returned to their home base today.

PITTSBURGH, (P)—More than 26,000 miners in 31 Pennsylvania coal mines ended a one-day wildcat walkout today and streamed back to the pits under orders of John L. Lewis.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., (P)—Sen. John J. Sparkman says he may now be referred to as a "sole mate" as well as a running mate of Gov. Adlai Stevenson on the Democratic ticket. The vice presidential candidate, here for a two-speech stop on a brief tour of Missouri, said he discovered that he, too, had holes in his shoes.

BURBANK, Calif., (P)—A strike that crippled production of the Air Force's newest jet fighter may be ended by a Wage Stabilization Board ruling expected soon. The WSB recommendations could form the basis for settling a walk-out by 25,000 Lockheed Aircraft workers here and avert a threatened strike by another 25,000 Douglas employees.

CHILICOTHE, O., (P)—Hundreds of youthful convicts trooped back to their quarters at the federal reformatory here early today after staging an eight-hour riot in which one inmate was shot and two were beaten up.

PITTSBURGH, (P)—The Federal Bureau of Investigation and Beaver Falls, Pa., police announced jointly today the capture of Leonard J. (Bad Eye) Zalutsky, 36, one of the FBI's 10 most wanted criminals.

BEIRUT, Lebanon, (P)—Lebanon's cabinet resigned today in a reform wave inspired by the coup of Egyptian strong man Gen. Mohammed Naguib in Cairo.

FRANKFURT, Germany, (P)—Top American generals openly disagreed with each other and French commanders today over the first Allied fall maneuvers in West Germany.

WASHINGTON, (P)—The Housing and Home Finance Agency today approved a long-term loan of $1,000,000 for construction of a dormitory for 264 men students at the Medical College of South Carolina, at Charleston, S. C.

WASHINGTON, (P)—Further shakeups in the Justice Department high command are expected shortly, informed sources disclosed today. Atty. Gen. James P. McGranery, these sources said, is still pressing the reshuffle which has resulted in the departure of most of the top aides who served with his predecessor, J. Howard McGrath.

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (P)—Police reported that 90 persons were killed when a passenger boat sank in the Danube River in a sudden storm. An estimated 30 were saved.

MEXICO CITY, (P)—Mexican scientists recorded a "strong" earthquake at 6:58:52 a. m. CST today. A spokesman said that if the tremor occurred south, it must have shaken "a wide area" of Costa Rica.

BERLIN, (P)—Russian troops and Communist police armed with tommy guns threatened three jeep-loads of American soldiers who tried to pass through a highway checkpoint west of Berlin today.

Governor Of Texas Fights Stevenson

AMARILLO, Tex., (P)—Democratic Gov. Allan Shivers urged his followers today to lead a fight against Adlai Stevenson in Texas and freed them to vote for Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Shivers, in a keynote speech at the Democratic state convention, called upon the convention to "make it plain that every Texan is legally and morally free" to vote against Stevenson.

"We can and should let it be known that when the contest is between Trumanism and Texas, we choose Texas," he said.

Shivers demanded that the name of Stevenson appear on the Democratic ballot because of moral and legal obligations.

But he said again "I cannot and will not support or vote for the nominees of the Democratic national convention."

He accused the national party of allowing "corruption, ineptness and inefficiency in high places . . . an unstable and stalemated foreign policy . . . and a new and dangerous doctrine of 'paramount rights.'"

"These things we have been fighting against are rolled up into a single package and plainly labeled."

Jaycees Change Their Meeting Nite

Committee Chairman Woody Carroll reported on the progress of the dance floor being arranged at the park for teen-agers at the meeting last night of the Dunn Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Carroll told the group that he had visited the park with City Manager A. B. Uzzle, and measured off the space and laid out the site. The area has to be filled in before the concrete floor can be poured and the entire membership will aid in this work.

The Jaycees adopted the recommendation of the board of directors with reference to a change in

State's Democrats Confident Of Sure Victory This Fall

BY LYNN NISBET
Record Correspondent
RALEIGH, —Despite a few incidents which on the surface might indicate lack of complete co-ordination among Democratic forces in North Carolina, the State convention of Young Democratic Clubs at Greensboro last week served to instill confidence in prospective victory at the polls this year.

The feeling of confidence stems more from off-side informal activities than from the official program—although the program speakers and the adopted resolutions afforded encouragement for those who expect a normal or greater Democratic majority in the November votes.

