

WEATHER

NORTH CAROLINA — Fair and slightly warmer in interior today and tonight. Tuesday fair and mild.

The Daily Record

Don't Forget To Vote On November 4

VOLUME II TELEPHONES: 3117 - 3118 - 3119 DUNN, N. C., MONDAY AFTERNOON, OCTOBER 27, 1952 FIVE CENTS PER COPY NO. 230

Lewis Orders Miners Back To Work

Action Came After Talk With Truman

WASHINGTON (AP)—John L. Lewis today told 350,000 United Mine Workers to end their nation-wide soft coal strike "at once."

The UMW president telegraphed union district leaders that he is "urging each member of our union to return to work at once" while the government reviews the coal contract wage decision.

The Wage Stabilization Board cut 40 cents from the $1.90 a day wage increase Lewis negotiated with the soft-coal industry.

His telegraphed order to the striking miners followed President Truman's personal intervention into the situation.

APPEAL PENDING

Lewis said an appeal he has filed in conjunction with soft coal industry leaders to review the decision by the wage board is pending.

"It will require a reasonable time for review of attended facts and the reaching of a decision," the miners' boss said.

"It is my opinion that our industry should be operating during that period and that the best interests of the mining workers and the public will thus be served."

Lewis asked the district leaders to notify all the miners and request "their fullest cooperation."

TRUMAN INTERVENED

Lewis' action was prompted by Mr. Truman's personal intervention in the dispute which was touched off by the Wage Stabilization Board's refusal to approve the full $1.90-a-day pay raise negotiated between the miners and the soft coal industry.

In a surprise move, Mr. Truman called Lewis and Harry M. Moses, president of the bituminous Coal Producers Association, to a White House conference Sunday night. Also included in the meeting were Economic Stabilizer Roger L. Putnam; David Cole, director of the Federal Mediation Service, and Presidential Assistant John R. Steelman, Mr. Truman's specialist on labor problems.

Barkley Boed In Greenville, S. C.

GREENVILLE, S. C. — Boos as well as cheers greeted Vice President Alben Barkley as he wound up a day of campaigning in the Carolinas with a speech before an outdoor Democratic rally here Friday night.

As Barkley began telling a shivering crowd of 4,000 that he was glad to be in Greenville a heckler shouted, "We want Ike." "You can have as far as I am concerned," Barkley replied, and then finished his address describing the "great fight for principles" involved in the nation's presidential election.

REV. JOYCE V. EARLY

Local Methodist Charge Honored; Pastors Assigned

The Rev. Joyce V. Early, pastor of Divine Street Methodist Church in Dunn for the past four years, has been transferred to the Smithfield Methodist Church and will be succeeded here by the Rev. J. W. Lineberger, now pastor of the Fuquay Springs Methodist Church.

Along with the assignment of ministers for the year came the announcement from Bishop Paul N. Garber that the Dunn charge, under the direction of Mr. Early, was named as the outstanding charge of the year in the Raleigh district.

Among Mr. Early's accomplishments during the year was establishment of Stewart Charge and the raising of $6,000 to finance the church. His church also showed continued gains in membership, finances and other fields of endeavor.

TWICE FOR MR. EARLY This is the second time a charge headed by Mr. Early has received the honor. In 1946 his charge at Yanceyville received the same honor.

Since Mr. Early came to Dunn four years ago, the local church has increased in membership by 155. Forty new members were added during the past year.

Mr. Early has been prominent in affairs of the town and community. He has served as March of Dimes chairman, has been active in Red Cross, Rotary and other organizations.

During his pastorate here, the church has been completely renovated and a handsome new parsonage was erected.

NEW CHARGE FORMED Formation of the new Coats Methodist Charge was also announced by Bishop Garber, and will consist of the new Stewart, Coats Church and Pleasant Plains at Lillington.

The Rev. R. M. Forren, now a divinity student at Duke, will serve as pastor of these churches.

Only one other charge in this section was reported.

The Rev. Jobe Overton, who has been serving at Louisburg, will succeed the Rev. H. H. Cash at Marmers.

Ministers returned to their pastorate:

D. A. Letty, Erwin; I. T. Poole, Benson; W. L. Loy, Lillington, McD. McLamb, Newton Grove and S. G. Dodson, Wesley.

S. J. Starnes will succeed Mr. Lineberger at Fuquay Springs.

The Rev. Mr. Lineberger, who will preach his first sermon in Dunn Sunday, is a native of Rock Hill, S. C., son of Mrs. A. P. Lineberger and the late Mr. Lineberger.

He attended Wofford College at Spartanburg and Duke University. Before going to Fuquay, he served pastorates at Rougemont, Stem, St. John's-Gibson in Scotland County and Chadbourn.

