NORTH CAROLINA — Mostly fair and continued mild today and tonight. Some intermittent rain over coastal areas today. Friday, fair and slightly warmer.

TELEPHONES: 3117 - 3118 - 3119

FIVE CENTS PER COPY

RETURN FROM TOUR — Me'v': Jones and Alfred Tart are shown here in the automobile in which they just took part in the Glidden Tour. In company with a host of cars of the same vintage, they accompanied the tour from here, through Winston-Salem, Roanoke and Staunton, Va., on to Harrisburg, Penasylvania where others from that section joined the automotive parade to proceed to Washington, D. C. Jones had just tuned up the ancient vehicle and paintif just before the start and it performed beautifully on the trip. Tired and happy, the two were back in Dunn today. (Record photo by T. M. Stewart).

Policy Meeting

Stevenson Decides To Reveal Donors The setting of policies which the new City Manager, A. B. Uzzle, Jr., can use as a guide, occupied most of the session at the special meeting of the Dunn City Council last night.

and Kentucky.

He said there were "eight or nine" officials who received money from the fund and that he had contacted all of them last night to discuss making the fund public. He said he had also talked with most of the donors but still had not discussed the subject with all of them.

them.
WILL ISSUE STATEMENT
Stevenson was asked whether he ald list the donors and beneficles in a speech or in a statement.

He said he would issue a statement although he might later gefer the matter in a speech. Wilson Wyatt, his personal campaign manacer, had indicated earlier that the Stevenson made the announcement in reply to questions from reporters who crowded around him as he boarded a plane to leave on a two-day swing through Indiana and Kentucky.

He said there were "eight or nine" officials who received money from the fund and that he had

To the Democratic State Ccentral Committee."

DOESN'T KNOW HOW MUCH McKinney acknowledged that he didn't know how much money was solicited for the alleged funds.

"It could be a lot less," he said. The former Stevenson administrator said he not believed the money (was simply a Democratic party).

tor said he no? believed the money "was simply a Democratic party fund for the campaign of 1950."
All I know is they needed money for that campaign," he said. Mc-Kinney, who resigned his job Nov. 17, 1950 when Stevenson told him that the state legislature would not re-confirm him, said he could not "conceive" of Stevenson misusing funds.

palities. Policies set reflected his suggestions.

George Franklin warned against local police going outside the city limits and Chief of Police A. A. Cobb was directed to tell his men not to operate beyond the city limits even in pursuit of speeders. The council did not discuss whether or not two Dunn policemen should be suspended until felony charges brought against them are cleared up. Mayor Hanna said today he didn't know what, if anything, the board might do about it. Joe T. Jackson, cemetery superintendant, pointed out that the cemeteries were partly outside the (Continued On Page two).

The Sampson County active and the country and continued on Page two).

Dunn will have the welcome mat out Monday when death.

pretty amber-eyed, chestnut-haired Charlotte Austin, beautiful young singing star of the movies, comes to Dunn for a one-day round of personal appearances.

nett for the past six years. She was the widow of George C. Goodman, who died in 1928. She was a mem-ber of the Erwin Presbyterian

B. Goodman of Flatwood. Kentucky B, Goodman of Flatwood. Kentucky: George E. Goodman of Erwin Route 1, with whom she made her home; Hildredge H. Goodman of Coats; one daughter, Mrs. Lillian Hardi-son of Erwin Route 14 also 12 grandchildren; two sisters, Mrs. Moore of Erwin, Rovite 1, Miss Sar-ah McLeod of Sanford, Route 1.

+MARKETS+

EGGS AND POULTRY RALEIGH (P) — Central M talletigh (P — Central North rollina live poultry: Fryers or illers steady to weak, supplies ntiful, demand fair. Heavy hens steady, supplies adequate, demand good. Prices at farm up to 10 a.m (Continued on Page 8)

Truman Attacks Isolationists. UN Opponents

WASHINGTON, President Truman, pleading that world problems be left out of politics, said today that "the old isolationists have grown bolder" in what he called a growing attempt to undermine the United Nations.

