

Lillington Social Happenings

FRIENDLY CLUB
Mrs. Billy Ray Matthews entertained the Friendly Bridge Club on Tuesday night at her home in Lillington.

Guests other than club members were Mrs. Lewis McKinney and Mrs. Frank Lewis. Others making up the two tables were Miss Virginia Coggins, Mrs. Meredith Gen-er, Mrs. Joe Brown, Mrs. Joe Bordeaux, Mrs. W. T. Simmons, Jr., Mrs. George Carroll, Jr.

Cokes and potato chips were passed during the card games and at the conclusion the hostess served a frozen banana salad, tea and sandwiches.

LILLINGTON PERSONALS TO KENTUCKY
Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Aubrey will leave next week to visit relatives in Upton, Ky.

HOME FROM TRIP
Rev. and Mrs. T. W. Williams and sons, Tommy and Johnny, have returned from a motor trip to Niagra Falls and Canada.

AT BEACH
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lewis and son, Frankie, spent from Saturday through Monday at Carolina Beach.

MRS. PEEDIE IMPROVED
Mrs. A. W. Peedie is reported improved at Pittman Hospital where she recently underwent an operation for a fractured hip.

IN KNOXVILLE
Miss Veve Caviness went to Asheville on Thursday where she joined her sister, Miss Edith Ann Caviness, for a trip to Knoxville where the latter is stationed with the American Red Cross. They plan to return to Lillington on Sunday.

AT THE BEACH
Mr. and Mrs. Roger Man and children, Kathy and Mike, and Mr. and Mrs. George Carroll, Jr., spent the weekend at Carolina Beach. The Manns are staying a short while with Mrs. Mann's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lee, before moving to the house which Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Parker vacated this week.

ATTEND BETHEA REUNION
Miss Lucretia Parker has returned from Dillon, S. C., where she attended the 18th annual Bethea family reunion. Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Bethea and son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bethea of Blakely, Ga. visited their cousin, Miss Parker, in Lillington several days prior to the reunion and she accompanied them to Dillon. While here the Georgia visitors also were guests of Mrs. Walter G. Murchison.

RETURNS HOME
T. T. Matthews returned to his home this week after being dismissed from the State Sanatorium at McCain where he has undergone treatment nearly two years. Matthews said "I am feeling fine and it certainly is good to be home."

WEEKEND GUESTS
Rev. and Mrs. W. L. Loy had as their guests during the weekend Mr. Loy's brother, Ed H. Loy, of Graham, Route 2, his brother-in-law, F. H. Pickard of Liberty, Route 2 and his cousin, Mrs. Carl Durham of Mebane, Route 2.

HOME ON LEAVE
Billy Parrish, who is stationed with the Air Force at San Antonio, Texas, arrived Monday to spend a 15-day leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Parrish.

TO DETROIT
Miss Cornelia McLaughlin and Miss Lois Byrd will leave Friday to spend a week in Detroit, Mich. Miss McLaughlin will attend sessions of the National Education Association where she will be one of three official delegates from the North Carolina Education Association. Miss Byrd formerly worked in Detroit and will visit friends there.

WITH MOTHER
Miss Evelyn Byrd of Danville, Va. will arrive this weekend to spend a two week's vacation here with her mother, Mrs. W. P. Byrd.

HOME FROM GERMANY
Sgt. and Mrs. Gene Bradley and children, Stephen and Susan, arrived here early Wednesday from Stuttgart, Germany for a visit with his mother, Mrs. Rheta Bradley. Sergeant Bradley has been with the American occupation forces. He and his family drove from New York and will have 45 days leave before reporting for another army assignment. Mrs. Bradley is the former Miss Dorothy Baird of Salt Lake City, Utah and they plan to spend part of the leave with her relatives in Utah.

GO TO MONTGOMERY
Mrs. James B. Turner and children, Mike and Bobby, left Wednesday to make their home in Montgomery, Ala. Staff Sgt. Turner, who recently returned from service in the Far Eastern Command has been stationed at Maxwell Field. He came to Lillington on Monday and accompanied his family to Montgomery. Mrs. Turner and the boys have resided here nearly two years with her parents, Sgt. and Mrs. J. B. Smith.