HAS FINE RECORD Mr. Lineberger has made a splendid record during his four years at Fuquay Springs and is very popular there.

The Fuquay Church has shown much growth in membership and activities under his leadership and a new parsonage was erected.

Mr. Lineberger told The Daily Record this morning that he was looking forward with much pleasure.

Two More Die In Accidents

Lewis Ronald Bullock, eight-year-old Negro child, was pronounced dead on arrival at the Dunn Hospital this morning shortly after an accident in neighboring Cumberland County.

State Patrolman Bill Grady said the child was fatally injured when an automobile driven by his mother, Ethel May Bullock, 36, of Godwin, overturned on rural road west of Co-Wein.

The child suffered a broken neck and a crushed chest and died en route to the local hospital.

Cumberland County authorities investigated.

Meanwhile, Corporal Rommie Williamson, head of the highway patrol in Harnett, announced that the 20th highway fatality of the year in Harnett had occurred.

He reported that Tobey B. Cameron, who was involved in an accident last month, had died in a Fayetteville Hospital. The Negro was riding in an automobile in which another person, Richard Massey, was killed on Sunday, September 29th.

Sen. McCarthy Speaks Tonite

CHICAGO (AP) Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy R-Wis. readied his "documentation" of Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson's record today and the controversial senator's friends said, "This is strictly Joe's deal."

It was unlikely that McCarthy would show the text of his long-heralded speech about Stevenson to representatives of Dwight D. Eisenhower or members of the Republican National Committee.

The Wisconsin senator, who jumped into the national eye with his charges of Communist infiltration into government, was hiding out in a secret farm retreat in his home state. He was expected to return here about noon c. s. t.

AT 8:30 ON RADIO His speech about Stevenson will be carried at 8:30 p. m. c. s. t. today over the ABC television and Mutual radio networks.

McCarthy has said that he will show the Democratic presidential candidate in such a light that even the Democrats won't want him.

The talk's main theme, McCarthy said, will be "to what extent Stevenson is a part of the (Continued on Page 8)

Baptist Meeting Convenes Tuesday

Churches in the Little River Baptist Association will hold their 77th annual session on Tuesday, at Neill's Creek Baptist Church near Lillington.

L. H. Campbell, president of Campbell College who is the moderator, has announced that the theme of the day and night program will be "The Christian Home — The Key to Church Life."

Three distinguished visiting speakers will be heard during the meetings. They include Dr. Roger H. Crook, professor of Bible at Meredith College, the Rev. M. L. Woolweaver, pastor of Ephesus Church in the Raleigh Association and a former pastor of Antioch Church at Marmers, and Dr. J. Winston Pearce, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Durham.

Both Dr. Crook and Rev. Mr. Woolweaver will be heard Tuesday at 11 a. m. The Meredith professor will talk on "Christian Education" and The Rev. Mr. Woolweaver will preach the annual sermon. Dr. Pearce will speak at 8:30 p. m. Tuesday night.

Rev. G. Scott Turner, pastor of the Neill's Creek and Chalybeate Churches, will be the host to the association. Berles Johnson of Neill's Creek is the treasurer, and W. A. Johnson of Lillington, the clerk.

Rev. T. W. Williams of Lillington will serve as song leader and Mrs. J. T. Long of Lillington will be the organist. Lunch will be served at 12:30 p. m. to all delegates and visitors by the ladies of Neill's Creek, Chalybeate and Lillington churches.

TO OPEN AT 9:30 The association will open at 9:30 a. m. On the morning program (Continued on Page Two)

BULLETINS

LONDON (AP)—Queen Elizabeth II probably will have the final word in the British dispute over banning television cameras from Westminster Abbey during her coronation, it was indicated today.

NAIROBI, Kenya (AP)—A member of the crew of a British cruiser sent to Kenya to help stamp out the Mau (Continued on page two)

RENEE DRAWS RECORD CROWD — For the first time in the history of any Protestant church here the crowd that turned out last night to hear 12-year-old Renee Martz, child evangelist, was so large that two separate services had to be conducted to accommodate all those who came. Pictured in part of the crowd at one of the services with the overflow standing at the rear of the Gospel Tabernacle and in the doorways and the vestibule. The child evangelist conducted her final service here last night. (Record photo)

Rev. Russell B. Ridgway, left, and Rev. Bane Underwood, are shown as they ordained Renee.

Child Evangelist Sets Record Here

Twelve-year-old Renee Martz, world-famed child evangelist, made history again last night.

For the first time in the history of any Protestant church here, the crowd was so large that two services had to be conducted to accommodate all those who came.

The Rev. J. Luther Davis, retired pastor of the Gospel Tabernacle, said he'd never seen anything like it during his 37 years here.

