Harnett Expecting Quiet Thanksgiving

Indications today pointed to a quiet Thanksgiving observance in Dunn and throughout Harnett and the surrounding area.

Several churches have scheduled special Thanksgiving services. As usual, the feature of the day for most people will be a Thanksgiving feast with turkey furnishing the centerpiece. Most business firms and practically all governmental offices will be closed. There will be no mail deliveries, except special delivery.

Rural Mail Boxes Destroyed In Area

Dunn Postmaster Ralph Wade warned today that somebody, possibly pranksters, is inviting trouble with Uncle Sam for tearing down rural mail boxes.

The postmaster reported that approximately 25 mail boxes have been torn down on Dunn, Route 3 and about a dozen on Dunn, Route 2. This, he reminded the Dunn Post Office official, is a Federal crime and the guilty persons, if caught and convicted, would be subject to both fine and imprisonment.

It's Thanksgiving In Korea They Huddle In Cold Trenches

By ROBERT UDICK Staff Correspondent SEOUL, Korea, Thurs. — Icy-cold weather and a lull in the fighting ushered in Thanksgiving Day today for American GIs huddled in the 155-mile Korean battle-trenches and foxholes along the front.

The last major activity was a tremendous U. N. aerial attack yesterday on a sprawling Communist supply and troop center in eastern Korea. American fighter-bombers hurled tons of bombs and flaming jellied gasoline on the target, touching off huge fires and explosions.

THEY'LL GET TURKEY As the ground war simmered to scattered patrol actions, GIs looked forward eagerly to the traditional Thanksgiving fare of hot turkey, dressing, cranberry sauce and pumpkin pie.

The dinner was sent to the front in insulated containers to keep it hot for the shivering soldiers, who had to eat it right away. Otherwise, it turned into a hard-icy mass in the bitter Korean weather.

United Press correspondent Victor Kendrick reported that a full moon shone over drifting wisps of overcast during the night along the central front, where the battle for Sniper Hill has raged for 42 days.

THANKSGIVING MESSAGES U. N. commander Gen. Mark Clark and 8th Army commander Gen. James A. Van Fleet took time out from preparing for President-elect Eisenhower's visit to Korea to issue Thanksgiving messages to their soldiers.

In Tokyo, Clark reminded the fighting men they still have much to be thankful for, despite the war. He said America's strength and courage, its high moral determination and the preservation of its dignity, freedom and rights as human beings were their blessings.

"As we solemnly give thanks for these blessings, let us also pray that our determination and our faith shall never falter," he said. Van Fleet, in Seoul, said that Americans at home were thankful that loved ones in Korea have been spared. At the same time, he said, their tears "will be shed for those of us who have gone to a better world, the men who gave their lives that we might live in freedom."

"Let us be thankful today that we are still free to celebrate this Thanksgiving Day," he said. Yesterday's air attack was carried out by Air Force and Marine fighter-bombers on a vast Red center southwest of Wonsan, an important east coast port.

MONEY FOR PHONE SURVEY — Mrs. James Coats is shown opening the letters received by the Dunn Chamber of Commerce in response to the request for funds to make a survey of the telephone situation to determine whether a rate increase is justified. Only a small proportion of the letters mailed out have been returned, so far, however, according to Chamber Manager Norman Suttles, and he urges those who plan to do so at once so that Dunn may raise its quota. Midwest Is Hit By Blizzard; 12 Dead

OMAHA, Neb. — A prairie blizzard, blown by winds of up to 76-miles per hour, turned the sprawling territory from the Texas Panhandle to the Minnesota like country into a frozen, glistening wasteland today and killed at least a dozen persons.

The storm caused the death of four persons in Nebraska alone. And the choking snow and treacherous ice were likely to cause more fatalities. The stinging snow, driven almost horizontally by the gusty wind, will probably slow Thanksgiving travel to a crawl, even with the big rotary snowplows biting through the drifts.

TRANSPORTATION PARALYZED Bus, rail, auto and air travel was completely paralyzed in Nebraska and throughout much of the Midwest. Hundreds, perhaps thousands, of motorists were trapped in their cars or in little wayside towns.

The storm hit the Great Plains states of Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, Nebraska, Iowa, the Dakotas and piled drifts high in Wisconsin and Minnesota. It hurled itself against the mountain states of Colorado, Wyoming and Montana, threatening stock herds.

A milder snowstorm moved into Illinois early today, and forecasters said today flurries were likely for much of the state later today. The first fall hit Quincy and the Moline area.

It was a "warm" blizzard, with temperatures ranging generally in the 20's and the snowfall seldom heavier than six inches. But the (Continued on Page Eight)

At 10:30 Saturday night, there was a three-car crash at the Broad Street Railroad crossing, when a 1951 Chevrolet truck, driven by Alga Scott and owned by Silas Whittington Transfer Co., hit two cars which were waiting for a train to pass.

The truck hit the rear of a 1948 Chevrolet, driven by Sherill Ray Hardison and drove it into the car ahead, a 1948 Chevrolet, driven by Claude Alexander Bennett, Dunn Route 2. Damage to the Bennett car was $10; to the Hardison car $75; and to the truck, $25.

Third accident reported was one Monday afternoon at 3:30 on East Cumberland, between a 1946 Ford truck, driven by Horte Daniels and owned by the town and a 1948 Chevrolet, driven by Edith Matthews Lee, Dunn Route 1, and owned by Archie Lee.
