

SENIOR WOMAN'S CLUB ENTERTAINS AT TEA FOR NEW MEMBERS, TEACHERS

The Senior Women's Club entertained at a delightful tea at the home of Mrs. W. M. Brannon Tuesday afternoon honoring the new club members and new teachers of the Dunn faculty.

The guests were greeted at the door by Mrs. W. W. Carroll who introduced them to Mrs. Brannon, who in turn introduced them to the receiving line composed of: Mrs. Pat Lynch, president of the Senior Women's Club, Mrs. Ted Burwell, president of the Junior Women's Club; Mrs. J. P. Crumpler, Mrs. Ralph Warren and Mrs. Wilbert Lee.

Mrs. David Clifford then introduced the guests to the second receiving line. These were Mrs. Al Compton, Mrs. Mary Crisp, Mrs. Willard A. Slocumb, Miss Laura Bell, Mrs. James Snipes, Mrs. Dick Taylor, Miss Flora Gilbert, and Miss Ophelia Matthews.

Mrs. H. C. Turlington and Mrs. Howard Dixon invited the guests into the dining room where Mrs. H. O. Mattox and Mrs. Glenn Hooper poured Russian tea from opposite ends of the table.

A beautiful table with a silver bowl centered with a silver bowl filled with white chrysanthemums, baby pom poms and gerberia and flanked by tall white candles in silver holders. Trays of cheese biscuits, cookies and nuts were on the table.

A lovely arrangement of dahlias in autumn colors graced the buffet and on either end white tapers burned in branched candleabra. Elsewhere, the home was lovely with bowls of geraniums, chrysanthemums, and other mixed autumn flowers.

Mrs. Wilson Stanley and Mrs. William Pearsall directed into the hall where Mrs. Henry Whittenton played appropriate records during the afternoon.

Gwen Johnson Is Homecoming Queen At Benson

Miss Gwen Johnson, Benson high school senior, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Johnson of Benson, was chosen queen of the Homecoming event held in the Benson American Legion hall on Friday night. Sponsored by the Monogram Club of which Stacy Miller is president. The Homecoming activities got underway Friday afternoon when the Benson school team and the Broadway school team of Lee County met in a friendly battle of football tactics.

In the evening the festivities were held at the Legion hall dance arena with Herb Gupton and his orchestra from Raleigh furnishing the music. Decorations in the hall were in royal blue and dark red. Sponsoring the semi-formal dance through the Monogram Club were the following young ladies and their escorts: Miss Clara Beasley and Graham Mossley, Miss Shirley Whittington and Wayland Adams, Miss Faye Barbour and Charles Jackson, Miss Pat Gregory and Jackie Stewart, Miss Gwen Johnson and George Earnshaw. Immediately prior to intermission the sponsors and their escorts appeared before the audience and were introduced following which the high school student body selected by vote Miss Gwen Johnson as queen of Homecoming. She was crowned by last year's queen of Homecoming, Miss Betty Bell, who motored to Benson from her duties as student nurse in Park View Hospital, Rocky Mount, especially for the event.
