

Alton Jernigan's Have Dinner For Bridal Couple

Miss Jean Wagoman, bride-elect and her fiance Ray Scott of Wilmington who will be married November 16 in the Church of the Good Shepherd in Wilmington were honored at a dinner party last Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. Alton Jernigan.

The dinner was held at the home of the Jernigans near Dunn. Mrs. David Parrish of Raleigh the former Miss Frances Lee Jernigan who will serve as matron of honor greeted guests on their arrival.

Miss Wagoman was presented a corsage of white carnations and the hosts gave her silver in her pattern.

The Jernigan home was decorated throughout with pretty flowers. A lace cloth was used on the dining room table which was centered with an arrangement of white mums and white snapdragons flanked by three-branched crystal candelabra with lighted yellow tapers.

Dinner was served buffet style with guests finding their places marked with attractive place cards. The menu consisted of roast chicken and dressing, green peas, baby limas, mashed potatoes, pear salad, carrot curls, olives, pickles, hot buttered biscuits, coffee, ice cream and cake.

The guest list included the honoree and her fiance, the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. Alice Smith of Wilmington. Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Jernigan, Mr. and Mrs. Walton Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Jernigan, Mrs. J. M. Lee, Mrs. Julia Mac Barefoot, Miss Brookie Jernigan, Mr. and Mrs. David Parrish of Raleigh, Charles Lee and Graham Jernigan.

Dunn Grove To Meet Tonight

The Supreme Forest Woodmen Circle—Dunn Grove 181—will hold their regular monthly business meeting Tuesday night, November 11th. Mrs. Dorothy Heath, President of the Dunn Grove 181, urges all members to be present as work on the Spring Convention must be started. Mrs. Virginia Melvin, S. E. District Past President and President of the Fayetteville Cape Fear Grove 237 will be here for the meeting.

IN GREENSBORO Dwight Mattox is a business visitor in Greensboro today.

WATCH!

For the opening of Dunn's Newest Ladies' and Children's Shops.

The Fashion Shop

MRS. RAYMOND C. WILLIAMS, who before her marriage on November 7, in Dillon South Carolina, was Miss Margie Harper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bunnie Harper of Erwin. Mr. Williams is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joel Williams of Dunn.

Formal Tea In Rocky Mt. Honors Bridal Couple

Mrs. Blanche Daughtridge of Rocky Mount and Mrs. H. A. McNeely of Sanford were co-hostesses at a lovely formal tea Sunday afternoon from four until six o'clock at the Daughtridge home in Rocky Mount, honoring Mrs. Hazel Joyner and Henry Sandlin of Dunn, who will be married on November 16.

Friends and relatives of the bridal couple, from Dunn, Fayetteville, Raleigh, Sanford, Farmville, Kenly, and Rocky Mount attended the affair. Mrs. Daughtridge and Mrs. McNeely are aunts of the bride-elect.

HERE FROM OHIO

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dale and children of Cincinnati, Ohio were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Mattox and family last Thursday. Mrs. Dale is a cousin of Mrs. Mattox's.

SUNDAY VISITORS

Mrs. Bob Kelly and daughter, Kathy, and Mrs. Kelly of Coats visited Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Mattox Sunday. Mrs. Kelly is the former Doris Jordan of Dunn. She is residing in Coats while her husband is serving in Korea.

PATIENT IN HOSPITAL

Little Larry Wayne Baird son of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Baird is a patient in the Dunn Hospital. He was badly burned at his home Sunday night.

WEEKEND AT BEACH

Mr. and Mrs. Houston Jernigan and children, Anne, Bill and Charlie, spent the weekend at Topsail Beach as guests of Dr. and Mrs. Willie Pittman and family of Fayetteville.

MISS STRICKLAND, BRIDE-ELECT IS HONORED AT TEA SUNDAY

Mrs. Leslie Campbell and Mrs. G. T. Proffitt complimented Miss Gladys Strickland of Campbell College, bride-elect of December 20, at a tea Sunday afternoon from 4 to 5:30 at the Campbell home in Bules Creek.

