REDSKIN OFFICIALS FIRE PLAYERS; STATE THEY "LAID DOWN AND DIED"

WASHINGTON - (AP) - Angry Washington Redskins officials, believing that several of their players just "laid down and died" in Sunday's defeat by the Chicago Cardinals, started a big shake-up today by firing two players and hiring two others.

Coach Curly Lambeau, backed by wrathful owner George Preston Marshall, warned the Redskins that there will be more changes soon unless the players "get your minds out of the second division."

Fired by Lambeau were veteran guard Ed Bagdon and rookie full-back Sam Venuto. Bagdon had been obtained from the Cardinals early this year as place kicking specialist, but last Sunday he missed one field goal by kicking the ball 20 yards wide, missed his only extra point try of the game, and booted two successive kick-offs out of bounds.

CLOUD HIRED Hired as full-back Jack Flying Cloud, former William and Mary star who was a member of the Green Bay Packers until two weeks ago.

The Skins also signed tackle Ed Ecker, a veteran of seven years of pro football with the Chicago Rockets of the old All-America Conference, and the Chicago Bears and Green Bay of the National Football League. The six-foot, seven-inch giant, who weighs 255 pounds, was released by Green Bay two weeks ago.

A Redskin official said Ecker was signed as a replacement for tackle Lou Karras, who is out for the rest of the season with an eye injury. This leaves the Red-

NEW YORK (AP) - Joey Giardello's campaign to move up the ladder in the middleweight class advanced another step today as a result of a unanimous 10-round decision over Joey Giambra.

Giardello outslugged his Buffalo, N. Y., rival at Eastern Parkway Arena Monday night. Each fighter weighed 155 pounds. Parkway officials indicated that the two middleweight hopefuls might be re-matched in the same ring sometime in November.

It was the fourth straight win for Giardello in the Parkway ring, following triumphs over Billy Graham, George Small, and Pierre Langlois. It was only the second loss in 29 bouts for Giambra.

CHICAGO (AP) - Tommy O'Connell, a passing quarterback as deadly and accurate as an M-1 rifle, was named United Press Midwest Back of the Week today for an Annie Oakley exhibition which sparked Illinois to a 48-14 rout over Washington.

It took only 20 minutes of the first half, O'Connell to pass for five touchdowns Saturday and turn the game into a scrimmage which sent the Huskies to the dressing room trailing 42-0 at the half.
