

Mrs. Brandon Is Hostess To Circle

Mrs. E. M. Brandon Jr. was hostess to members of the night sewing circle of Saint Stephens Episcopal Auxiliary at her home Tuesday evening.

During the evening the ladies enjoyed general conversation and sewed on articles for their bazaar which will be held in the Parrish House Friday November 14.

Mrs. Brandon served cake squares, salted nuts, and coffee to Mrs. George Harper, Mrs. H. Q. Beard, Mrs. Chester Taylor, Mrs. Bob Insko, Mrs. Byron Stevens, Mrs. Frank Ralph and Mrs. Henry C. Lee of Dunn.

WMU Holds Mission Study In Erwin

The Womans Missionary Union of the First Baptist Church met for a mission study at the church Monday evening.

The meeting began at 6:30 with a "covered dish" supper in the

RCA TV

AND RADIOS

- Leonard Ranges - Refrigerators - Water Heaters - Deep Freeze.
- Universal - Small appliances.

JOHNSON FURNITURE COMPANY
Phone 2427 Dunn, N. C.
Hassie M. Johnson

LISTEN!

"THE ERWIN MILLS PROGRAM"

SUNDAYS

1 to 1:30 P. M.

Music-News-Jobs

W. C. K. B.
780 on your Dial

Ladies Parlor. The room was very attractive for the supper. The tables were arranged in a "T" shape and centered with a lovely arrangement of white flowers.

Following the supper the adults met in the Intermediate department of the Sunday School building for the study course.

Miss Madeline Robinette presided over the meeting which was opened with the group singing "Give of Your Best To The Master." This was followed by prayer.

Miss Robinette then introduced Mrs. Ralph Maxwell of Dunn who taught the book "Bible Stewardship." Mrs. Maxwell discussed Tithing and gave examples from the Bible showing that Jesus believed in Tithing. Thirty members of the class then gave reasons why one should Tithe.

Mrs. Maxwell closed the meeting with prayer.

Following the meeting Miss Robinette presented the speaker with a lovely gift.

Members of the Bunnlevel Missionary Union were also present for the course.

While Mrs. Maxwell was teaching the adults, Miss Janet Wilson of Raleigh taught the members of the Y. W. A. and Intermediates the book entitled "Stewardship and Youth," in another part of the Sunday School Building.

Baptist Class Meets In Erwin

Members of the Estherian Class of the First Baptist Church met at the home of Mrs. James Edward Stephenson Tuesday evening for their regular monthly meeting.

Mrs. Thurman Allen opened the meeting by reading the 125 psalm, which she followed with prayer.

This meeting was for the installation of new officers with Mrs. Forest Maxwell as the installing officer.

The ceremony was very impressive. The room was made dark with the exception of one lighted candle which Mrs. Maxwell held, and as each officer was presented to her, she lighted her candle from hers, and dedicated their lives to their office and to bringing some new member into the church during the year. They then blew their candles out.

The service closed with a dedication prayer by Mrs. Maxwell.

The new officers are, president; Miss Olive McKown, First Vice-pres.; Mrs. James Edward Stephenson, Second Vice-pres.; Mrs. Bernie Slimmons with Mrs. J. L. Bishop as Assistant Secretary; Mrs.

Melvin Hayes, with Mrs. Delmas Lashley as Assistant Fellowship Vice-pres.; Mrs. Thurman Allen with Mrs. Everette McDonald as Assistant Group Captains; Mrs. Thurman Gaster, Mrs. Carl Lucas, Mrs. Wilbert Tyson, Mrs. Sam Jackson, Mrs. Obie McLean and Mrs. Blake Avery.

Mrs. Thurman Allen out-going president was presented with a milk glass bowl from the class members.

All of the new officers were asked to meet with Mrs. Maxwell at the parsonage Friday evening.

The hostess served cookies, potato chips and coca-colas to those present.

START YOUR SAVINGS AT COMMERCIAL BANK
Dunn, N. C.