Guests were greeted by Mrs. Campbell and directed into the living room to meet the honoree and her mother, Mrs. Viola Strickland.

Serving in the dining room were Miss Catherine Campbell, Mrs.

Jack Ragland, Mrs. L. E. McKnight, and Mrs. Gerard W. Herbert. Mrs. Paul Bagby poured coffee and tea. Refreshments consisted of assorted sandwiches, Scotch shortbread and stuffed dates.

The dining table, covered with a cut-work linen cloth, was centered by an arrangement of white mums flanked by candles in silver holders.

Goodbyes were said to Mrs. G. T. Proffitt. Approximately sixty-five guests called.

Mrs. Godwin Fetes Husband With Bridge Party

Mr. Lewis Godwin was honored on the occasion of his birthday with a bridge party given by his wife at their home on Friday night at eight o'clock.

The living room and dining room were decorated with white mums, red berries and autumn leaves for the gala occasion.

R. A. Duncan, Jr., was presented shower soap for winning high score for men and Mrs. Billy Pope was given a china cup for attaining the same honor among the ladies. A box of candy went to Ed Wade for consolation.

During play the hostess passed nuts and cokes and later in the evening a delectable frozen salad, pimento sandwiches and potato chips were served with coffee.

Couples enjoying the affair were, Mr. and Mrs. Hank Currin, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Pope, Mr. and Mrs. John Ciccone, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Duncan, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wade.

SHOP IN FAYETTEVILLE

Mrs. Marvin Wade, Jr., and daughter, Ashley, shopped in Fayetteville Friday.

ATTEND DUNN-WINSTON-SALEM GAME

Mr. Hugh Sills, Laney Hodges, Miss Effie Lou McLean and Linda Aycock attended the Dunn-Winston-Salem football game in Winston Friday night.

SPEND WEEKEND IN LAGRANGE

Mr. and Mrs. Aisey Johnson and children spent the weekend in Lagrange and attended the Horseshow there Sunday.

AT KURE'S BEACH

Mrs. B. C. Johnson and son, Cecil enjoyed a fishing trip at Kure's Beach last week-end. They returned home Sunday.

VISIT IN CLINTON

Mr. and Mrs. John Parker and children visited Mr. Parker's parents in Clinton Sunday.

FROM ROSEBORO

Mr. and Mrs. Freddie Butler and son, Freddie, stopped by to see Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Butler and family on their way to send Freddie to Fishburne Military Academy, where he is a student. Mr. and Mrs. Freddie Butler are from Roseboro.

McD. Holliday Class Met Monday With Mrs. Bill Carroll

Mrs. Bill Carroll was hostess to the McD Holliday Sunday School Class of the Hood Memorial Christian Church last evening at eight o'clock.

Colorful chrysanthemums in pretty bouquets were used throughout the home.

Mrs. Herman Neighbors gave the devotional after which Miss Pauline Bell, presided over a routine business meeting in the absence of the president, Miss Bertha Westbrook. Mrs. Wilson Stanley gave a delightful reading on giving thanks and read a group of poems on friendship and brotherhood.

During the social hour, the hostess served Russian tea, chiffon cake and peanuts to the following guests, Dr. and Mrs. George Cutrell and members of the class, Mrs. Freeman Wood, Mrs. Loroman Dupree, Mrs. Louis Jeffreys, Mrs. Henry West, Mrs. Lena Ingraham, Mrs. Herman Neighbors, Mrs. Mangum Butler, Miss Blanche Bell, Miss Pauline Bell, Mrs. Wallace Dixon, Mrs. Lucille Harris, Mrs. Flonnie Tart, Mrs. Hugh Willford, and Mrs. Ada Gordon.

Senior Woman's Club To Meet Tuesday At 3:30

The Dunn Senior Woman's Club will meet Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 in the Dunn High School Library.

Miss Bessie Massengill will have charge of the program and all members are urged to attend.

