

Billy Wellons, Jr. Feted On Seventh Birthday At Party

Billy Wellons, Jr. was entertained on his seventh birthday with a party on Friday afternoon at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William S. Wellons.

The children were invited into the home and greeted by the honored guest. He presented each of his guests with a party favor.

The dining room table was centered with green and yellow candles in crystal candle holders and covered with a white cutwork cloth. The lovely white, yellow, and green birthday cake encircled with dainty white flowers was also on the table.

After refreshments were served Billy opened his many nice gifts. The children enjoyed playing games out-doors.

Surprise Dinner Given In Wade

Mrs. Henry E. Weeks and Mr. Cannon Weeks Sr. of Wade, R.I. were honored on the occasion of their birthdays with a surprise birthday dinner on Sunday.

Friends and relatives gathered at the home at 11:30 and a sumptuous old-fashioned dinner was served buffet style in the dining room.

Making up the menu was turkey, pot roast, chicken, soussmeat, potato salad, tuna salad, Christmas candle salad, slaw, English peas, green beans, hot biscuits, coffee and cake, and for dessert, Japanese fruit cake and the decorated birthday cake.

After the delicious meal, the party grouped around the gaily decorated Christmas tree, where an array of birthday gifts were presented to the honored guests.

Those enjoying the delightful affair were Mrs. Jane Bovette of Newton Grove, Mr. Wendell Weeks of Mount Olive, Mrs. Sandy Godwin of Wade, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Jackson Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Margie and Beverly, and Miss M. Weeks Jr. and children, Sally Ann and Mrs. Shore Weeks of Fayetteville, Mrs. K. S.