Addressing a delegation of the National Citizens Committee for United Nations Day in the White House garden. Mr. Truman said; "We must withstand the efforts of those who would play politics with security and the welfare of our nation and the freedom of our salines."

"The world problems we face are not ordinary ones. They are not —and must not become—questions of party politics. They involve not only the fate of our own nation but the future hopes and aspirations of mankind.

Hitting at isolationism, Mr. Tru-man said that despite the great achievements of the United Na-tions and the hope that it holds for all mankind, "We face growing attempt to undermine

GROWING BOLDER

"Since Senator Arthur H. Van-denburg (R-Mich.) died," he said, "the old isolationists have grown bolder."

Second Victim

Negro assistant, died in the Dunn Hospital.

TO CONDUCT COOKING SCHOOL — Pictured here is Mrs. Katherine Stafford, internationally--famous home economist, who will conduct the Piggly Wiggly Cooking School at the Dunn Armory next week. The school, staged in cooperation with Wellons Mercantile Co., local Hotpoint dealer, will be held from 1:30 to 3:30 Monday through Friday afternoon. More than $1500 in prizes will be given. It's all free.

Court Not Expected To Hear Jury Issue

SPRINGFIELD, III., IP—Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson to-day announced that he would make public today or to-morrow is list of contributors and beneficiaries to his controversial fund to argument salaries of top state officials.

Stevenson made the announcement in reply to questions from the reporters who crowded around him as he boarded a plane to leave on a two-day swing through Indiana and Kentucky.

He said there were "eight or nine" officials who received money from the fund and that he held committee."

Stevenson made the announcement is reply to questions from a two-day swing through Indiana and Kentucky.

He said there were "eight or nine" officials who received money from the fund and that he held was the fund and that he held committee."

Stevenson made the announcement is reply to questions from the profit of the point was collected from state supjeirs during the years of 1945 and that he believed "part of the profit of the point was the point of the point was the legal at the point was the legal at the point was the legal at the point was the legal of the case until the Survey from the fund and that he held which yas and that he believed "part of the point was the legal of the case until the Survey from the fund and that he held was the legal of the case until the Survey which yas the legal of the case until the Survey which yas the legal of the case until the Survey which yas the legal of the case until the Survey which yas the legal of the case until the Survey which yas the legal of the case until the Survey which yas the legal of the case until the Survey which yas the legal of the case until the Survey which yas the legal of the case until the Survey which yas the legal of the case until the Survey which yas the legal of the case until the Survey which yas the legal of the case until the Survey which yas the legal of the case until the Survey which yas the legal of the case until the Survey which

The official, who has one of the top court posts in the State and who is regarded as a legal authority, asked that he not be quoted due to the high position which he holds. He said that, under the law, the State cannot appeal in a plea of rent which was the legal ure under which Judge on the said sund's ruling was tested.

REVERSED TWICE
It was the second time that a superior Court Judge had reversed the Dunn recorder. In the face of the Continues to deny destrickland continues to deny destrickland.

Sold Yesterday The Sampson County accident that cost the life of Clyde Allen Wooten, 28-year-old sawmill worker of Dunn Route 5, has claimed another victim, Charles James, a Another heavy day of sales saw nearly three hundred thousand pounds of tobacco sold on the Dunn Tobacco Market yesterday. Top grades continued to fetch a good price while even the lower grades ran to or above the grade figure. A total of 284,122 pounds of leaf was sold for $134,443.18 on the market with the average for the day $47.48.

At Buck Currin's Big Four Warehouse a total of 214,676 pounds was sold for $103,235.26, an average there of $48.08.

of $48.08.

At the Grower's Warehouse, operated by Dick Owen, the sales amounted to 68.446 pounds which brought $31,207.92, an average of $45.58.