Implications in some of the resolutions and intimations in Governor Scott's speech were that the younger members of the Democratic party might have to make up for some lack of enthusiasm on part of the regular organization leaders with respect to the national ticket. Any comfort the Republicans might have gotten from that idea was dispelled by the fighting speeches delivered by Congressman Woodrow Jones, himself a voting member of the YDC, and by Congressman and National Committee member Robert L. Doughton, whose calendar age is far more than double the 40-year YDC limit, but who was acclaimed as the youngest Turk of them all in spirit.

LITTLE DIFFERENCE
Formal resolutions and program speeches are expected to give the desired impression. Traditional policy in public political expressions is to claim everything and concede nothing. But, when those same speakers and authors of resolutions get together with friends, tradition calls for them point out the weak places and to ask for help in strengthening them. The fact is that there wasn't much difference in public ballyhoo and confidential private talk among Democrats of all ages attending the Greensboro convention.

STRAIGHT PARTY LINES
In other words, neither Eisenhower nor Stevenson has demonstrated any unusual or peculiar qualities of leadership that would attract independent or lukewarm partisan voters. Franklin Roosevelt did that every time he ran; Wendell Willkie did it in 1940 and Tom Dewey did it in his first race in 1944. It looks now like the 1952 vote will be on straight party lines, Democrats voting for Stevenson, Republicans voting for Eisenhower, and none of them overly happy about the necessity for so doing.

MR. BROWN, MISS JOHNSON ARE HONORED AT BRIDAL PARTIES

The traditional bridal colors of green and white were followed in the decorations for the reception given by Archie Leonard Johnson at his home near Lillington Friday night. The reception followed immediately the marriage of his daughter, Miss Betty Jean Johnson, and Robert Guy Brown of Providence, R. I. which took place at Nell's Creek Baptist Church.

Guests, who included chiefly members of the two families and out of town guests, were greeted by Mrs. Ralph Morgan of Durham. Mrs. A. D. Johnson of Lillington made the presentations to the receiving line. Standing with the father of the bride were the bridegroom and Mrs. L. Guy Brown of Wakefield, Rhode Island, parents of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Robert B. Hurler of Everett, Washington, sister of the bride, and other girls of the wedding party.

The table on which stood the tiered wedding cake was covered with a lace over satin cloth. A silver punch bowl was arranged at one end of the table and the cake on a silver tray at the other. White flowers and candles in silver candelabra decorated the table and were also used on the buffet.

Mrs. Frank Slater and Mrs. James Morgan of Durham and Mrs. L. M. Chaffin of Lillington alternated at the punch bowl and Mrs. Rufus Morgan of Durham sliced and served the wedding cake. Others who assisted in serving fruit punch, chicken salad sandwiches, cheese biscuits, salted nuts, and green and white mints were Mrs. C. B. Matthews and Mrs. Robert Johnson of Lillington, Mrs. Henry Arent of Buie's Creek and Miss Carol Morgan of Durham.

Others who received in other parts of the home including the gift room were Mrs. Sam Barnes of Lillington and Mrs. E. P. Johnson of Durham.

Goodbyes were said to Mrs. W. H. Byrd of Lillington and Mrs. Jack Morgan of Raleigh.

Girl Scout Fund Drive To Be Held

The annual fund drive for Girl Scouts in the Central Carolina Area Council will be conducted from September 24 to October 1. W. W. Sevmour of Sanford, area finance chairman, said today that the goal for the council is $10,000. Harvick, Hoke, Moore, Lee and Chatham counties compose the area. One of the best organized groups for Girl Scouting in the state. Headquarters for the executive secretary are in Sanford. Lillington and Erwin are expected to name local fund chairmen.

NLRB Orders

the Erwin Mills, the corrupt dictatorial unions like Rieve's TWUA-CIO.

"The Erwin workers will have their elections in all three mills on the same day in the next few weeks," he continued. "The company can't prevent it and neither can the CIO. The people have won a real victory, and before many more days they will win an even bigger one when they select the United Textile Workers of America, AFL-CIO, a clean, honest, and democratic trade union to represent them in all three Erwin Mills."

CIO STATEMENT
Following is the text of a statement released today by Scott Hoyman, administrator of the TWUA-CIO:

"The CIO will ask at a conference with the NLRB to be held on Thursday of this week that the election at the three mills, Erwin, Durham and Cooleemee, be held at the earliest possible opportunity."

"We hope the election can be arranged on September 19th."

"We are asking for an early election because we feel that the workers deserve to have the election as soon as possible in spite of the stalling by the AFL. Secondly, we are asking for an early election because we are sure, that the CIO will win."