DUNN MAN ABOARD DESTROYER — James E. Warren, quartermaster third class, USN, (right) and Donald Pelfrey, seaman, USN, double check a message for accuracy. They are serving aboard the destroyer tender USS Frontier which is operating in Far Eastern waters. Warren is the son of M. and Mrs. G. W. Warren of Route 4, Dunn, N. C., and Pelfrey is the son of Mrs. Mayme Pelfrey of 2908 Oxford State rd., Middletown, Ohio.

PHILADELPHIA VISITORS
Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Godwin of Philadelphia, Pa. visited in Dunn over the weekend. The Godwins, who flew down from Philadelphia, were met in Raleigh by Mrs. R. H. Monds, Leonard Monds and Mr. Godwin's mother, Mrs. Felton Byrd

MONDAY VISITORS
Mrs. Aaron Holmes and Mrs. L. Jackson visited in Raleigh Monday.

VISIT IN RALEIGH
Mrs. D. C. Parrish and Mrs. Margie Aiken shopped in Raleigh Friday.

PHILADELPHIA VISITORS
Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Godwin of Philadelphia, Pa. visited in Dunn over the weekend. The Godwins, who flew down from Philadelphia, were met in Raleigh by Mrs. R. H. Monds, Leonard Monds and Mr. Godwin's mother, Mrs. Felton Byrd

BUSINESS, PROFESSIONAL WOMEN OBSERVING 29TH ANNIVERSARY

The week of September 29th through October 5th is being observed as National and Professional Business Woman's week. Miss Bessie Massengill, the President, announced today.

A district meeting will be held here on Saturday, October 18th in which the eleven clubs of this district associated in the National Federation will be represented. It will be a dinner meeting at Johnson's Restaurant.

The first Business and Professional Women's Club was organized in 1919. It has grown into the largest organization in the world devoted entirely to the interest of the working woman. The Professional Women's Clubs have business women from all walks of life. They are non-partisan, non-sectarian and non-profit.

The National Federation is composed of Clubs and State Federations in all 48 states, including the District of Columbia, Alaska and Hawaii. Membership is not limited in number, not classified as to occupation.

There are over 700 kinds of work represented. Any woman actively engaged in business or a profession and acceptable to any local club is eligible for membership.

The business woman today is working toward better working conditions for the woman of tomorrow.

Mrs. Irene Beasley, Mrs. Mangum Butler and Mrs. C. B. Kelley spent last Friday in Raleigh shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Wilson of Fayetteville were visitors in Dunn Tuesday night.

VISIT TURNAGE'S
Major and Mrs. J. T. Koshoffer and daughter Susan of Long Island, New York left this morning after spending Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. Furman Turnage and family. They attended the funeral of D. W. Parnell in Parkton last Sunday. Mrs. Turnage and Mrs. Koshoffer are daughters of Mr. Parnell.

Mrs. James Britt Fete By Bases On Her Birthday

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Bass entertained at Canasta last evening at their home on East Broad Street honoring Mrs. James Britt on the occasion of her birthday. The party in her honor was a complete surprise to Mrs. Britt who received also many lovely gifts.

The home was decorated with bouquets of mixed fall flowers, in beautiful array.

Upon arrival covers were laid for guests at three tables, and the host and hostess served decorated cake squares in birthday colors accompanied by home-made ice cream topped with strawberries.

During Canasta play salted nuts and cokes were passed informally. When scores were compiled high for the ladies was won by Mrs. L. C. Dupree, Jr., and low Mrs. Leo Lucas.

Among the men, high, Mr. Paul White, low, Mrs. L. J. Gardner.

Those in attendance at the enjoyable evening affair in addition to Mrs. Britt and husband, Mr. James Britt were Mr. and Mrs. Paul White, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. (Red) Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Dupree, Jr., and guests from Maryland of the Duprees' Mr. and Mrs. Leo Lucas.

