UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. — (AP) — The United Nations Arab-Asian bloc gets an answer from Communist China today on proposals for compromise solutions to the Korean war deadlock.

LONDON — (AP) — Breweries announced today they are making beer of special strength for the coronation of Queen Elizabeth II next June 2.

DETROIT — (AP) — Officials of the Wayne-Oakland Bank were redfaced today after learning the teller they fired for embezzlement was an ex-convict when they hired him.

LONDON — (AP) — "Jane's Fighting Ships," the authoritative naval publication of the world, made the enormous naval power of the United States the feature of its new 1952-1953 edition today.

WASHINGTON — (AP) — General Services Administrator Jess Larson said today he has no intention of reinstating the $9,000,000 tungsten contract which was involved in the "five percent" firing of a high Democratic official.

GREEN BAY, Wis. — (AP) — Prof. John Barton of St. Norbert College reported to police today that 350 "highly-trained cockroaches" valued at $500 were stolen from the back seat of his car. Barton said the roaches were being used in a memory experiment.

MEMPHIS, Tenn. — (AP) — Government officials say farmers aren't putting their 1952 cotton into government loan because the selling price is higher than the loan level. At a meeting here yesterday, Production and Marketing Administration officials from Tennessee, Mississippi and Arkansas said the price of cotton, rather than red tape, was keeping cotton out of the loan program.

BOSTON, Mass. — (AP) — "Mamie Eisenhower" continued to draw large crowds here today. Mamie Eisenhower is a copper-colored Chrysanthemum on display here at a flower show.

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The government today granted an average 15 per cent hike in steel allocations for the first quarter of 1953 for automobiles, consumer durables and other civilian products.

HALLOWEEN CARNIVAL A BIG SUCCESS

The Halloween Carnival which was held at the local High School on Friday evening October 31, really went over the top for fun, and an evening of good friendship for a crowd of more than one thousand people of the community. This terminated the King and Queen contest which had been going on for two weeks among the pupils of the school. The proceeds of the contest and different concessions will go toward the fund to pay for the bleachers for the new Gym. There was a lively contest between the pupils of all the rooms. The amount raised from this contest was $1484.72. This is the largest amount raised in the history of King and Queen contest at the local school. From all other concessions the total amount raised was $548.00, making a grand total of $1932.72. The faculty and student body wishes to thank everyone who had any part in making it possible to raise this sum. The King and Queen from the High School was Mackenly Whittenton and Willowdean Johnson from Mr. Coon's room. The Grammar Grade King and Queen were Carson Gregory from Mrs. Pope's room and Vicky Lou Lee from Mrs. Nan Williams' room. From the Primary Department the Queen was Sheryl Dorman and Ronnie McLamb from Mrs. Grimes' room.

The count today stood at more than $8,000,000.

"Don't forget that the counting is still going on and that the soldier votes still have to be tabulated in various states," he said. "I still say we have a good chance of hitting 63,000,000."

Presumably, Vandenburg can have his crow any way he wants it, but he hasn't decided how he'd like it cooked.

10 POUNDS SPAGHETTI
In Chicago, Adolph Renucci made the mistake of betting with a tough competitor—his wife. She made him eat 10 pounds of spaghetti.

Joe Pruitt, chef at the Winthrop Hotel in Tacoma, Wash., trade in his cook's uniform for a waitress' outfit-skirt, blouse and all—and served meals in the dining room. If Stevenson had won the election, the waitresses would have to cook.

Daniel Stevenson, a Los Angeles auto salesman, backed the candidate of the same name and ended up carrying his boss. C. Earl Stoner, half a mile.

IN A WHEELBARROW
Jimmie Ivison of South Gate, Calif., pushed receptionist Harriett Lewis down the street in a wheelbarrow when she won their wager. A passerby quipped: "I told you we'd all be riding in wheelbarrows if the Republicans got in."

Like To Meet

(Continued from page one) 10-day vacation at Augusta, Ga., announced Thursday that he had accepted Mr. Truman's invitation to call at the White House. Eisenhower suggested that the meeting be held the week of Nov. 17.

The legislative conference apparently has been arranged so that Eisenhower can talk over with congressional leaders such major legislative problems as possible tax reduction, curtailment of government spending, continuation of price and wage controls, Taft-Hartley Act Amendments, and foreign aid.

Stevenson's

Rep. Courtney W. Campbell (D-Fla.), led William C. Cramer, 67,423 to 65,284, with over 3,000 absentee ballots still to be tallied.

Rep. Don Magnuson (D-Wash.), led Al Canwell, 412,133 to 407,253, with some 100,000 absentee ballots still to be counted within the next two weeks.

Mrs. Grace Pfost led Rep. John T. Wood (R-Iowa), 54,643 to 53,928.

