Aprons From Harnett Go To Chicago Meet

Attractive handmade aprons, intended to convey neighborly greetings from North Carolina club women to delegates to the National Home Demonstration Council meeting, were mailed from Lillington yesterday.
 The aprons, one from each of Harnett County's 22 home demonstration clubs, will serve as souvenirs for the convention visitors. Similar gifts are being prepared throughout North Carolina in preparation of the national meeting which will convene in Raleigh, on October 27-31. Approximately 2,000 delegates are expected to attend.
 Already gift wrapped by Miss Ellen Stewart, secretary in the Harnett Home Agents office, the aprons will be gift boxed in Raleigh by Miss Mary McAllister, district agent. Miss McAllister points out that with the meeting only a month away, it is time to start convention preparations.
 The aprons, made of identical design, are of three materials. They include green print with red trim, blue and white check, and blue and white print with contrasting borders.

Miss Alston's Dolls Entered In Show

"Sambo and Mirandy" are going to the North Carolina Public Health Association convention in Asheville on October 9-11.
 These are the names of two very cleverly attired Negro rag dolls created by Miss Mable Alston of Lillington, Harnett County Public Health nurse.
 A skilled needleworker and doll maker, Miss Alston has for a number of years made rag dolls as Christmas presents for her nieces, nephews, and the many children who always top her list.
 Fame of her creations has spread. Now she has been urged to enter her two favorites in the hobby show which will be one of the entertainment features of the convention of public health officials.
 Sambo and Mirandy, long accustomed to top place in many a Christmas stocking, will draw admiring glances in a new setting. Their direct gaze will be turned on visitors from the arcade of the Battery Park Hotel in Asheville.

 The pastor of Riverside urges all believers who read these lines, to pray for the blessing of God upon His Holy Word as it shall be expounded by this His servant. The preaching of the Cross, if true to New Testament theology, will be received in two ways. To them who
