TWO HOUR CATCH — The string of blue bread shown here, just about all that 15-year-old Howard Norris can hold, represents a two hour catch on the part of himself, H. C. McLamb and Lloyd Matthews, a trio of Erwin fishermen. The catch was made in Barney's pond, below Clinton. "They were really bitin' good for about two hours," said young Norris, and then they just quit. After that you couldn't even get a nibble." The trio were using mearle and catlpa worms for bait. (Daily Record photo by Louis Dearborn).

Charlotte News Supporting Ike

CHARLOTTE — The Charlotte News has endorsed Republican candidate Dwight D. Eisenhower for the presidency as a "middle-of-the-roader" with a "fine old ruzed philosophy." In an editorial yesterday the paper said it believed the general would bring greater unity to the American people and among the free nations fighting communism.