Stevenson's

(Continued from page one) either left Springfield or were packing. The Stevenson for President headquarters in a three-story brick and frame building three blocks from the governor's mansion will be officially closed Saturday.

Wilson Wyatt, Stevenson's campaign manager, was leaving after "one more meeting" Saturday with the governor. Wyatt seemed pleased with the telegrams received here since the election.

"They all urge the governor to take leadership in the party and national affairs during the next four years," he said, adding that Stevenson would not yet commit himself to such a role.

But Wyatt predicted, "He'll be in the front pew in '56."

Mrs. Suggs

(Continued From Page One) County, daughter of the late W. R. A. and Lina Barbour of a prominent Johnston County family. She married the late Mr. Suggs in 1929.

Mr. Suggs, a conductor for the Durham and Southern Railroad died here in 1941.

Mrs. Suggs had resided in Dunn for the past 40 years and during this time took an active part in affairs of the town. She was one of the leaders of the First Baptist Church, was a member of the T.E.L. Class and had served for several years as president of the class.

Surviving Mrs. Suggs are two daughters: Mrs. Paul L. Strickland, Sr. and Mrs. Curtis B. Ennis, both of Dunn; two sons, Dr. Arthur Suggs of Benson and J. O. Suggs Jr. of Leaksville; one sister, Mrs. T. J. Mims, who made her home with Mrs. Suggs; one brother, Ayden Barbour of Durham, and 11 grandchildren.

Reds Stage Huge Parade In Moscow

MOSCOW — (AP) — The Soviet Union's military might and 2,000,000 civilians paraded past Premier Josef Stalin in Moscow's Red Square today in observance of the 35th anniversary of the Bolshevik Revolution.

Stalin, dressed in a regulation army greatcoat, watched the march-past from atop Lenin's mausoleum in the first snowstorm of the season. He acknowledged the cheers of the hundreds of thousands massed below with a wave of his arm.

Marshal Semyon Timoshenko, hero of Stalingrad, reviewed the parade from Horseback and then mounted the mausoleum to address the troops and the crowd.

Timoshenko accused Western "warmongers" of "trying to incite certain states against the Soviet Union." But, he added:

"The gallant armed forces of the Soviet Union possess everything needed to answer the aggressors courageously with the army and navy ready to fulfill honorably their duty to the country's interests."

With Stalin and Timoshenko atop Lenin's tomb were top Soviet Communist party and government leaders, among them deputy premiers

Xmas Parade

(Continued From Page One) Presbyterians in Dunn and all interested churches are requested to send a representative to this meeting. At that time, the various churches will be assigned the scenes which they are to portray on the floats.

COMMITTEE NAMED
Dr. Cathrell named a committee composed of Rev. Ernest Russell, Rev. Bane Underwood and Rev. R. R. Gammon to direct the parade.

Complete details of the parade will be announced from time to time.

At the meeting yesterday, the ministers also set Sunday night, November 16th as the date for a union service welcoming the Rev. J. W. Linberger, new pastor of Divine Street Methodist Church.

Plans were also approved for a union service honoring Dunn Masons on their Centennial Celebration, to be held at the First Baptist Church on December 7th.

Academy Winner Is Held For DD

WEST LOS ANGELES, Calif. — (AP) — Actor Broderick Crawford, an Academy Award winner, was arrested on drunk driving charges today after police said his car ran into two parked cars.

The 43-year-old film star was jailed for three hours before being released on $250 bail. Officers quoted him as saying he had "a

Judge Strickland continued prayer for judgment six months on payment of fine of $5 and costs, and warned the defendant that another conviction of speeding over $70 would cost him his license.

Dunn Mart

The market here, Suttles points out, is well established and in now over its "growing pains." There is every reason to expect continued growth and success from here on, he maintains.

Man Who Didn't Know He Was On Ticket Elected

A. B. Adams, a local magistrate, won an easy victory on the Republican ticket in Averasboro Township Tuesday.

He had no opposition.

But Magistrate Adams is still puzzled as to how his name got on the ticket in the first place.

"I didn't even know I was a candidate," declared the local magistrate today, "until I saw a list of all the candidates in the paper."

He said that apparently some of his friends had filed for him and without his knowledge. They neither asked nor told him anything about it.

Actually, his election was all in vain, anyway.

He recently was reappointed by Gov. Scott for another four-year term and the term to which he was elected Tuesday is for only two years.

"Anyway," declared Magistrate Adams, "I deeply appreciate the vote given me." He's one of the oldest magistrates in the county.

New York Demo Chairman Quits

ALBANY, N. Y. — (AP) — Paul E. Fitzpatrick, New York state Democratic chairman, quit today after a row with national Democratic leaders.

A long fight over his leadership came to a head when party leaders blew up because he conceded the state's electoral votes to Dwight D. Eisenhower two hours after the polls closed.

His resignation is effective tomorrow. He had served for eight years.