Only one other church, Sacred Heart Catholic, has been forced to hold more than one service to accommodate the crowd in all the history of Dunn. This was during the Army maneuvers when thousands of Catholic soldiers were stationed in the area.

Last night was the final service for the child prodigy, who on Friday night was ordained as a full-fledged minister. The meeting will continue, however, under the direction of Rev. Russell Ridgway.

More than an hour before the service last night, the church building was filled to overflowing and others stood outside or sat in cars waiting for the second service to begin.

(Continued on Page Two)

Harnett Man Held On Dope Charges

Charles H. Denton, 48, of Angler, Route 2 today was facing trial in Federal Court on charges of violating the narcotics law.

He allegedly used a fictitious name and address to obtain a prescription for narcotics.

Denton was arraigned before U. S. Commissioner W. L. Hon at Fayetteville and bonded over to Federal Court under $500 bond. He was lodged in jail in default of the bond.

Williams Elected To Head Woodmen

J. E. (Fats) Williams, well-known Dunn fraternal and civic leader, has been elected Consul Commander of the Capitol Log Rolling Association, which includes ten Eastern and Central Carolina counties.

Mr. Williams, who has been active in the Woodman organization for years and is a former commander of the Erwin camp, succeeds Retiring Consul Commander R. A. Duncan of Dunn.

Mr. Duncan, another veteran WOV leader, presided over the annual meeting of Woodmen and Woodmen Circle members held last week in Durham.

A large delegation from this section, headed by District Manager Eugene Hood, attended the Durham sessions.

Honors also came to two other (Continued on Page 2)

J. E. WILLIAMS

Heavy Registration Here

Registrations during the three Saturdays that the books have been open has amounted to approximately two hundred persons in each of the four Aversboro precincts, according to a report from the registrars.

Saturday was the heaviest day of the registration period as hundreds turned out to beat the deadline. Some of the registrars went without meals and were forced to rely on quick sandwiches in order to remain at their station and take care of the unprecedented flood of registrants.

MANY NEGROES VOTE An unusually large proportion of the new registrants were from the colored sections of Dunn and some precincts reported the majority of new registrants were Negro voters.

In precinct number one, according to Registrar Robert Draughon, approximately 200 new names were added to the books, with from 80 to 100 of these registering Saturday. The majority of Saturday's registrants were colored.

Precinct number two registered approximately 200 new voters also, with Registrar A. N. Hudson working overtime to keep up with the rush.

Mrs. J. C. Andrews, Registrar for precinct number three, reported a total of 109 new registrants, five of whom were colored. A total of 75 registered in her precinct Saturday.

HEAVIEST IN NO. 4 J. E. (Fats) Williams, Registrar (Continued on Page Three)

Local Guardsmen Presented Awards

At the Annual Third Army Inspector's General Inspection of the local National Guard Unit, Battery B, 113th Field Artillery Battalion, on Wednesday night, 15 October 1952, at the local Armory, awards were made to the five best dressed members of the enlisted men of the unit.

There were five men from each Platoon chosen by members of Battalion Staff and Division Staff, after which Lt. Col. R. E. Brown, Inspector General, made the choice of the five best, and the awards were as follows, with prizes given and sponsors of each prize.

First prize was won by Pvt. Paul Hobson, Jr., of Route 1, Godwin. He was presented a beautiful Bulova wrist watch, donated by The Platoon chosen by members of Bat-

Big Crowd Expected For Opera Tonight

The Grass Roots Opera production of Don Pasquale will feature Miss Virginia Hudnall, a native of Lynchburg, Virginia in the role of Norina, a beautiful young widow in love with Ernesto.

The tuneful Donizetti comedy is sponsored by the Campell College Concert Series and will be presented tonight at 8 p. m. in the College Auditorium.

Miss Hudnall is a graduate of Lynchburg College and studied at the Carolina Opera School for one year. With the Lynchburg College opera group, she sang the leading soprano roles in Kurt Weill's "Down In The Valley," "The Telephone" by Menotti and Offenbach's "Marriage by Lantern."

She made her debut with Grass Roots Opera as Micela in "Carmen" which was presented in Lynchburg last season. This season she will also be seen as Desolina in "School For Lovers." Miss Hudnall's experience includes television appearances and church oratorio work.

Following the policy of Grass Roots Opera, "Don Pasquale" will be sung in English. The time of (Continued on Page 8)

MARKETS

EGGS AND POULTRY RALEIGH (AP)—Central North Carolina live poultry: Fryers or broilers steady, supplies fully adequate; heavy hens steady, supplies plentiful. Prices at farm up to 10 a. m.: Fryers or broilers 2 1/2-3 lbs. (Continued on page two)

VIRGINIA HUDNALL