flip a coin to determine who will debate first. A question-and-answer period will probably be held at the end of the event.

This is the first time the two candidates will have met in debate during the second primary and probably will be their only joint debate of the campaign.

Both sides are expected to have their supporters out in full force.

OPEN TO PUBLIC

In accepting the invitation to debate here, Congressman Carlyle said that the meeting be open to the public.

Mr. Carlyle's forces issued the invitation to debate in Dunn to Mr. Tally on Saturday and Tally accepted yesterday. Mr. Tally had previously expressed a desire to debate before the Dunn Information Clinic.

Mr. McMillen, founder of the clinic, today expressed delight that the two candidates had agreed to come to Dunn and declared, "The occasion promises to be most helpful and very enlightening to the voters of the county."

Both Carlyle and Tally are expected to answer some of the issues of the campaign. The contest has become somewhat heated during the past few weeks.

Mr. McMillen said he was happy that the Dunn Information Clinic could have his opportunity to render service to the people of this county and the district.

WHERE THIEVES ENTERED — Police Chief Alton Cobb is pictured here as he pointed to the window in which robbers last night entered Colonial Frozen Food Lockers in Dunn to take between $400 and $500 from the large iron safe in the plant's office. Looking on are Manager Al Wullenwaber of Colonial and Policeman Francis Hall. (Daily Record photo by T. M. Stewart).

Slaughter Resigns Church Membership

Benny Slaughter, Dunn business and church leader who recently led the group of citizens seeking re-ordination of City Manager Oliver A. Manning, announced today that he has resigned from the Second Baptist Church as the result of the controversy.

He said he was resigning because of the criticism directed at him and to prevent the church from receiving any of the criticism.

Following is a copy of Mr. Slaughter's letter to the church:

Greetings:

I am herewith tendering my resignation from any and every official capacity in our church, and requesting a letter of dismissal that specifies that I am to hold until I choose whether or when to where to request membership again. My reasons for this drastic action may not be fully understood by you, but I assure you I have no other alternative in view of existing circumstances. It is my decision, and I accept full responsibility.

I have been accused of making enemies for our church. I may have. I have been told I am a hindrance to the program and

(Continued On Page Two)

Taft Ignores Isolation Blast By Ike

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Robert A. Taft went delegate-wooing in pivotal Pennsylvania today and ignored, for the moment, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's blast at "ignorant and irresponsible" isolationists.

Eisenhower did not mention Taft by name in his nationally-televised foreign policy speech from Denver last night.

But his supporters said he was definitely aiming at his chief rival for the Republican presidential nomination when he denounced persons who "gamble with peace" by opposing the Atlantic Pact, foreign aid and other moves to build up strong allies abroad.

SEEKING LARGE BLOCS

Taft moved into Hershey, Pa., for a meeting with Pennsylvania's 70-vote delegation after having a "quite satisfactory" talk last night with Maryland's 24 delegates.

The Pennsylvania and Maryland delegations represent two of the largest blocs which are not yet

(Continued On Page Two)

MARKETS

HOGS

RALEIGH (AP) — Hog Markets: Hillsboro, Rocky Mount, Fayetteville, Florence. Slightly weaker at 19.75 for good and choice 180-240 lb barrows and gilts.

Whiteville, Lumberton: Steady at 19.75.

Tarboro, Hamilton, Siler City (Continued On Page Two)

Harnett Is Allotted New Roads Funds

RALEIGH (AP) — Gov. Kerr Scott announced the allocation of $11,850,000 from the highway fund surplus for special highway construction today, including $10,850,000 for primary road projects.

Scott set up a million-dollar fund for finishing out "tag ends" of the secondary road building program which already has been announced.

The allocations were made from an anticipated $12,000,000 surplus as of June 30, 1952, and were based upon recommendations of Highway Commission Chairman Henry W.

Jordan.

Jordan said all of the special appropriations were recommended upon the basis of a survey of traffic and the need.

The appointments include: Johnston County: U. S. 301 from Harnett County line to N. C. 719, $2,000,000.

Harnett County: U. C. 301 from Harnett County line through Dunn $1,300,000.

Cumberland county: New bridge on U. S. 301 across the Cape Fear River and connection with Rowan Street in Fayetteville, $1,000,000.

Harnett Officials Study Deputy Plan

Members of the Harnett County Grand Jury and county commissioners Monday paid a visit to Pittsboro to see how Chatham County operates its Sheriff's Department.

Herman S. Holloway of Fuquay Springs, representing the commissioners, and Foreman Charles H. Jackson and Arthur Byrd were designated by the grand jury for the inspection trip.

County Attorney W. A. Johnson also accompanied them. Commissioner B. P. Ingram of Marners, who was the second Commissioner slated to go, was ill and unable to attend.

Commissioners are seeking ways and means to aid the sheriff's department to provide paid deputies and two-way radio equipment. Present local laws bar a special levy to pay for this service.

The Grand Jury has strongly recommended employment of paid deputies, and at its last session asked commissioners to go with its representatives and see for themselves how other counties are able to afford this service.

Chatham provides this system. This was the first of several trips the group plans to make.

BULLETINS

EDMONTON, Alta. (AP) — The North Saskatchewan River, on its wildest rampage since 1944, was rising at the rate of six inches an hour today and threatened the homes of 1,000 persons.

LIVERPOOL, Eng. (AP) — Mrs. Leonard Gabriel, 27, has been granted a divorce because her husband claimed he was "too busy around the house" to consummate their marriage.

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Literary Gazette said today the United States had suffered a military and political defeat in the Korean war that was unparalleled in American history.

