

MISS PHOEBE DULIN IS WED TO GEORGE ELLIOT SATURDAY

Miss Phoebe Catherine Dulin was married to George Douglas Elliot in the Providence Presbyterian Church of Angier Saturday. The bride is the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Davison Hafner Dulin of Angier, and Mr. Elliot is the son of Henry Elliot of Linden and the late Mrs. Elliot.

Rev. Dulin officiated at the wedding of his daughter, and the bride was given in marriage by her brother, William Robert Dulin of Greensboro.

Wedding music was presented by Mrs. W. R. McKeller of Rowland, pianist, and Dr. Bob Pope of Wilkes, soloist.

The bride wore a dress of Duchess satin fashioned with an off-shoulder yoke of illusion outlined with Chantilly lace. The skirt was bouffant and formed a full-length train. A cap of Chantilly lace held the fingertip veil of nylon tulle. The bride carried a bouquet of white phalaenopsis orchids and stephanotis.

Mrs. Howard Long of Bowling Green, South Carolina was matron of honor for her cousin, and the bridesmaids were Miss Jane aPrmer of Spartanburg, S. C., and Mrs. Larry Rose of Raleigh, both former college classmates of the bride. The attendants wore gowns of blue nylon net and lace over taffeta, made with fitted strapless bodices, full double-net skirts and matching stoles. They carried bouquets of Esther Reed daisies in pastel colors.

Miss Katie Jackson, daughter of Capt. and Mrs. T. E. Jackson of Raleigh, cousin of the bride, was the flower girl. She carried a basket of pastel daisies. Edmund Ward III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Ward, Jr., of Smithfield was the ring bearer.

Charles Dudley of Erwin was best man for his brother-in-law, and the ushers were Edward Howard of Linden, Richard N. Edwards of Raleigh, brothers-in-law of the bridegroom and Gilbert Surlis of Linden.

Mrs. Dulin was attired in a dress of ashes of roses chiffon with matching hat and gloves. She wore a lavender orchid corsage.

Immediately following the ceremony, the parents of the bride entertained at a reception at their home. When the couple left for their wedding trip, Mrs. Elliot was wearing a dress of navy blue linen with navy and white accessories and an orchid corsage.

The bride attended Queens College in Charlotte and graduated from Appalachian State Teachers College. She has taught in Winston-Salem and this past year was a member of the faculty at Smithfield.

Mr. Elliot attended Oak Ridge Military Academy and Appalachian State Teachers College. He is now in business with his father in Linden.

Draughon - Dudley Wedding

At five o'clock on Saturday afternoon in the Parsonage of the First Baptist Church in Dunn, Miss Gaylia Elaine Dudley, daughter of Master Sergeant and Mrs. Percy Dudley of Dunn became the bride of James M. Draughon, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Draughon of Dunn. The vows were heard by the Rev. Ernest P. Russell, pastor of the bride and groom. The double ring ceremony was used.

The bride and groom were unattended. Miss Dudley was attired in a redingote of white embroidered organdy over a white taffeta dress with bouffant skirt. She wore white accessories and a white purple-throated orchid was pinned at her shoulder.

The bride's mother wore a dress of aqua nylon with brown and white accessories and her corsage was of yellow carnations. The groom's mother chose a dress of blue and white bemberg with navy accessories and her corsage was of pink carnations.

Immediately following the ceremony, the newly-weds left for a wedding trip. On their return they will be at home in Dunn with the groom's parents.

Mrs. Draughon attends Dunn High School and is a rising junior. Mr. Draughon was graduated from Dunn High School and served for some time with the U. S. Air Force. He has recently received an honorable discharge.

The only guests for the wedding were the families of the bride and groom and special friends. Among the out-of-town guests present were Mrs. Pierre Palant, Jr., sister of the groom, of New York, Miss Betty Lou Gladstone, Bob Davis, both of Norfolk, Va., Mr. and Mrs. Jarvis Overby of Lake Worth, Florida, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wren of Greensboro.