Mrs. Stephens Is Named By Legion Ladies

The American Legion Auxiliary held a business meeting at the American Legion hut Tuesday night at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Earl Jones, president presided at the meeting. Several matters of business were disposed of pertaining to the 1953 organization. Mrs. Jones tendered her resignation as president at the meeting and Mrs. V. L. Stephens was elected to serve for the year 1953. Mrs. O. W. Godwin Jr. is first vice-president and Mrs. Bill Twyford second vice-president.

Various committees for the year were appointed and the Auxiliary voted unanimously to hold meetings in the future jointly with the American Legion at the Hut on West Broad Street.

Mr. Gordon Bell of Orlando, Fla. was a Dunn visitor this week with relatives and friends.

No Beard - Then No Restaurant

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A Department of Health spokesman said today a man about 80 applied for a permit to buy a restaurant.

When told he must either shave off his beard or wrap it in a net if he worked in the kitchen, the would-be restaurateur said "to heck with it," and walked out.

Motors Rewound Repaired Serviced

Every Type of Motor Service Guaranteed Work.

PAGE ELECTRIC CO.
DUNN, N. C. — Phone 4398

CLASS PRESIDENT Joe Woodworth of Erwin Has Been Elected President of the Junior Class at Atlantic Christian College in Wilson this year.

IT'S Fast Safe Courteous Economical Efficient

THE M. & J. MERCHANTS DELIVERY SERVICE

WILL DO THE JOB FOR YOU - NO JOB TOO SMALL OR TOO LITTLE.

Delivery And Light Hauling

No Matter What The Errand, Just Phone Us — 3350

DUNN, N. C.

THE METROPOLITAN PAYS OFF Claims Occurred Even Before Policy Was Delivered

Mr. M. B. Bales, representative of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co., is shown here presenting the first claim check on the company's new Hospitalization Insurance Plan to Mr. John Ennis of Dunn, an employee of Strickland Motor Company.

Mr. Ennis had a claim before the policy was delivered to him, and this claim is being paid on a binding receipt.

Mr. Bales is a member of the "Veteran's Club" of the Metropolitan Life Ins. Co., having served the company over 20 years. He is the father of Mrs. Charles Aycock and Mrs. Emmett Aldredge, having resided in Wilmington and Dunn since 1929.

MR. BALES PRESENTING CHECK TO MR. ENNIS

Let Me Explain The Many Wonderful Advantages Of This New Policy.

M. B. BALES, Agent
Metropolitan Life Insurance Company
406 E. CANARY ST. DUNN, N. C. PHONE 3368

School's Out and Straight to the Milk

Wise mother! She has Gardner's milk ready when her youngsters come in from school. Smart boy! He knows that milk not only tastes swell, but packs a powerful lot of the vitamins and minerals and energy he needs for running around with his friends. No slow poke, he! Straight to the milk and then out he goes, refreshed and ready for a fast game. Help your children grow, too. Order today!

Just phone 2446 to start delivery of that wonderful, wholesome Gardner's milk to your door every morning.

Gardner's DAIRY PRODUCTS
115 E. Cumberland
Dunn, N. C. - Phone 2446

SEE THE WONDERFUL NEW Hotpoint KITCHEN APPLIANCES

DEMONSTRATED BY Mrs. Katherine Stafford Internationally Famous Home Economist

AT THE BIG FREE COOKING SCHOOL
Every Afternoon Through Friday at 2:00 In The Dunn Armory
And Continuing Through Friday Afternoon

Sponsored By PIGGLY WIGGLY AND WELLONS MERCANTILE CO.

Mrs. Stafford will bring you new menus, Cooking tips, and Short cuts to Economy. She'll show you how to prepare better food at less cost.

Demonstrations will be conducted on the beautiful double-oven HOTPOINT RANGE and on other HOTPOINT appliances. She'll prove to you that HOTPOINT leads the field.

A different program each afternoon—don't miss a single session.

Wellons Mercantile Company INCORPORATED
DUNN — COATS
YOUR FRIENDLY HOTPOINT DEALER

This HOTPOINT range is one of more than $1500 in free prizes to be given away.