Erwin workers know that the CIO has been trying to get the AFL and the Company to agree to consent election in Erwin for the last three weeks. Although the AFL had yelled for an election, they would not accept our offer to hold the elections in the three mills on Monday, Wednesday and Friday of the week of September 15th.

Now in spite of their delaying tactics, the board has ordered an election before the contract expires and the AFL can stall no longer. The CIO will ask the NLRB to arrange for the elections as soon as possible. Erwin workers want this. They want to get rid of the AFL so that they can begin the negotiations with the Company for the next CIO contract."

FBI Chief

"Co-operatively," Hoover said, "I am sure that we can do the job by stepping up the present activities of local, state and federal agencies—with the aid of law-abiding citizens."

Hoover restated his conviction that the crime problem does not require establishment of a national police force "which is characteristic of the totalitarian dictatorships."

STEPS UP CAMPAIGN
He made the statement for the United Press as aides told how the FBI—which made its reputation in the gang-ridden era of the 1930s—has stepped up its own campaign against its old underworld enemies.

In April the FBI reported a 5.1 per cent nationwide increase in crime last year. The previous year had shown an increase too, 1.5 per cent. New York City officials recently explained that new statistical methods were responsible for a sharp increase in all types of crime—but they approved a 1,600-per cent increase in the police department.

Jasper County For Gen. Eisenhower

WASHINGTON (P)—Jasper County, Iowa, which has a spotless reputation dating back to 1896 for picking presidential winners, is for Republican Dwight D. Eisenhower this year.

Look magazine reported today it had made an "extensive" poll, finding 48.2 per cent of Jasper County voters favored Eisenhower, 29.1 per cent went for Democrat Adlai E. Stevenson, and 22.7 per cent were undecided.

Jasper County has gone for the winner in every presidential race since 1896, but Look counseled Republicans against premature optimism. It said its poll was taken early in August, when not too many residents know much about Stevenson.

many. He made an outstanding record in the service and won a number of decorations as a platoon leader.

Mr. Taylor married the former Miss Ruth Vaughan. They have one child, Archie Taylor, Jr.

Barden Sees No Chances For Repeal Of T-H

WASHINGTON (P)—Chairman Graham H. Barden of the House Labor Committee predicted today Congress will not repeal the Taft-Hartley law regardless of which party wins the November elections.

The North Carolina Democrat challenged a statement by Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson, Democratic presidential nominee, that the law should be repealed and a new one substituted that would not provide anti-strike injunctions against labor unions.

"I'd like to know what Governor Stevenson's new law would contain," Barden told a reporter. "This is a political year and sometimes political enthusiasm prompts the making of proposals that don't always work out."

Small Talk

THESE CHANGING TIMES: One of Dunn's old landmarks, the 'M' System Store on Broad St., will be sorely missed by local residents . . . We are anxious to hear what the Snipes brothers new venture will be . . .

We were very amazed to find out that Al Wullenwaber, the very popular owner of the successful Colonial Frozen Food Locker, came to Dunn just five or six years ago . . .

Just merely an idea . . . Wonder why with all the nationally known fashions that are sold in the Dunn stores that the merchants don't get together and have a fall fashion show . . . There are a number of attractive young ladies in Dunn that would be glad to model the fashions . . .

Dunn's football team shows up better this year than in a long time to our opinion . . . We do hope that they can win some games this year . . . There were a lot of proud but worried mothers at the game Friday night that held their breath several times during the game when it looked like the ferocious playing would result in broken bones.

One of Dunn's nicest young men J. W. Temple who has been on the Daily Record staff and also a photographer for the paper has enlisted in the Coast Guard . . . He has been serving in the Dunn National Guard . . . We are sorry to see J. W. leave but are glad he picked the Coast Guard.

Welcome to Mrs. L. F. Mims who has moved to Dunn to join her husband who is assistant manager of the Leder Brothers Department Store here. The Mims have two school-age daughters. It would be nice if local residents would drop in and say hello to Mrs. Mims. We also extend a welcome to Mrs. Jack Rowllins who has been in Dunn since March . . . Her husband is connected with Johnson's Restaurant. They have one son a week old.

The residents of Erwin are very lucky in obtaining a grand Episcopal minister and at the same time getting a grade A music teacher for their school in the persons of Rector and Mrs. Robert Insko . . . Everyone who has met the Rector Insko says he is a fine person . . . The Daily Record has had quite a few nice comments on the column, "Parsons Paragraph" he started in the paper last week.

