

AFL Schedules Vote Meetings For Two Days

The United Textile Workers of America, AFL, has scheduled AFL election Committee meetings for 1:30 P. M. and 7:30 P. M. on Tuesday and Thursday in its drive to win bargaining rights in the election to be held at the Erwin Mills on Friday.

Delegations of Erwin workers from Durham and Cooleemee, where the UTWA-AFL won landslide victories in the National Labor Relations Board elections on October 1st were invited to attend the two meetings. Scheduled to talk were UTWA-AFL Southern Director Joseph Jacobs, Harold Foster and Emory Frazier of Cooleemee, and Edgar Maynard and Albert Pierce of Durham.

It was reported that the 'AFL Victory Committee of 50' had been enlarged to an 'AFL Victory Committee of 100' in order to enable active Erwin workers who were volunteering to participate in the AFL campaign.

TO SWITCH VOTE
Local 250, UTWA-AFL Business agent Thomas West said: "Every day dozens of Erwin workers tell us or come by the UTWA-AFL office to let us know that they voted either CIO or 'No-Union' in the October 1st election, but are going to vote AFL on the 17th, so that all Erwin workers will be in the same Union—the AFL."

Edgar Maynard, UTWA-AFL leader from the Erwin-Durham plant said: "With the signing of our UTWA-AFL contract at Durham and Cooleemee, we are now busy processing the grievances that the CIO left kicking around and that we couldn't get settled because of CIO interference. The other Erwin workers are waiting for the AFL victory in Erwin on the 17th so that Negotiating Committees from these three Erwin locals can begin working on plans for a new and improved Union contract."

These Little Things

IT'S NOT SAFE TO BET ON ELECTION THIS YEAR

This is not a good year to bet on the presidential election. Even if we had the money, we wouldn't think about even a small wager. This is not just an opinion, either. It's an authoritative statement and the authority is none other than our good friend, Dewey Whitten-ton.

Dewey out-galloped the Gallop poll and everybody else four years ago. When everybody around here was predicting Truman would be defeated Dewey kept reminding them that Truman would win.

He has been just as successful at predicting other elections.

We got to thinking about the election the other day and decided we might wager up to 50 cents on the election, provided we could get a good hot tip from Dewey.

"I'm sitting right on top of the fence this time," declared the prominent Dunn Democrat. "I'd be (Continued On Page Three)

50-Pound Cake, Gallons Of Ice Cream For Party

Glen White, proprietor of Dunn-Rite Bakery, today was gathering the materials for a huge 50-pound cake, and James Surles, manager of Gardner's Dairy, was stocking up ice cream for the big all-day Registration Party to be staged here Thursday.

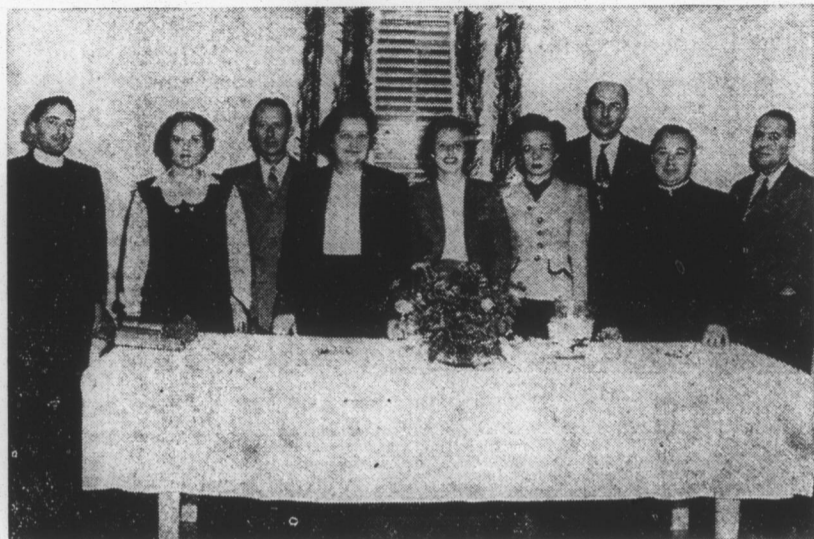

Sponsored by Dunn Jaycees, the big Registration Party is being staged to help get all citizens registered for the November 4 election.

The novel idea is the first ever heard of in the State and today received enthusiastic endorsement of Raymond Maxwell, secretary of the State Board of Elections.

"It's a grand idea," declared Mr. Maxwell, who called on local registrars to give their full support and cooperation to the Get-Out-The-Vote Campaign.

