Soldiers Prepared For Korean Winter

WITH THE 7TH INFANTRY DIV. IN KOREA — Heavier clothing should make the current Korean winter the most comfortable for American soldiers since their arrival in the combat zone. For example, Cpl. James S. Lee, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Lee of Route 3, Benson, and Sgt. Waymon C. Weaver, whose wife, Annie lives on Rt. 1, Varina have been issued additional items for the winter months.

Corporal Lee arrived in Korea last March and has been serving as a squad leader in Company M of the division's 32d Infantry Regiment. Among his decorations are the Combat Infantryman Badge and the Korean Service Ribbon with one campaign star.

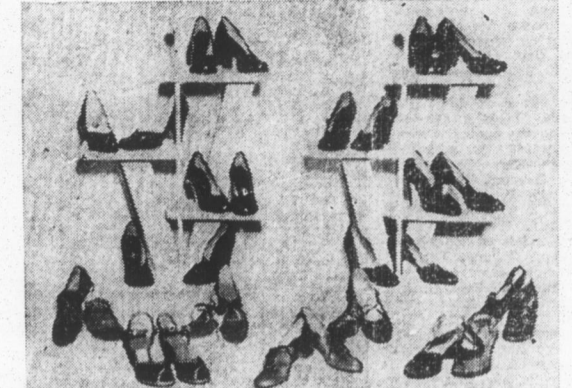

Before entering the Army in August 1951, Lee was engaged in farming. Sergeant Weaver, serving in Heavy Tank Company of the division's 32d Infantry "Buccaneer" Regiment, holds the Combat Infantryman Badge and the Korean Service Ribbon with one campaign star.