BERLIN (AP) — Soviet border guards ignored an Allied protest today and again barred American and British military police patrols from the Berlin-West German Super-Highway.

(Continued On Page Two)

Reds Free Kidnapped Germans

BERLIN (AP) — The Russians freed 43 kidnaped West Germans today and withdrew from a strip of British zone territory grabbed by the Reds a week ago.

The Soviets' backdown came as the Allied high commissioners sent a new note to the Russians demanding again the right to patrol the 110-mile highway between Berlin and Western Germany.

U. S. Army headquarters also disclosed that "shots" which the Soviets charged had been fired by American troops from a military train in Berlin's Communist outskirts actually had been fire-crackers tossed out by American boys.

Forty-two of the 43 West Germans set free today were seized at gunpoint by two Soviet troops and 30 East German police in a raid across the border into the British zone at Schoeningen, due west of Berlin, yesterday.

Ten other West Germans escaped the kidnapers in a hall of bullets from East German police machine-

(Continued on page two)

Solons Are Debating Quality Of "Rotgut"

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Harold H. Velde said today that some of the "fine blended whiskey" concocted by his constituents at Peoria, Ill., is vastly superior to "straight rotgut" bourbon from Kentucky.

The Illinois Republican took up the cudgels in defense of blended whiskey after Rep. Frank L. Chelf (D-Ky.) said it is "nothing more than an ulcer agitator and a stomach flush."

Chelf, who has 14 distilleries in his "Limestone Water" district of Kentucky, asserted at a House judiciary subcommittee hearing yesterday that the very name "blended whiskey" is a misnomer in most cases.

"It ought to be called blended alcohol," he said "because it contains only 35 per cent whisky and 65 per cent raw, green alcohol."

He said blend-bottlers have "degraded" the public by giving the raw alcohol in their products the "fancy name of neutral spirits."

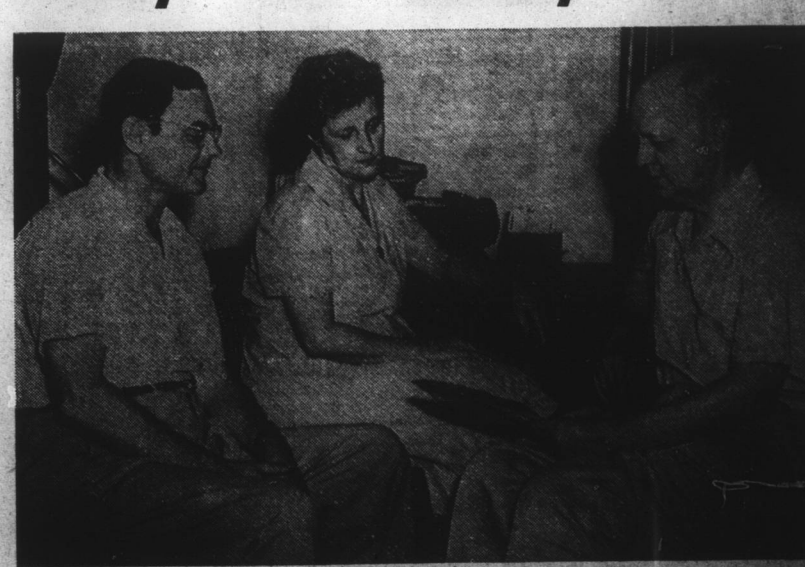

"I guarantee there isn't a moonshiner in Kentucky that can't outblend and out mix that stuff," he declared.

"PHOOEY" SAYS VELDE

"Phooey," said Velde, whose interest in the controversy was heightened by the fact that Peoria, in his home district, is one of the nation's largest centers for production of blended spirits.

(Continued on page two)

County V D Survey Slated

PLANNING FOR SURVEY — Dr. Maurice Kamp, left, of the State Board of Health, is pictured here with Miss Irene Lassiter, county health nurse, and Dr. W. B. Hunter, county health officer, as they discussed plans for a county-wide venereal disease survey to be conducted in Harnett. The survey will get underway July 21. (Daily Record photo by T. M. Stewart).

Plans for a county-wide blood-testing survey for the detection of syphilis was announced today by Dr. W. B. Hunter, head of the Harnett County Health Department. It will be the first such survey ever conducted in Harnett although the county has operated a venereal disease clinic for the past 15 years.

J. R. Robertson of the State Board of Health and members of his staff arrived here yesterday to begin work on setting up a schedule for the clinic.

TO BEGIN JULY 21
The clinic will be held in a section of the county in the manner that vaccination clinics are held in the county. They will

(Continued On Page Two)

CALROD CHEF MEETING HELD HERE — Purdie Equipment Company of Dunn last night played host to General Electric dealers and representatives from Fayetteville, Lillington, Sanford and Angier at a meeting held for demonstration of the Calrod Chef feature in General Electric ranges. The demonstration was conducted by Miss Estelle Doyle, home economist for Walker-Martin Co. of Raleigh, GE distributor. Among officials of Walker-Martin present were J. Y. Parker, general sales manager, Oliver Crawley, advertising manager, and Charlie Manoch, sales counselor. Miss Doyle let the men demonstrate, too, by cooking big, thick steaks for themselves. Johnnie Purdie and Johnnie Wilbourne were hosts to the group. Left to right are Norwood Carroll, A. T. Hobbins, Leann Sexton, Miss Estelle Doyle, Mrs. Jean Galloway, Scott Ferrell, J. E. Wilbourne and J. W. Purdie. (Daily Record photo by Bill Biggs).