A record number registered here on Saturday and hundreds of other voters are expected to attend

American Traitors Found On Payroll Of UN

CATHOLIC LAYMEN MEET HERE — Pictured are some of the state, district and local officials of the North Carolina Catholic Laymen's Association who met in the American Legion Hall here Sunday, October 12. Reading left to right: Father Charles B. McLaughlin of Rocky Mount; Mrs. Virginia Patrick of Dunn; John L. Cassidy of Durham; Mrs. Mary J. Bird, State President of Wilson; Mrs. Margaret Marks of Raleigh; Miss Evelyn Gagney of Dunn and newly elected Vice-Chairman of this district, Herbert Manyth of Wendell; Father Francis A. McCarthy, local pastor and Charles A. Field of Raleigh. (Daily Record photo by Bill Biggs)

Retirement Plan Is Discussed

Adlai Says Peace, Prosperity Issues

CASPER, Wyo. (AP) — Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson said today that peace and prosperity are the "two fundamental issues" of the campaign and charged that the Republicans have opposed measures to insure both goals with blind fury.

In a speech prepared for delivery here the Democratic presidential nominee also laid down a formula for economic progress which called for hand-in-glove cooperation between government and private enterprise.

Stevenson's appearance here was his first stop on a five-day flight

The majority of the city employees attended the meeting held in the courtroom last night to discuss the retirement plan and all, with one exception were heartily in favor of this coverage.

The sole exception explained that he was 73 years old and consequently would not be eligible. "However," he added, "I am young enough to come under the plan. I would sure go for it."

Mayor Ralph Hanna, who has been in favor of the plan since it first came up for discussion, told the group of his sentiments. "Of course," he said, "I can only answer for myself. It will have to be taken before the board, and their will be the final decision."

The plan will cost the town about $8,000 the first year.

In addition to the Mayor, Commissioners R. J. Tart and J. V. Bass, City Clerk Charles Storey and City Manager A. B. Uzzle, Jr., were present at the meeting. The City Manager promised to include the retirement plan in the agenda for the City Council meeting Thursday night.

City Commissioner L. L. Coats is leading the fight against this extra expense on the taxpayers.

John G. Thomas, self-appointed advisor and counselor to the city board, failed to show up for last night's meeting.

Ike Blasts Adlai On Tideland Oils

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Dwight D. Eisenhower, in a bid for the votes of insurgent Texas Democrats, today called Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson's stand for federal control of oil-rich Tidelands a "shakedown."

In a speech prepared for delivery here, Eisenhower went on to make one of the strongest states' rights speeches of his campaign.

The Republican presidential candidate said that "preservation of law and order, the elbow room to produce and build, protection of our titles to land, the sacredness of our homes from intrusion, our right to get the best schooling for our children" had all been secured through state and local governments.

HITS BUREAUCRATS

He said that such functions must be kept in the domain of the states.

"Otherwise an all-powerful Wash- (Continued On Page Six)

Hoyman Says Vote For AFL Mistake

Scott Hoyman, representative for the Textile Workers Union of America CIO stated today that the Erwin workers in Durham are already realizing their mistake in leaving the CIO and joining the UTW-AFL.

"One day after the UTW-AFL took over increased workloads have begun to appear. In one department the stretchout is so severe that workers are quitting rather than work under these conditions," he said.

Following is the remainder of Mr. Hoyman's statement: "In the Durham Number 4 mill one out of every twenty-four weavers has been eliminated. Each remaining weaver has been given two pounds of flour, 84 eggs, five quarts of milk and six ounces of salt.

The big cake will be baked Wednesday night and will be fresh and ready for eating Thursday morning.

NON-PARTISAN

The Jaycee campaign is a non-partisan effort to get all citizens in the township to register and vote.

There are about 6,000 names on the registration books in Aversboro, but ordinarily only about a third that number vote in Aversboro.

Jaycees will be out again with a sound truck on registration days to urge citizens to register.

On election day, they'll furnish free transportation to the polls and will make a house-to-house canvass to get voters to the polls.

State Democratic Chairman Everett Jordan, along with State Republican leaders, have joined in urging all citizens to register and vote.

Jaycee officials today expressed appreciation to Gardner's Dairy, to (Continued On Page 3)

Dean Burkot Is Guest Speaker At Church In Erwin

The program of Christian education is concerned with turning the thoughts of the students upward toward the more important things of life, the spiritual values and a concept of God, Dean A. R. Burkot of Campbell College told the members of the Men's Fellowship Club at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church in Erwin Monday night.

"This is a cause I believe in," Dean Burkot declared, "and this need is not being adequately met by the state institutions." Eighteen years in Blue's Creek, he said, had given him an excellent opportunity to observe this country in relation to the rest of the state.

"The primary function of the Junior College is regional," he said, "and we are trying to serve our orbit to the best of our ability."

Campbell, he pointed out, is partly supported by the Baptist denomination. Of the last year educational budget $380,000, Campbell received $40,000. There are seven denominational colleges under Baptist subsidy, he stated.

Methodist colleges function under the eastern and western conferences and the Presbyterian colleges function under the various synods of that church. Belmont Abbey is under the Catholic Church.