TO NEW ENGLAND
Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Davis will leave during the coming weekend for a trip to Boston and other parts of New England where they will visit relatives of Mr. Davis.

AT MYRTLE BEACH
Mrs. J. R. Baggett and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. J. R. Baggett, Jr., and children, Keeter and William, are vacationing at Myrtle Beach, S. C. Mrs. Addie Collins, mother of Mrs. J. R. Baggett, Jr., who was in Lillington for a brief visit, has returned to Atlanta, Ga. She was accompanied home by her grandson, John Rob Baggett.

WEEKEND GUEST
Miss Louise Anderson of Wadesboro was a weekend guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Coggins.

ON VACATION
Mr. and Mrs. Ira Porter and two children are spending several days this week at Cape Hatteras.

GARRELLS TO MOVE
Mrs. Mary Garrell and her daughters, Misses Pat and Gail Garrell, will leave shortly to make their home in Raleigh. Miss Mary Jane Garrell, who attended Woman's College in Greensboro this year, left three weeks ago to enroll in Hardberger's Secretarial School in Raleigh. Mrs. Garrell came to Lillington nearly two years ago from Whiteville and since coming here has been associated with the county health department and more recently was office nurse for Dr. A. W. Peedie.

ATTEND CONFERENCE
C. H. Brock, Jr., has returned home from Lousburg where he attended the Methodist Young People's Assembly. He represented the Lillington Methodist Youth Fellowship.

Miss Ann Jackson is in Red Springs this week where she is a representative of the Lillington church at the Presbyterian young people's conference at Flora MacDonald College.

WILLIAMSONS IN HARNETT
Dr. and Mrs. Howard Williamson

SCENE OF $100,000 ROBBERY

HERE IS A CLOSEUP of the painting of the Madonna and Child at the Regina Pacis Votive Shrine, Brooklyn, N. Y., from which a thief stole two jeweled tiaras (inset), valued at $100,000. The circled area shows where a rosette on the protective grillwork had been sawed away to circumvent the burglar alarm. Lines leading from the circle point to the supports on which the gem-studded tiaras rested. (International)

First Meeting

OFF THE MILK diet is "Wadi," tiger cub recently born at New York's Bronx Zoo. Tackling its first raw meat, the little fellow gets an assist from "Dacca," the proud mother. (International) of Alexandria, Va. arrived Tuesday for a brief visit in Harnett County with Mrs. Williamson's sisters, Mrs. Neil McLaughlin in Lillington and Mrs. Felix McKay in Erwin. Mrs. Williamson, the former Miss Eliza Green, is a native of Lillington.

WITH GRANDPARENTS
Bobby McKenzie of Augusta, Ga. is spending the summer here with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Wilder. He has been here most of June, returning with his grandmother who had been in Augusta for a short stay with her daughter, Mrs. Robert McKenzie.

AT CAMP
Ralph Shaw left during the weekend for Mobile, Ala. where he will attend an Air Force R.O.T.C. training camp for the next four weeks. A rising senior at N. C. State College he is the son of Mrs. J. M. Shaw.

IN FLORIDA
Mrs. G. E. Daniel is spending some time with her son, Gilmore Daniel, at Orlando, Fla. Mrs. Daniel, who spent the winter here with her daughter, Mrs. C. S. Loving, flew to Florida last week.

Now's the time to make your car look like new—increase its value—lengthen its life. Drive it in here tomorrow. Learn how little it costs to remove dents—replace marred paint—restore its original "SHOW-ROOM BEAUTY."

STRICKLAND MOTOR CO.
102 E. EDGERTON ST.
PHONE 3295
DUNN, N. C.

Erwin Social Happenings

Erwin Sewing Group Meets With Mrs. B. Stevens
The night sewing circle of St. Stephens Episcopal Auxiliary met with Mrs. Byron Stevens Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

The ladies are still busy sewing for their bazaar which will be held in November.

When the group tired of sewing Mrs. Stevens invited them into the back yard where she served delicious ice cream pie.