The Daily Record Society Department would appreciate local residents calling in information on their trips, company and etc. . . And also on sick persons and other news in Dunn.

Costello

McGranery said. "McGranery did not mention denaturalization of Costello as a sequel to denaturalization. A Justice Department spokesman would say only that 'we'll cross that bridge when we come to it.'"

It was learned, however, that the department hopes to find a way to send Costello packing, if his citizenship is revoked.

NOW IN PRISON
Costello is now serving an 18-month sentence in the Lewisburg (Pa.) Federal Penitentiary for contempt of Congress. The jail term resulted from his refusal to answer some questions for the Senate Crime Committee.

The committee had recommended denaturalization proceedings against Costello.

The committee described Costello as one of the leaders of the New York crime "syndicate." It also said he wielded a "sinister" influence on the Democratic party in New York County.

The other crime committee figures also were the targets of federal action yesterday. Anthony J. Tony Accardo and Joe Adonis were indicted by a federal grand jury here for contempt of Congress. Their cases, like Costello's, resulted from defiance of the crime committee, headed by Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.).

Turlington Rites Will Be Tomorrow

Mrs. Flora Katy Turlington, aged 58, of Coats, died Monday at the Good Hope Hospital in Erwin.

A native of Cumberland County, she was the daughter of Mrs. Lillian Eullard Pridgeon and the late John Pridgeon. She was a member of the Erwin Methodist Church.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon at four o'clock from the Erwin Methodist Church with the Rev. D. A. Petty, pastor of the church, officiating. The body will lie in state for one hour prior to the service and burial will be in the Harnett Memorial Park in Lillington.

Surviving are her husband, Martin A. Turlington of Coats; her mother, Mrs. Lillian Pridgeon of Burlington; one brother, David Pridgeon of Burlington; three sisters, Mrs. M. K. Williams of Dunn, Mrs. W. R. Robertson of Burlington, Mrs. J. W. House of Durham, and several nieces and nephews.

Circle IV Meets With Mrs. Butler

Mrs. W. M. Butler was hostess Monday night to members of Circle IV of the Hood Memorial Christian Church.

Miss Pauline Bell and Miss Merle Owen were in charge of the program for the evening. They reviewed part of the new study course book, "These Rights We Hold."

The business session was presided over by the president, Mrs. Vernon Bass.

Ike Speaks

ber he will need Republican control of Congress to carry out his program.

The delicate problem of what to do about Jenner was put up to Eisenhower during a press meeting in Cleveland last yesterday.

"Are you going to ask the Indiana voters to support Jenner?" he was asked.

"I will ask all voters to support the Republican team," Eisenhower replied.

"What about his criticism of Marshall?" Eisenhower reminded that he has expressed, time and again, his admiration for Marshall and his disagreement with those who infer that his one-time Army colleague was a "traitor."

A reporter wanted to know whether Eisenhower would put Jenner in the same "category" with Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy of Wisconsin, another Marshall critic for whom the presidential candidate has shown displeasure.

little vote-catching" with his recommendations for the liberation of Eastern Europe.

The Illinois governor said he thought "the general's foreign policy as he has so far revealed it resembles our own in every important respect except, of course, the Democrats are administering it instead of the Republicans—except in one respect—and that is his preoccupation with the early liberation of the enslaved peoples in Europe behind the Iron Curtain."

"The general has since been at some pains to say that he didn't mean it just that way. I hope so, but the preoccupations seem to return. At best, it may be only a little vote-catching, this score of liberation."

"Cruel as it may be in terms of the illusory hopes it creates; at worst it has somber military implications when the concept is measured against the hard facts of life in Eastern Europe today."

"In any event, that is an issue between us, and it will stay joined until the counsels of reason clearly prevail."

Stevenson's primary reason for coming to Seattle was to talk about development of natural resources and do his best for democratic congressional candidates in the Northwest.

child will be presented with a brand new bicycle.

ENTRIES COMING IN
Entries in the various classes of exhibits are now being received and chairman West urges all those interested in exhibiting to get their entry blanks filed as soon as possible so that provision can be made for the space.

If hard work and attention to detail can make the fair a success, it will certainly not lack these ingredients. Chairman West, Commander Carl Fitchett, Vice-Commander Roy Brown and all the members of the Legion are working hard toward that end.

Chairman West is possibly the busiest man in Dunn these days. In addition to his legal work he has been commuting between his offices and the fair grounds in the last minute rush to speed up the work and get everything in readiness for the setting up of the tents Thursday.