The present day trend is toward municipal colleges, he declared, and we now have three in the state, at Asheville, Charlotte and Wilmington. He predicted that within a few years there would be a dozen in the state.

IN COMPETITION

"There is a certain competition for students between these state and locally supported colleges and the Christian Colleges," he declared, "and in order to justify their existence, the Christian colleges must offer a plus factor."

Without this plus factor, they (Continued on page 3)

Harnett Draft Clerk Resigns

Miss Helen Hoffman of Lillington, clerk to the Harnett County Draft Board, has submitted her resignation to State Director of Selective Service, Col. Thomas H. Upton in Raleigh, it was learned today.

Miss Louise McLaughlin of Lillington, assistant clerk, has been named clerk to replace Miss Hoffman and arrangements were being made today by State Selective Service to furnish some secretarial assistance. Applicants will be selected (Continued On Page Six)

Date Indefinite For Erection Of Burlington Plant

John Harden of Greensboro, vice president of Burlington Mills, told The Daily Record this morning that construction of the company's proposed new $8,000,000 plant at Lillington will be started "just as soon as business conditions warrant."

"The thing that's holding up Burlington Mills Lillington plant," said Mr. Harden, "is the genuine depression which has swept the textile industry for the past two years."

NO POSSIBILITY NOW
There is no possibility of expansion at this time, declared Mr. Harden.

"But," he added, "business is looking better at the moment and the textile picture has brightened up a little bit."

Burlington Mills acquired a beautiful site for a proposed new plant two years ago and had adopted to have the plant in operation by this time, but a depression developed in the industry, which affected Burlington and all other textile companies.

Mr. Harden said it is the plan of his company to begin construction of the plant at Lillington just as soon as the need arises for further expansion.

SITE IS IDEAL
He said the site "is ideal for a finishing mill," but that the decision as to the type of plant to be erected at Lillington naturally will depend on the company's needs at the time of construction.

Mr. Harden declined to give any date or estimate of a date as to when work will actually be started. He emphasized that everything depends upon business conditions in the textile field.

Burlington Mills is one of the world's largest textile concerns and citizens of Harnett are looking forward to securing this badly-needed new industry.

HAS FINE REPUTATION
All Burlington Mills plants are ultra-modern in every respect. Wherever Burlington Mills are located the company enjoys excellent relations with its employees and with citizens of the community.

The textile depression is not peculiar with Burlington Mills for all mills have experienced the same problem during the past two years. Burlington is one of the most progressive of all and has shown rapid growth and expansion.

Nixon Says Adlai Is Blind To Reds

EN ROUTE WITH NIXON (AP) — Sen. Richard M. Nixon, charging Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson with using unwise judgment in the Alger Hiss case and being blind to Communist threats, took his campaign today into Michigan.

Nixon, in his first nationwide radio-television appearance since defending his use of an $18,000 expense fund, said at New York Monday night that Stevenson, Democratic presidential nominee, backed Hiss at a time when all the facts in the State Department official's case were known.

SAYS HE'S UNFIT
The youthful Republican vice presidential nominee said that

Stevenson, therefore, was unfit to be President because of his failure to recognize the Communist threat at home.

At the same time, Nixon made it plain he was not questioning Stevenson's loyalty.

"Let me emphasize there is no question in my mind as to the loyalty of Mr. Stevenson, but the question is one as to his judgment (Continued On Page two)

Soldiers Are Held On Larceny Charge

Jewell Samuel Turner and Frank T. Stewart, two Fort Bragg soldiers, who were caught red handed while attempting to take a wheel and tire from the automobile of Eldon Martin, while the owner was attending services in the Glad Tidings Church, were still in jail this morning, waiting for funds to pay a fine in order to avoid a road sentence.

Judge H. Paul Strickland found the pair guilty of attempted larceny of property worth less than $50 and sentenced them to 60 days, each, suspended 12 months on payment of $50 and costs in City Court yesterday.

The pair were captured by officers on patrol who noticed the pair at work on the Martin car.

Henry Clay McDonald drew 60 days, suspended 12 months on payment of $25 and costs for careless and reckless driving and following another car too closely.

Pete Sellers of Benson, was given 90 days, suspended 12 months on payment of $100 and costs for drunken driving and possession.

Columbus McNeill, charged with possession, drew 60 days, suspended 12 months on payment of $15 and costs.

Allie Robertson Maynard was fined $50 and costs with prayer for judgment continued 6 months for careless and reckless driving.

Clarence Lee Bunting drew 60 days, suspended 12 months on payment of $50 and costs for careless and reckless driving.

David Stephenson was given a hearing on two counts of breaking and entering. Probable cause was found on these charges at Johnson Cotton Company and bond was set at $100. No probable cause was found on burglary of Carolina Cleaners.

