

U.S. May Explode H-Bomb

Trial May Open Tomorrow

Accused Bank Robbers Won't Contest Case

Defense Attorneys J. Robert Young and Archie Taylor announced here this morning that they will offer a plea of nolo contendere in the case of four Harnett men charged with robbing the First Citizens Bank and Anzler.

They said they would not contest the government's charges but would throw the defendants on the mercy of the court.

"There really won't be much trial to it," declared Senator Young, indicating that the government has an "open and shut case" against the four Harnett men.

RALEIGH, (P) — Federal authorities said here today trial may begin tomorrow for four Lillington men indicted in connection with what they said was a "fool proof" robbery of the First Citizens Bank and Trust Co., at Angier April 29.

(Assistant U. S. Attorney Tom Ellis told The Daily Record this morning that he expects the trial to begin tomorrow.)

A federal grand jury returned true bills against the four yesterday on charges stemming from the $44,000 holdup.

James Murchison, 22, is charged with being the lone gunman who waved two pistols in a bank cashier's face, shoved a large shopping bag at him and told him to "fill it up."

Officials charge that Murchison's plans were so complete that he was able to appear at the Harnett County Jail in time for the time the alarm had been sounded and that he was the first person the sheriff told about the robbery.

EXCHANGED CARS The bills of indictment also charged David Watkins, 32, with exchanging cars with Murchison a few minutes after witnesses saw a gun roar away from the scene.

The two other defendants, Pvt. Will Rogers, 19, and Jesse Frank Arnold, 26, are charged with aiding Murchison and being accessories to the robbery.

The FBI later announced that most of the money was recovered. The defendants are represented by State Senator Bob Young of Dunn and Archie Taylor of Lillington.

Hutchinson Will Speak In Raleigh WASHINGTON (P) — Democratic National Chairman Stephen A. Mitchell announced today that Assistant Secretary of Agriculture Knox T. Hutchinson will speak at Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 17 to boost the national Democratic ticket.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (P) — Dwight D. Eisenhower embraced all Republican candidates, including two of the GOP's most controversial senators, today in calling for teamwork to turn out an administration of "fear mongers, quack doctors and bare-faced looters."

Eisenhower, heading for a campaign visit to Washington, D. C., and a four-day rest before hitting the campaign trail again, found at Indianapolis one of the most enthusiastic audiences since he started a nine-state plane trip eight days ago.

The Republican presidential hopeful told 16,000 persons in Butler University Field House and a nationwide radio audience last night that he is calling for support of the entire Republican ticket from top to bottom.

Appearing with him was Sen. William E. Jenner, who has attacked Gen. George C. Marshall, Eisenhower's good friend. While Eisenhower was speaking, Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy, another critic of Marshall, won renomination in a Wisconsin primary by that he is calling for support of the entire Republican ticket from top to bottom.

Appearing with him was Sen. William E. Jenner, who has attacked Gen. George C. Marshall, Eisenhower's good friend. While Eisenhower was speaking, Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy, another critic of Marshall, won renomination in a Wisconsin primary by

that he is calling for support of the entire Republican ticket from top to bottom.

Appearing with him was Sen. William E. Jenner, who has attacked Gen. George C. Marshall, Eisenhower's good friend. While Eisenhower was speaking, Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy, another critic of Marshall, won renomination in a Wisconsin primary by

that he is calling for support of the entire Republican ticket from top to bottom.

Appearing with him was Sen. William E. Jenner, who has attacked Gen. George C. Marshall, Eisenhower's good friend. While Eisenhower was speaking, Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy, another critic of Marshall, won renomination in a Wisconsin primary by

that he is calling for support of the entire Republican ticket from top to bottom.

Appearing with him was Sen. William E. Jenner, who has attacked Gen. George C. Marshall, Eisenhower's good friend. While Eisenhower was speaking, Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy, another critic of Marshall, won renomination in a Wisconsin primary by

that he is calling for support of the entire Republican ticket from top to bottom.

Appearing with him was Sen. William E. Jenner, who has attacked Gen. George C. Marshall, Eisenhower's good friend. While Eisenhower was speaking, Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy, another critic of Marshall, won renomination in a Wisconsin primary by

that he is calling for support of the entire Republican ticket from top to bottom.

Appearing with him was Sen. William E. Jenner, who has attacked Gen. George C. Marshall, Eisenhower's good friend. While Eisenhower was speaking, Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy, another critic of Marshall, won renomination in a Wisconsin primary by

MR. LEE AND HIS BELL

That Loud Noise Is Howard Lee's Bell

Howard M. Lee, prominent Dunn business man and a real railroad fan, today had fulfilled a lifelong ambition — to own one of the big brass bells of an Atlantic Coast Line engine.

The bell, clapper and platform on which it is mounted — all 200 pounds or so of it — arrived yesterday and today Lee had it mounted over the office of his store.

When a friend comes in the store now, Lee grabs for the rope and you can hear the results for blocks away.

Mrs. Joe Johnson, his secretary, avowed this morning that she's going to buy some ear plugs for protection, but Lee just beams when the clanging starts.

