

Paul Green Winner Of Literary Award

Several Harnett County residents attended the annual meetings of the State cultural societies last week in Raleigh, at which Paul Green native of Harnett, was presented the Sir Walter Raleigh Award for "outstanding literary achievements."

Societies that held meetings during the week were the State Literary and Historical Association, the N. C. Folklore Society, the N. C. State Art Society, the N. C. Society for the Preservation of Antiquities, the N. C. Society of County and Local Historians, Roanoke Island Historical Association, and N. C. Symphony Society.

The week long program was climaxed Friday night by the announcement of the Mayflower Society award for the best book written during the year by a North Carolinian. A new cup, the Sir Walter Raleigh Award, was given for the first time to the writer of the best piece of fiction, Paul Green.

This beautiful cup which fulfilled a long felt need for the stimulation of fiction, was presented by another Harnett County native, Miss Clara Booth Byrd of Greensboro, on behalf of the Historical Book Club of Greensboro. Miss Byrd, who is the founder and president of the club, was for many years alumnae secretary at Women's College. She is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Allison Byrd of Harnett County.

Paul Green of Chapel Hill, was the speaker for the luncheon meeting on Wednesday of the State Art Society. Green reported on a recent trip around the world, concluding that American actions must measure up to their ideals if the U. S. A. is to win new friends and retain old ones in Asia.

Only one Harnett county man is included among the officers of the societies during 1952. He is Leon McDonald of Olivia, secretary-treasurer of the N. C. Society of County and Local Historians.

Other members of the various societies from the county include: State Literary and Historical Society Malcolm Fowler and Mrs. Joel G. Layton of Lillington, Miss Blanche Grantham, Mrs. J. W. Thornton, Mrs. Howard White of Dunn, Mrs. Annie B. Pruitt of Buie's Creek, B. G. Thomas and the Rev. W. Robert Insko of Erwin; State Art Society, Mrs. Joel G. Layton of Lillington; N. C. Society of County and Local Historians - Edward Cameron and Miss Flora R. McDonald of Olivia, Miss Sylvia Draughon of Dunn, Malcolm Fowler and R. M. Turlington of Lillington, Miss Olivia Harrington and Mrs. Blanche Johnson of Broadway.

Many of these members and others not named also belong to the Antiquities Society which did not list its members in the programs. A number of guests also accompanied members to the various meetings, all open to the public.

John P. McKnight of Shelby, author of "The Payacy," received the Mayflower Society award.

Paul Green of Chapel Hill was granted the Sir Walter Raleigh award for "outstanding literary achievement."

"The Payacy" was adjudged by a committee of the Society of Mayflower Descendants to be the best non-fiction volume published by a Tar Heel during the year ended Aug. 31. The Historical Book Club presented the award to Green in honor of his achievements in the field of fiction.

is LONG FELLOW
A Y D L B A A X R
One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Quigley Reports On Fund Campaign
"The people I have approached have been more than kind," E. T. Quigley, Dunn Route 2, chairman of the fund drive for the Christmas Party sponsored by the Dunn Camp of the Woodmen of the World said today.

Quigley revealed that his personal canvass had netted him $145 of the approximately $350 collected in the course of the drive. He wishes to extend his thanks to all who contributed.

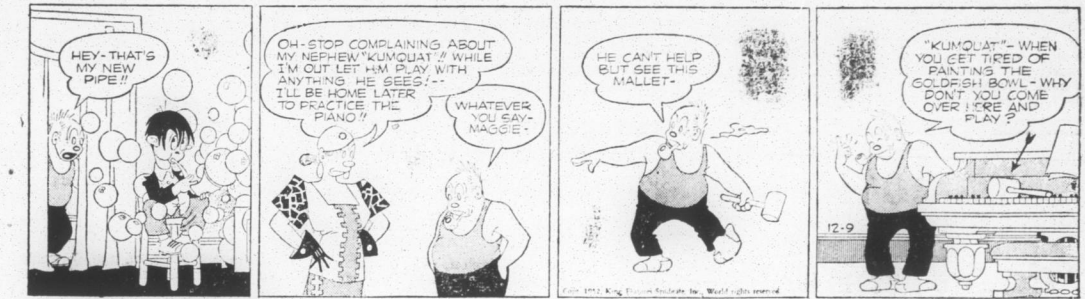

The funds collected will be used to finance a Christmas Tree party at the Dunn Grammar School on December 23 for the children in the Dunn Free Will Baptist and the Falcon Orphanages.