Those present were: Mrs. George Earnshaw, Sr., Mrs. E. M. Brandon, Mrs. E. L. Sewell, Mrs. Frank Ralph and Mrs. Henry C. Lee of Dunn.

OF GIBSONVILLE
John Oral Harper of Gibsonville visited his mother, Mrs. A. H. Harper Sunday. Mrs. Harper returned home with him to spend some time.

SUNDAY GUESTS
Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Moore and family and Miss Sylvia Wilson of Rockingham were the weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Earnshaw, Sr.

Rev. J. R. Eason Announces Healing Revival Schedule

Services will begin June 26th at 7:45 p. m. in the mammoth healing campaign to be held by the Church of God in East Erwin.

There will be a service each night at the above time it is reported by the Rev. J. R. Eason, pastor of the church.

Rev. Douglas who has just returned from an around the world preaching tour will conduct the healing services each night for 16 nights.

The Rev. Eason invites all persons who have faith enough to be healed to come and take advantage of the services. The meeting is opened to all people of all churches. They will be held in a large green tent in Erwin.

LINVILLE (AP) — Stately Grandfather Mountain was left with its memories for another year today as some 35,000 visitors to the annual "Singing on The Mountain" went home.

According to a July, 1951, report by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, land prices have climbed more rapidly in North Carolina since 1940 than in any other state.

Brownies In Erwin Have Busy Meeting Last Tuesday
Members of Brownie Troop 29 held their regular meeting Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 in the Park Center.

The group had a very busy meeting making sit-upons out of old newspapers.

Following the meeting Mrs. Byron Stevens, Brownie Leader served cookies and Coca-Colas to Sandra Ralph, Sandra House, Dru-scilla Moore, Gail Strickland, Karen Ann Bethune, Judy Raynor, Judy Dyer, "Mickie" Crawford, Janet Hollingsworth, Carolyn Whittington, Linda Autry, Frankie Mes-

HERE SATURDAY
Mr. Isaac Stevens and son, Roy, of Wilmington visited Mr. and Mrs. Byron Stevens Saturday.

WEEKEND AT BEACH
Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lee and Miss HOFFYE Sewell spent the weekend at Wrightsville Beach.

Got Tire Troubles?

Trade them for safety with low-cost GULF TRAFFIC TIRES

Wide, Flat Tread
Sharp, Angled Ribs
High-Tensile Cords

Only $12.95
/6.00-6 Plus T-x

FULLY WARRANTED

Trade your tire troubles for new Gulf Traffic Tires NOW!

Supreme Service Station
OSCAR STRICKLAND, MGR.
W. Borad St. Dunn, N. C. Phone 2566

Gulfpride Service Station
CHUBBY STRICKLAND, MGR.
Beside The City Hall Dunn, N. C. Phone 4330

NOTICE OF Second Democratic Primary Election SATURDAY, JUNE 28TH

POLLS OPEN FROM 6:30 a.m. TO 6:30 p.m.

Harnett County Board of Elections
DOUGALD McRAE
CHAIRMAN

Now You Can SHOP At The Capitol In Fayetteville FRIDAY NIGHTS UNTIL 9 O'CLOCK

STORE HOURS OTHER DAYS 9:30 a.m. to 6:00 p.m.

126-128 HAY ST. THRU TO OLD ST. FAYETTEVILLE, N. C.

"He possesses the patience, the understanding and the temperamental qualities requisite for a Judge. He is the best qualified man for the office."

SCHOLARLY EXPERIENCED COURTEOUS QUALIFIED

R. HUNT PARKER
Candidate For

ASSOCIATE JUSTICE OF THE SUPREME COURT
Second Democratic Primary June 28, 1952

Field Artilleryman In France 15 Months First A.E.F. — Member Of American Legion, 40 & 8 and V.F.W.

STATE LEGISLATOR STATE SOLICITOR
19 YEARS SUPERIOR COURT JUDGE

Primary May 31 Led His Present Opponent By 25,603 Votes

Your Vote Will Be Greatly Appreciated

THIS ADVERTISEMENT INSERTED BY FRIENDS OF JUDGE HUNT PARKER