The Dunn business man, who has a number of hobbies, added the bell to his already large collection of antiques. He has an old graphophone, an ancient typewriter, a coffee mill handed down for generations.

Not only that, Mr. Lee owns a complete file of Life magazines from the first issue published in November of 1936 to present date. This file already is worth several thousand dollars as a collector's item, and Lee plans to keep it for another quarter of a century or so. His set has been indexed and

(Continued on page two)

Indianapolis Gives Ike Big Reception

BY JOHN L. CUTLER (P) Staff Correspondent

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (P) — Dwight D. Eisenhower embraced all Republican candidates, including two of the GOP's most controversial senators, today in calling for teamwork to turn out an administration of "fear mongers, quack doctors and bare-faced looters."

Eisenhower, heading for a campaign visit to Washington, D. C., and a four-day rest before hitting the campaign trail again, found at Indianapolis one of the most enthusiastic audiences since he started a nine-state plane trip eight days ago.

The Republican presidential hopeful told 16,000 persons in Butler University Field House and a nationwide radio audience last night that he is calling for support of the entire Republican ticket from top to bottom.

Appearing with him was Sen. William E. Jenner, who has attacked Gen. George C. Marshall, Eisenhower's good friend. While Eisenhower was speaking, Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy, another critic of Marshall, won renomination in a Wisconsin primary by

that he is calling for support of the entire Republican ticket from top to bottom.

Stevenson Begins Platform Talks On Train Tour

BY MERRIMAN SMITH (P) Staff Correspondent SAN FRANCISCO, (P) — Adlai Stevenson put his first major foreign policy speech behind him today and got the feel of the open road from the rear platform of a campaign train.

The Democratic presidential nominee, whose recent public appearances mostly have been confined to stuffy auditoriums, set out for Los Angeles, scheduling eight platform talks along the way.

Stevenson, in making his first foreign policy pronouncement at Veterans Memorial Auditorium here last night, defended the Truman administration's move in Korea and simultaneously put the blame on Russia for high taxes imposed on Americans.

"I believe we may in time look back at Korea as a major turning point in history," Stevenson said, "a turning point which led not to another terrible war, but to the first historic demonstration that an effective system of collective security is possible."

SPURNS WAY IDEA Although he spurned the idea that war with Russia is inevitable, Stevenson warned the nation against underestimating the seriousness of the problems facing America in Asia "perhaps for many years."

"Having failed to defeat us in the field of battle, the enemy now seeks to defeat us by prolonging the negotiations and by exhausting our patience," he said.

"But some men in this country seem to think that if definite victory cannot be won, we should either take reckless military action or give the whole thing up. Such advice plays into the enemy's hands.

(Continued On Page Six)

School Health Rooms Sought

Every school in Harnett County will soon have a room set aside as the health room, if plans advocated jointly by the county public health and school officials go into action.

Beaman Kelley, assistant county superintendent, and Miss Irene Lassiter, public health educator, said they have been assured by the principals that space will be secured at every school.

The room will provide the public health nurses with a place for examinations and conferences, also a storage spot for supplies. The rooms will be equipped with cots.

(Continued On Page Two)

Erwin Workers Attend Meeting

Ten workers and union leaders from the Erwin Mill in Durham traveled to Erwin last night to attend the regular evening weekly meeting of Erwin Local 254, UTW-AFOFL, and report to their union brothers and sisters here what has been happening in the campaign in Durham for the past few weeks.

A number of the visitors took the floor of the meeting and gave first hand reports of the progress of both the UTW-AFOFL and the TWU-A-CIO's activities in Durham recently.

All of the visitors reported that the UTW-AFOFL has the overwhelming support of 80 percent or better of the workers in the Durham mills of the Erwin chain. Mrs. Hazel Gore (employed in the Sewing Room) reported that she hon-

(Continued on Page Two)

MARKETS

EGGS AND POULTRY RALEIGH — (P) — Central North Carolina live poultry: Fryers and broilers steady, supplies adequate, demand generally good; heavy hens steady to firm, supplies short to adequate, demand fair to good. Prices at farm up to 10 a m.; Fryers and broilers 2 1-2-3 lbs. 31.

(Continued on page two)

SEN. MCCARTHY

McCarthy Scores 3 To 1 Victory

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (P) — Sen. Joseph McCarthy claimed today that his overwhelming victory in the Wisconsin primary meant that the state's voters had stamped "approved" on his controversial methods of denouncing alleged Communists in government.

McCarthy easily won renomination in record balloting in yesterday's primary, polling three to one over the closest of his five Republican opponents, smalltown lawyer Leonard Schmitt, who waged an extensive radio "talkathon" campaign.

It was the Communist-hunting senator's first test at the polls since he began his accusations that the federal government was honeycombed with subversive employees, and he won a smashing victory.

With 2,982 of the state's 3,223 precincts reporting, McCarthy had 395,043 votes to Schmitt's 156,025. The four other candidates garnered only 23,234 votes.