William Douglas Williams was found not guilty on charges of displaying improper plates.

A plea of guilty to careless and reckless driving was accepted from Willie Newton, charged with drunken driving. He was given 60 days, suspended 12 months on payment of $50 and costs.

Taxi driver James Henry Hayers was taxed costs with prayer for judgment continued 12 months for passing a stop sign.

Tommy Eugene Hall was given 60 days, suspended 12 months on payment of costs, plus $72 for (Continued On Page Three)

More Witnesses Are Called In UN Red Probe

NEW YORK (AP) — Sen. Herbert O'Connor D-Md said today a Senate investigation of Communists definitely shows there are "American traitors on the payroll of the United Nations."

O'Connor, acting chairman of the senate subcommittee on internal security, made the statement in a heated exchange with Dr. Jack S. Harris, senior research officer of the UN trusteeship division.

Harris, appearing as the first witness on the second day of the subcommittee's hearing, refused to swear he was not a member of the Communist party at the time he was engaged in secret war work for the office of strategic services. He declined on the constitutional ground of possible self-incrimination.

The distinguished gray-haired doctor of philosophy testified he was loyal to the United States while with the OSS. The committee indicated it was not willing to take Harris' word for it and held him under subpoena until it could obtain loyalty information from government files.

SHOCKING SITUATION
"A number of things have come to our attention that shows this situation is a shocking one which the American people are going to learn about through their legislative officials. Our finds here will be presented to the Senate for proper legislative action, make no question about that."

Harris appeared unsure of answering questions about the scope of his position at the UN, referring to the fact that UN Secretary General Trygve Lie had advised his employees they were not authorized to answer queries on official UN work.

Sen. Willis Smith (D-Mo.) refused to recognize Lie's authority in the matter.

The committee also found an uncooperative witness in Herman Zap, a training officer in the UN's technical assistance division. He refused to say whether he was or ever had been a member of the (Continued On Page Three)

Brick Donated To Campbell

Mr. Hunter Strickland of Four Oaks, N. C., recently donated and delivered to Campbell's new gym site 35,000 first grade brick.

Mr. Strickland is an alumnus of Campbell having attended in the year 1915 and 1916.

He expressed his sincere belief that Campbell College has done a good job of helping the young people of North Carolina especially, through the years. He stated that he wanted to have a definite part in Campbell's Expansion Program.

Mr. Strickland is one of Four Oaks' most prominent citizens and is a very active member of the Four Oaks Baptist Church. His place of business is the Ideal Brick Company of Slocum, N. C.

B. B. CREECH DONATES $1,000
Mr. B. B. Creech of Four Oaks, recently donated $1,000 to Campbell's Expansion Program.

Mr. Creech has long been a friend of the college and has sent two of his children to Campbell. He attended Campbell College in 1915 and 1916 when buildings were few and hardships were many.

Mr. Creech is particularly interested in helping add a dormitory wing to the old day dormitory. In recognition of his donation the college will mount a bronze plaque bearing his family name in the hall (Continued On Page two)

Mother Kills Baby To Get Her A Man

ATLANTA (AP) — Police said today a twice-divorced, 31-year-old woman admitted killing her infant son because she wanted the attentions of another man—her second husband's lawyer.

Mrs. Emyle Bruce, held in connection with the death of her 22-month-old son Tommy, stated in a written confession that she lost interest in the child after meeting the attorney because he "excited me."

"I knew he would not live with me if he was forced to support Tommy," Mrs. Bruce was quoted as stating. So I choked him (Tommy) and put him in the bath tub and sat on him."

The attorney was identified as one who had last August unsuccessfully defended her second husband, Robert (Jack) Bruce, on auto theft charges. Bruce is now serving a six-month jail term on those charges.

"When Jack was convicted," the statement was quoted as saying, "Tommy was all the world to me. Then I lost interest in him because of this man. I just lost my mind over him."

BULLETINS

CHICAGO (AP) — Members of the Inter-American Press Association were warned today freedom of the press in many areas of the Western Hemisphere is in danger.

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Authorities counted the damage today from an underground explosion that rumbled beneath a 200-block area of Houston last night, ripping up sewer lines and convincing hundreds of residents that the city was being bombed.

CHICAGO (AP) — C. Wayland Brooks, Republican national committeeman from Illinois who recently attacked Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson's special fund, said today he received money from a political fund to help pay office ex- (Continued On Page Three)

MARKETS

EGGS AND POULTRY
RALEIGH (AP) — Central North Carolina live poultry: Fryers and broilers steady, supplies short to barely adequate, demand fair to good; heavy hens steady, supplies short to adequate, demand good. Prices at farm up to 10 a.m.: Fryers or broilers 29; heavy hens, 24-26, mostly 24-25.
Eggs steady, demand good, supplies short on large, adequate on (Continued On Page Three)