

Greensboro Couple Honored With Buffet Supper And Tea

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Stephens, Jr., newlyweds of Greensboro, were honored with two parties while visiting their parents for the weekend.

On Saturday evening at 7:30 Mr. and Mrs. K. F. Howard and Dr. and Mrs. Glenn Hooper entertained at a buffet supper at the Hooper home.

Chrysanthemums and dahlias were used in lovely arrangements throughout the living room and hall.

A centerpiece of yellow mums flanked by burning tapers in silver candelabra graced the table. Mrs. Louis Stephens served molded chicken and Mrs. William Rawlings served a delectable salad from opposite ends of the table.

The bride was given a corsage of tuberoses and a bedside brass candle-holder.

Guests present for the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Louis Stephens Jr. and Mrs. L. C. Stephens Sr., Mrs. H. M. Pittman, George Pittman, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Mixon, Mrs. William Rawlings, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Pope, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Purdie, Mr. and Mrs. John Snipes, Joe Creel, Miss Nell Barefoot, Mr. and Mrs. Palmer Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Max McLeod, Mr. and Mrs. K. F. Howard, Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Hooper, Jr.

Again on Sunday afternoon, the couple was honored with an informal tea given by Mrs. Arthur Pope and daughters, Mrs. Willard Mixon and Mrs. William Rawlings at the Pope home.

Mr. and Mrs. Pope greeted the guests at the door and Mr. and Mrs. Mixon presented them to the honored couple.

The home was beautifully decorated with colorful autumn flowers.

John and James Snipes received in the den and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Purdie invited guests into the dining room.

A pink and white color scheme was carried out in the centerpiece of mums and pom poms and pink candles in silver holders lighted the table. Mrs. Stephens mother of the groom, poured Russian tea and Mrs. William Rawlings was assisted by Mrs. James Snipes and Mrs. John Snipes in serving ham and cheese biscuits, sand tarts, cookies and salted nuts.

The bride was presented an orchid corsage and a silver bud vase as gifts from the hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Jones bade the guests goodbye.

Around sixty guests called between the hours of four and five.

Ike Blasts

ington bureaucracy will rob us one by one of the whole bundle of our liberties."

"I have always felt that the titles to these submerged lands should be recognized in the states out to their historic boundaries," Eisenhower said.

He said Stevenson "wants to take over the Tidelands and dole out to the states whatever Washington decides you ought to have."

"That isn't what I call a fair shake. I call it a shakedown," he said.

The Tidelands issue has already driven many of Texas' leading Democrats out of Stevenson's camp and led them to endorse the Republican presidential candidate.

And Eisenhower was obviously out to capitalize on the dissatisfaction in the hope of winning the state's big bag of 24 electoral votes.

NOT IN THE BAG
He said his advisers had told him Texas was "in the bag" for the Democrats.

"Well, I didn't believe it then, and I don't believe it now," he said.

"I believe the time has come to put country above party labels," Eisenhower told the Texans.

He said there has been "disloyalty and subversion in high places" because American leadership was "weak-kneed and soft-headed."

He said there had been "grafters and corruption in high places" because America had leadership "which took its political morals from machine bosses—bosses whose only ideal of public service is self-service."

"Why have we had these things?" he asked. "We have had an administration in Washington which knew little about administering—except for votes; and public management—which knew little about how to manage—except at election time."

He promised that the "first 100" of a Republican administration would be to deal with "the tragic conflict" in Korea. Eisenhower warned that "we cannot expect the same reckless drivers who got us into the ditch to get us out."

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP)—Ed Bailey's past caught up with him just one month after he "gave up crime."

Bailey, a locomotive fireman, was arrested yesterday and held for investigation of two armed robberies here and three in Los Angeles.

"You wouldn't have had any more trouble out of me," he told the arresting officers. "I gave up crime a month ago."