CLOSE DEMOCRATIC RACE In the Democratic senatorial race (Continued on Page Two)

Lions' Broom Sale To Open Thursday

"Buy a broom from a Lion" should be the slogan in Dunn Thursday and Friday when the members of the Dunn Lions Club put on their annual broom sale for the benefit of the blind workers in the Guilford Industries in Greensboro.

With the exception of supervisory and office personnel the plant where these brooms are made is operated entirely by blind persons. These persons can only be gainfully employed through the sale of their products.

In order to market these brooms and mats, the Lions Clubs throughout the state, put on these broom sales. The more brooms that are sold in this manner, the more blind persons can be afforded an opportunity to be self-supporting through employment at Guilford Industries. At present it provides employment for 65 blind persons. HIGH QUALITY BROOMS The buyer gets full value because the quality of the material used in making these brooms and mats is top quality and comparable to that of a similar product in any of the local stores at the price.

Each of the vice-presidents, Ed Galloway, Frank Belote and Jack Jackson, will be in charge of teams of house-to-house canvassers, who will start out directly after the reg-

(Continued On Page Six)

Five Youths Held In Robbery Case

Five young Negro boys who broke into Turlington Builders Supply Company on September 2 and stole guns and ammunition waived preliminary hearing yesterday in Harnett Recorder's Court and were bound over for trial to Superior Court.

Bond for each was set at $500. Sheriff W. E. Salmon said the stolen property, valued in excess of $600, has been recovered. Exception of one shot gun which the sheriff said he was told had been thrown into the Cape Fear River.

The young men face trial on two counts, the combined breaking and entering, larceny charge and conspiracy to rob.

Defendants are: Charlie Blue, 17, Rufus Stokes, 16, Willie M. Strickland, 16, Eddie Phillips, 16, and LaSalle Cannady, 14, all of Lillington.

Sheriff Salmon said the stolen property included three Ithaca pump guns, two rifles, 20 boxes of shotgun shells, one gun case, and three hand axes.

"Each boy had a gun a piece and plenty of ammunition," the Sheriff said. He said the stolen property was found hidden in wooded areas along highway 15-A between the town limits and the Cape Fear River.

The sheriff held the case against the boys admitted to him in the robbery. He said the boys were the ones who were arrested.

(Continued On Page Six)

TOP GRADE LEAF — W. S. Munson, buyer for R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company, one of the buyers on the Dunn Tobacco Market is shown examining some of the top dollar leaf he purchased for his company on the market here. The tobacco he holds is typical of the better grade which all the buyers eagerly bid on for their companies. (Daily Record photo by T. M. Stewart).

Billy Rose Drops Divorce Charges

NEW YORK (P) — Showman Billy Rose filed up his big show in court today by withdrawing his divorce charges against his swimming queen wife, Eleanor, and agreeing to let the court fix alimony in a separation.

Driver Appeals Speed Conviction

Judge M. O. Lee presided over the morning half of Harnett Recorder's Court, on Tuesday, while in the afternoon Vice-recorder L. M. Chaffin was on the bench. Solicitor Nell Ross was assisted in prosecuting the docket by Attorneys John R. Hood and D. C. Wilson.

A contested speeding case consumed a large part of the morning session. Ralph Lee Sparrow, Durham business man, was found guilty of speeding 70 to 75 miles an hour in a 50 mile per hour zone. Sparrow immediately took an appeal to Superior Court. He was represented by Bob Young and Archie Taylor.

DENIED CHARGE Highway patrolman Herman Ward testified he clocked Sparrow driving a Cadillac car at the high rate of speed between Lillington and the Bethune stockyard on highway 15-A on the night of August 30. Sparrow denied going over 50 miles an hour, claimed his car had had mechanical trouble

(Continued On Page Two)

Supreme Court Justice James B. McNally granted a motion made shortly after noon by Rose's attorney, Arthur Garfield Hays.

A short time earlier the creator of Broadway, water and nightclub spectacles had said he was willing to drop his charges against the former Eleanor Holm if she would drop her charges against him.

The decision to compromise ended chances of a battle royal which had been regarded as a sure thing to bring a lot of dirty linen out of night life closets.

"I'm willing to let her take a separate decree on ground of abandonment and leave the question of alimony wholly up to Justice McNally," Rose said. "If she capitulates, I will give an uncontested suit of separation."

McNally, noted for his ability to settle divorce cases without a trial, had attorneys parading through his chambers like customers through a bargain basement.

ELEANOR TESTIFIES Eleanor, deeply sun-tanned and wearing a black dress with a plunging neckline and backline, then took the stand and perfunctorily testified Rose abandoned her on Sept. 15, 1951, and never returned.

Then both sides rested in the separation suit brought by Eleanor. The judge granted a separation

(Continued on Page 2)

DISTRICT NURSES HOLD MEETING — The 14th District of the North Carolina State Nurses Association met last night at Johnson's Restaurant with Dr. John W. Balms as guest speaker. Shown are, seated, left to right: Dr. B. L. Dofformy, who introduced the speaker; Dr. Balms; and Mrs. Ruby Strickland. Standing, left to right: Mrs. Ada Poole, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Ruby Hood, President; and Miss Theresa Magruder, vice-president. (Daily Record photo by Louis Dearborn).