

ERWIN SOCIETY

Fete Recent Bride By Erwin Shower

Miss Vickie Taylor delightfully entertained at a miscellaneous shower at the Park Center Club Building Saturday evening, feting Mrs. "Moody" Graham, a recent bride. Mrs. Graham is the former Miss Ethel Williams.

The club house was beautifully decorated for the event. The gift table was covered with a white cloth and centered with an arrangement of mixed flowers in colorful autumn shades.

When the honoree arrived she was given a lovely corsage of red roses and shown to her place beside the gift table.

Mrs. Margaret Lawrence directed the guests in several games and contests and prizes were awarded the winners.

The honoree then opened her gifts and passed them around for everyone to see.

The hostess assisted by Mrs. Anna Norris served open faced sandwiches, cookies and punch to Mrs. "Moody" Graham the honoree. Lillington Rotary Honors Teachers

In keeping with an annual club custom, the Lillington Rotary Club honored the teachers in the Lillington school at a dinner given Thursday night in the Community Center.

Featured speaker was Dr. Robert E. McKenzie, Fayetteville physician and humorist. The speaker once played a role in the musical "Show Boat" and has had wide experience as a professional actor. He gave amusing take-offs on school valedictorian talks, meetings and commencements, but in closing paid a sincere tribute to the teaching profession and called on Rotarians to give their faculty understanding and cooperation.

Rotarians called for the teachers and escorted them to the club building which was decorated in autumn colors for the festive occasion. Nine tables arranged in a deep U each a rectangle of florist foam in the center holding a yellow candle and filled with bronze and yellow chrysanthemums. Bright autumn leaves were scattered about the tables and double yellow and bronze chrysanthemums decorated the mantel.

Favors for each of the guests were small corsages of bronze chrysanthemums tied with yellow ribbon. Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Leonard of Lillington, and family have moved into their new brick residence on Lofton Street.

A chicken salad course with chocolate cake, ice cream and coffee were served to approximately 50 who attended.

G. M. Norwood, Jr., club president, presided and Rotarians had every member present. Each member introduced his faculty guests. Dr. J. K. Williford, who was in charge of the program, presented the guest speaker.

Mrs. J. A. Walker Hostess To Club

Members of the Ace of Clubs bridge club were entertained last Wednesday night by Mrs. J. A. Walker at her home. During the card games the hostesses served oakes and salted nuts and at the conclusion of play lemon mousse and coffee. Miss Karen Walker assisted her mother in serving.

Guests for the two tables were Mrs. Richard Bell, Mrs. Joe Gourlay, Mrs. J. K. Williford, Miss Irene Lassiter, Miss Helen Hoffman, Mrs. S. G. Howell, and Mrs. Joel Layton, Jr. High and low score prizes were awarded.

Physicians report that the child had a light attack of the disease but will require physiotherapy treatments for two or three months. Sandra is an only child and her parents who made their home in Lillington for several years have many friends here. They were living in Lillington when their daughter was born. At that time Mr. Campbell was with the old Triple A and is now with the federal veterans administration.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Leonard of Lillington, and family have moved into their new brick residence on Lofton Street.