HOMER FROM WAKE FOREST "Doc" Corbett, a student at Wake Forest, was home over the weekend visiting relatives and friends.

New Jewelry

(Continued From Page One)

SKILLED WATCHMAKER A skilled watchmaker, he can back up the guarantee on any timepiece by seeing to it that it stays in perfect condition. To accomplish this he has put in the latest model "Watchmaster," that amazing electronic device that can diagnose the ailment of a watch as easily as a physician using modern methods can diagnose a patient's condition.

Watches timed by this electronic machine can be adjusted to within a few seconds of absolute accuracy, regardless of their make. Use of this machine was one of the things he learned while attending a watchmaking school in 1944.

A native of nearby Cumberland County, Fisher has been living and working in this section since 1926, and is well known in Dunn and Erwin.

Aiding him in the new store, and handling the necessary bookkeeping, will be his sister, Mrs. Mittie Parker. He urges his friends in this section to drop in and look over his stock and see how reasonably jewelry items can be purchased when there are no carrying or other charges added to the original price, a guest.

Auditor May

(Continued From Page One) when a party worker solicited him. Mr. Carson supported the entire Democratic ticket.

Mr. Carson has served in the office for about seven years. His service was interrupted only by his military service. He has a splendid record and has been a leader in the VFW at Lillington.

Mr. Carson today declined to comment on the matter, but said he had heard it talked.

The office pays $330 a month, plus $60 a month travel allowance. The office is supposed to be strictly non-political.

Citizens throughout the county are expected to rally in behalf of Mr. Carson.

Chairman Tart said this morning that Miss Williams has not been very cooperative with the county board.

Under the law, however, the

Teachers Elected To District Posts

Three teachers from Harnett County and one from nearby Benson were selected for posts in the District Meeting of the North Carolina Educational Association in Raleigh Friday.

R. J. Denny of Dunn was named as vice-president of the class room teachers division.

W. J. Barefoot of Benson was selected as vice-president of the principals division and Taryn M. Johnson of Bales Creek, secretary of that division.

Martha McLeod of Olivia was named vice-president of the home economics department.

county board alone cannot fire Miss Williams. Since the State and Federal governments pay a portion of welfare workers' salaries, appointments must be approved by them.

START YOUR SAVINGS AT COMMERCIAL BANK DUNN, N. C.

SAVE By Shopping At Dunn Cut-Rate Jewelry Ty Fisher, Owner 209 E. Broad St. DUNN, N. C.

PARKER NEON SIGN CO. FAYETTEVILLE, N. C.

Extends Best Wishes TO

Monroe Jewelers DUNN'S NEWEST AND FINEST

The Neon Sign At Monroe's Was Installed By Us - We Invite You To See And Inspect It.

WE OFFER COMPLETE SIGN SERVICE. CALL US FOR AN ESTIMATE

PARKER Neon Sign Company

SALES AND SERVICE

143 Maxwell St. Fayetteville, N. C. Phone 28316

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT

Johnson's Cafeteria Closed For Remodeling

This is to advise the public that our cafeteria will be closed indefinitely for remodeling.

We are now installing new equipment and making other improvements in order to serve you better.

WE WILL STILL BE ABLE TO HANDLE PARTIES AND BANQUETS.

JOHNSON'S RESTAURANT

"The South's Finest"

DUNN, N. C.

McLamb Plumbing & Heating Co.

NO. 1 HEATING AND PLUMBING CONTRACTORS OF THIS SECTION

EXTENDS HEARTIEST

Congratulations! And Best Wishes

SEARS ROEBUCK AND CO.

- TO -

MONROE JEWELERS

We are proud to have been awarded the contracts for the heating, plumbing and air-conditioning of these two fine additions to our business district.

These are two more of many similar installations completed by us. Let us submit a bid on your next project - You'll be pleased with our expert workmanship and the quality of the finished job. No job too large or too small.

McLamb Plumbing & Heating Co.

McLamb Supply Company

BENSON HIGHWAY

DUNN, N. C.

PHONE 2649