

Cooking School Off To Good Start; Stafford Wows 'em

By NANCY WELBORN
Record Staff Writer
Would you housewives give up a career on television to tour this old United States year in and year out with hardly time to have a home or call a minute your own?

That's exactly what Mrs. Katherine Stafford who is conducted the Piggly Wiggly Cooking School here, did.

Mrs. Stafford's sponsors in New York wanted her to settle down there and conduct a school on television... but the cooking expert put her foot down and stated an emphatic NO to that suggestion.

BIG CROWD ATTENDS

There was a big crowd on hand yesterday for the first day of the cooking school which will continue the rest of this week at the Dunn Armory at two o'clock every afternoon. It is being sponsored by Piggly Wiggly and Wellons Mercantile Co. local Hotpoint dealer.

Mrs. Stafford who was introduced by Henry Milner, president of the Piggly Wiggly Stores got the crowd off to a good start yesterday by having each person say "Good afternoon" to the one seated next to them.

In starting her school this week Mrs. Stafford emphasized the modern and gracious trend in cooking and the main thing to all housewives... saving on your food bill. Commenting on Dunn, the expert was very complimentary on our town and how clean it is. She drew a big laugh from the audience on "You housewives even have your garbage cans painted and printed with the letters... "keep our town clean."

LIVING IN HURRY

"All housewives are living in a big hurry nowadays," the expert stated "and grandma's kitchen is gone forever. Nowadays we can have a delicious cake baked and iced in a half hour whereas it used to take an hour."

Southern Soft Coal Contract Ends Tonight

WASHINGTON (AP) — Southern soft coal operators today faced the alternative of bowing to John L. Lewis' steep contract demands or being closed down by a strike at midnight.

Joseph E. Moody, president of the Southern Coal Producers' Association, scheduled a meeting of his 29-man Board of Directors to make the decision.

Some 100,000 southern diggers were poised to walk out at 12:01 a. m. Wednesday—the moment their contract ends—unless the Moody group signs with the United Mine Workers chief.

Moody warned it would be a "rugged" meeting and the decision was still up in the air. He said he did not think the operators could "live with" the terms laid down by Lewis.

The miners' boss was insisting on the same terms he won from the northern producers in a contract formally ratified Monday. This provided for a $1.90-day wage boost and a 10-cent-a-ton increase in welfare fund payments.

Lewis advised the southern operators to "acquiesce" to his terms and the odds favored their doing so.

The cold facts were against the Moody group. Markets for coal have been declining for several years in the highly competitive industry. Should the southern operators be closed down by a strike while northern mines continued production, the Dixie group would be certain to lose sorely needed customers.

Judge To Issue Statement

City Judge H. Paul Strickland today declined comment on announcement of District Solicitor Jack Hooks that he won't appeal to the Supreme Court a case testing the validity of jury trials in the Dunn Recorder's Court.

The local judge promised, however, that he will issue a statement within the next few days to clarify his position.

He didn't say what day he will release the statement.

CONFERENCE REPORTED

Judge Strickland and City Solicitor J. Shepard Bryan are reported to have held a lengthy conference yesterday.

Solicitor Bryan has made it clear, however, that he is taking no part in the jury trial furor, that it is a decision strictly for the judge. Judge Strickland started the furor sometime ago when he decided not to allow jury trials in his court. The last session of the Legislature passed a law allowing jury trials. Two Superior Court judges have already reversed Judge Strickland, who wants the issue tested in Supreme Court.

Thousands Of Russians Are Reported In Korea

SEOUL, Korea (AP) — United Nations military authorities believe there are between 7,000 and 12,000 Russian troops now in Korea, authoritative sources revealed today.

The Russians are manning anti-aircraft guns, but are not being used as frontline combat troops, the sources said.

"They are not formed into divisions," an 8th Army spokesman said. "They are in rear areas."

The spokesman would not comment further.

However, other authoritative sources said the Russians, besides manning anti-aircraft guns, are needed for administrative, supply and advisory positions.

Representation To Be Decided At Voting Place

Employees of Erwin Mills, Inc. will go to the polls tomorrow to decide whether they favor representation by the TWUA-CIO, the UTW-AFL or no union at all.

Voting will take place from 5 a. m. until 9 a. m. and from 2 p. m. until 5:30 p. m.

Tomorrow's voting will settle a bitter dispute which has been raging between the two unions since a group of CIO workers last May bolted to the AFL.

Both unions have brought in outside organizers and an active campaign has been waged. Interest in tomorrow's voting is at fever-pitch high.

HEATED CAMPAIGN

Spokesmen on each side are using The Daily Record, radio, leaflets and other means of advertising to influence the voters.

Officials of Erwin Mills, Inc., have maintained a position of strict neutrality in the fight between the unions.

William H. Ruffin, president of Erwin Mills, came to Erwin today for a series of personal talks with employees of the company.