Huge Crowd Hears Charlotte Address

(IP Staff Correspondent CHARLOTTE, N. C., (IP—Dwight D. Eisenhower, invading the South again, charged here today that the Democratic administration has brought shame and inflation to estimated at 25,000 in and around the stadium. He was to make another address later in Winston-Salem. The Republican presidential nom-

The candidate told the crowd in Charlotte he had been warned be-fore heading South that he would be wasting his time "because the whole country is mortgaged to one political group."

CROWD ROARS "NO"

CROWD ROARS "NO"

The North Carolinians, traditionally Democratic, roared, "no."
Eisenhower said he had replied that each state, county and precinct in owned by the people and that he wuold not recognize a political "mortgage" of any description. He said if the people in Washington could see the Charlotte crowd they would realize that someone had wiped out the debt.
Clad in pajamas and a black-and red checked bathrobe, Eisenhower, colorfully supported by "My Mamie" in a pink wrap, began his second drive for Southern votes with an early morning whistel stop at Salisbury, N. C.
WANTS DISGREER ENDED

with an early morning whistel stop at Salisbury, N. C.

WANTS DISORDER ENDED

The presidential candidate wooed voters of North Carolina and Virginia after climaxing yesterday's drive through Maryland by demanding an end to "disorder and duplication and waste" in military spending.

The Salisbury stop was unscheduled. It caught the Eisenhowers that didn't stop them from appearing the salisbury to gressed for the day. But

ing un are plated to gr 100 earlier risers gathered to ch

APPEARS IN PAJAMAS
Eisenhower stepped to the back platform of the train in pajamaand bathrobe and started signisautographs. A moment later Mrs.
Eisenhower joined him, and someone in the crowd shouted, "hi ya, Mamie. You-all look good to us
even in the morning."

The Eisenhower roared with laughter. The pink-wrapped Mrs.
Eisenhower had her hair in curiers.
THOUSANDS LINE STREET
After the brief stop at Salisbury, the special went on the Salisbury the Salisbury the special went on the Salisbury the Salisbury the Salisbury the Salisbury the Salisbury the special went on the Salisbury the Sali

After the brief stop at Salisbury, he special went on to Charlotte.

Notified Wife III, Finds Her Dead, He Dies

ROCKINGHAM, (IP) — A. G. Corpening, founder and executive vice president of the Richmond County Building and Loan Association, was notified at his office this morning that his wife had become ill suddenly.

Corpening, 76, hurried home but before he arrived his wife had died.

Corpening collapsed on hearing the news and died a few minutes later. The elderly couple lived alone. In addition to the business which he founded, he was active in insurance and real estate and with his wife operated a tourist home here

There the candidate was greeted by about 2,000 persons at the sta-tion and other thousands lining the streets.

The party traveled by automobile to Memorial Stadium. Fire Chief E. L. Davis said more than 25,000

(IP) Staff Correspondent

CHARLOTTE, (P)—Thousands of North Carolinians gave Dwight Eisenhower a tumultous welcome here today as the Republican presidental hopeful brought his campaign swinging into traditionally Democratic Dixie for the second time. for the second time.

Rebel-yelling throngs greeted Ei-

Rebel-yelling throngs greeted Eisenhower at the railway station here when the campaign train pulled into this metropolis of the Carolinas a few minutes later.

His first appearance in North Carolina was an impromptu pajama-clad appearance on the rear platform at Salisbury, where the train stopped briefly for water and to pick up a delegation of dignitaries.

(J. O. West, Emmett Edgerton and O. W. Godwin, Sr. of Duna were among these dignitaries).

Eisenhower and his wife, Mamie, smiled broadly and waved to the crowds lining Trade Street here.

A huge crowd jammed Memorial Stadium under gray-overcast skies and sent up a mighty roar as Eisenhower's car drove onto the field.