Briefly outlining the company's policy, Mr. Ruffin said: "We have fine people working for us at Erwin, and we have always felt that they deserve the best wages, the best benefits, and the best working conditions our company can provide. That has been our company's policy all along!"

Spokesman for both the CIO and AFL today released statements claiming victory in tomorrow's election and making a last-minute appeal.

While the two union statements attacked each other, a statement released by President Ruffin reaffirmed the company's policy and emphasized that Erwin's policy of "doing the best we can for our people at all times."

"Union or no union," Mr. Ruffin said, "we shall continue to provide the best wages, the most liberal benefits and the best working conditions our competitive position will permit."

Judge Orders Union Records Put On File In Clerk's Office

Records of labor union activities at the Erwin Cotton Mills dating from January 1, 1952 to the present today were placed on file in the office of the Harnett County Clerk of Court following an order signed late yesterday by Superior Court Judge Susie Sharp.

"I think," said Judge Sharp, "that in any election the American people are entitled to know the facts, before an election. In a labor union, the same principle applies. Workers need to know the facts before they vote."

Judge Sharp made the statement during arguments by attorneys yesterday afternoon of a motion brought by Emil Reive and the Textile Workers Union of America for access to the union records they claim James Cameron, A. F. of L union affiliate official has allegedly denied them access. Following a union dispute last May several Erwin workers switched union affiliations from CIO to A. F. of L.

TO VOTE TOMORROW
Under the National Labor Relations Board, Erwin workers will ballot on Wednesday to decide whether they wish to be represented by the CIO Textile Workers Union or the A. F. of L. Textile Union.

"I have no wish to aid either party to this dispute," said Judge Sharp. "I simply think the fair thing is to place the records on file in the clerk's office. Both parties and the public can then see for themselves."

Following Judge Sharp's remark which came following lengthy arguments both parties to the suit consented to her suggestion.

Gen. Smith Admits Capitol Has Reds

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gen. Walter Bedell Smith said today he cannot understand "why anyone should get excited" about his statement that there probably are some Communists in the Central Intelligence Agency.

The CIA director, who unwittingly tossed a bombshell into the political campaign Monday, sought to calm the furor by assuring the public that any Reds who may have infiltrated his agency are in minor jobs where they cannot do any "serious harm."

He emphasized that no Communists actually have been "detected" in the CIA and said the agency takes "extreme, even fanatical" precautions to keep them out.

Overseas Relief Program Mapped

Plans to collect cotton and other farm products in Harnett County on October 18-25 for aid with the Christian Rural Overseas Program were mapped by the county executive board last night at the Lillington Baptist Church.

J. C. Holloway of Lillington is chairman of CROP, an agency of the federal council of churches, promoting collection of food and clothing for relief of needy in various parts of the world.

Harnett County's quota set last night will be one car load or 50 bales of cotton. Allocation for each farm was estimated by the committee to be 25 pounds.

IN EACH TOWNSHIP
Census for the collection of the cotton will be made in each township on October 18-25, dates the committee considered favorable to local crop conditions. Gifts of corn, peanuts, tobacco or wheat will also be accepted but will be converted into cash at FOC stores for purchase of cotton in the interest of economy in shipping.

Erwin's President Speaks To Workers

William H. Ruffin, President of Erwin Mills, came to Erwin for a series of personal talks with employees of the company. An election is scheduled to be held at the mills on Wednesday, and employees will have the choice of voting for the A. F. L., the C. I. O. — or for neither.

"My purpose in visiting with our employees," Mr. Ruffin explained, "is to tell the company's side of the story. Our people have been hearing the claims and counterclaims of the two unions for several months. I feel it is time for the company to speak up."

"We have fine people working for us at Erwin, and we have always felt that they deserve the best wages, the best benefits, and the best working conditions our company can provide. That has been our company's policy all along."

Mr. Ruffin's talks are being held at three locations in the mill, and on all three shifts, so that all employees may have an opportunity to meet with him personally. In addition Mr. Ruffin and Mr.

Dr. Byrd Renamed To Head TB Unit

Dr. Charles W. Byrd was re-elected as President of the Harnett County Tuberculosis Association at the first fall meeting Monday night at the Erwin Grammar School Auditorium.

Other officers re-elected for the coming year were Mrs. Paul G. Parker of Erwin, Vice-President; and Mrs. H. C. Turlington, Secretary-Treasurer. Two new members, Mrs. Glenn T. Hooper of Dunn and Mrs. Frank Ralph of Erwin were named to the executive committee.

Hobson Chinnis, Field Director of the State Association was present to aid in setting up plans for the drive this year, scheduled to start on November 17. The quota for the county remains to be set.

One factor that may affect the quota is the hiring of a full time paid health worker, one of the proposals discussed at the meeting. If this proposal is adopted it would necessarily increase the quota. At present, the paid worker, Mrs. John Dalrymple of Dunn works five months.

Plans to support the mass X-ray program, scheduled for Harnett in the months of December and January were discussed and the association is to go all out in aiding (Continued On Page Three)