CHILDREN CHEER

CHILDREN CHEER

Waving pennants, the crowd-led by a line of high school cheer-leaders-chanted "I Like Ike" from the time he arrived at the stadium the time he arrived at the (Continued on Page CINCINNATI, (IP—C. W. Lapierre, manager of Evandale General Electric plant near here, said the U. S. is producing one of the most "efficient and powerful" iet engines in the world today.

TEHRAN, Iran (IP—The newspaper Ettalaat said yesterday that the Iranian Army general staff has banned all movements in the country's oil areas for fear of sabotage.

MIAMI, (IP—Hurricane "Charlie", packing winds up to 104 miles per hour, lumbered slowly northwest today some 300 miles of the Florida Coast and weather experts said there was a "possibility" it would not hit the mainland.

WASHINGTON, (IP—Gov. Walter Kohler of Wisconsin says Democratic presidential nominee Adlai E. Stevenson (Continued on Fage Two)

Federal ATU agents and Drison term; John Julius Jackson, 26, of Dunn. Route 4, who was alrot operating a distillery; and Alton operating a distillery; and Alton David Lee, 43, of Dunn, Route 4, who was alrot operating a distillery and today, destroyed five whiskey stills and arrested four men, including a well-known Dunn business man, a man who was fined $300 and another man who is under bond awaiting trial for operating a distillery. The first raid was conducted by the Federal and ABC agents and another man who is under bond awaiting trial for operating a distillery. The first raid was conducted by the Federal and ABC agents and another man who is under bond awaiting trial for operating a distillery. The first raid was conducted by the Federal and ABC agents and another man who is under bond awaiting trial for operating a distillery. The first raid was conducted by the Federal and ABC agents and another man who is under bond awaiting trial for operating a distillery. The first raid was conducted by the Federal and ABC agents and another man who is under bond awaiting trial for operating a distillery. The first raid was conducted by the Federal and ABC agents and another man who is under bond awaiting trial for operating a distillery. The first raid was conducted by the Federal and ABC agents and another man who is und Federal ATU agents and prison term; John umberland County ABC of 26, of Dunn, Route line.

FOUND INSIDE BARN

Officers said they found a 100gallon submarine-type still in a tobacco barn located in a pasture on the dairy farm. They also found an 800-gallon fermenter box, a 360gallon fermenter container, 700 gal-

Miss Austin, who has received wide acclaim during her present personal appearance tour, will arrive at 11:30 a.m. and will be given

CHARLOTTE AUSTIN

Ist was forthcoming. Meanwhile, a former state purchasing agent, who said yesterday that Stevenson's aides solicited about $100.000 fcr political nurcoses from firms that sold services or

Movie Star To Get Mrs. Lossie McLeod Goodman, 73, of Erwin, Route 1, died Thursday afternoon at 5 o'clock in the Dunn Hospital. She had been ill for several days Big Welcome Here eral days.

Mrs. Goodman suffered a broken hip several weeks ago and complications developed and caused her

Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at, 3 o'clock at the home. The Rev. R. M. Phillips, paster of the Erwin Presbyterian Church, will officiate, Burial will be in the Wood Cemetery at Linden

She's coming in connection with the showing of the new Columbia musical, "Rainbow Tkound My Shoulder," playing Sunday, Monday and Tuesday at the Dunn Theatre, But she'll have a busy schedule in addition to her movie appearances.

The accident occured when a tree they were felling hit a dead tree, knocking it over. Both were hit by the falling tree and Wooten died shortly after being admitted to the Dunn Hospital. James succumbed to a brain concussion and internal chest injuries according to Dr. Charles W. Byrd, who treated him at the hospital. Dr. Byrd said that his skull may have been fractured, but his

MOSCOW (P)—The official Communist party newspaper Pravda said today U. S. Ambassador to Russia, George F. Kennan was a "slanderer masking as a diplomat who cannot retain his vicious hostility to the Soviet Union."

CINCINNATI, (P.—C. W. Lapierre, manager of Evandale General Electric plant near here, said the U. S. is producing one of the most "efficient and powerful" jet engines in the world today.