

Dr. And Mrs. Charles Byrd Have Coffee Hour For Class

The Young Adult Class of the First Presbyterian Church were graciously entertained when Dr. and Mrs. Charles Byrd were hosts to the class members at a coffee hour Sunday afternoon at five o'clock.

A beautiful holiday motif was carried out in the lovely home of the hosts. Christmas decorations included a Madonna encircled with white candles and holly, a large beautifully decorated Christmas tree, lighted candles and greenery in the living room.

Mrs. Frank Belote presided at the silver coffee service and Mrs. Eula Jones assisted Mrs. Byrd in serving. Silver and red balls hung from red ribbons in a silver spigot which was filled with Christmas balls and frilled with white lace as a lovely centerpiece on the dining-room table. Small lighted candles in holly-filled candleholders encircled the arrangement.

Delicious refreshments of spiced cup cakes, mints, nuts and cheese wafers were served to around forty members of the class attending the party.

A short business session was held at the church before the coffee hour with Frank Belote presiding. Officers for the new year were elected. Those elected were Mr. and Mrs. John Weiborn, co-presidents; Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Williams, co-vice-presidents; Mrs. Edna Gupien, secretary and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lowe, co-treasurers.

CORE-IVEY VOWS ARE EXCHANGED IN CHURCH CEREMONY SUNDAY

A red and white color scheme was used when a formal ceremony on Sunday afternoon at four o'clock united in marriage Miss Joyce "Mickey" Ivey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ivey and Mr. Wallace Ray Core, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carlyle Core, all of Dunn.

The vows were heard in the Grove Presbyterian Church by the Rev. R. R. Gammon and the Rev. Glen Fishbeck. The double-ring ceremony was used. The setting for the wedding was created with all white arrangements of chrysanthemums, pom-poms, and gladioli and white tapers in seven branched candelabra.

Mrs. Reta Whittenton, organist, presented a program of nuptial music before the wedding. Her numbers included "Whisperings of Love," "Hymn to the Bride," "Indian Love Call" by Primi, "Hearts and Flowers" by Tobani, "Meditation" by Bartlett, "Claire de Lune" by Debussy, "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life" by Victor Herbert and "Love Dreams" by Dvorak. Mrs. Al Wullenwaber, soprano, sang "En Gourd" and "Through the Years" by Youmans. "The Lord's Prayer" by Malotte was used as a response to the benediction.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was attired in a gown of nylon tulle with bodice and sleeves of chantilly lace. The dress was fastened in back with tiny self-covered buttons. Her three-tiered skirt of tulle extended into a train and her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a cloche of chantilly lace encircled with seed pearls. She carried a prayer book topped with sweetheart roses and Stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

The maid of honor, Miss Jean Ivey, sister of the bride, wore a gown of red nylon tulle over net fashioning with a strapless bodice and tulle skirt. She wore a bandeau with nose veil and carried a crescent of white roses, carnations and pom-poms.

Bridesmaids were Miss Becky Lee, Miss Becky Bryant, both of Dunn, and Mrs. Maurice Capps of Raleigh, all cousins of the groom, and Miss Mary Lou Lee. Their gowns were fashioned identically to that of the maid of honor. They also wore nose veils and carried bouquets of white roses, carnations and pom-poms.

LEES ENTERTAIN AT PARTY IN HONOR OF BRIDAL COUPLE SATURDAY

Saturday night following the rehearsals for the Core-Ivey wedding which took place yesterday afternoon, Miss Becky Lee and her brother, George Perry Lee, entertained at an informal party at their home on the Jonesboro Road. Miss Lee was a bridesmaid in the wedding and Mr. Lee was an usher. They are cousins of Mr. Wallace Ray Core, the bridegroom.

Christmas decorations were used effectively throughout the Lee home. A manger scene was on the radio in the living room, and on the coffee table was an open Bible, turned to the Christmas story with choir boys grouped around it. Blue candles burned in the windows.

A beautiful Christmas tree was in the den and arrangements of greenery and red berries were in the den and other rooms of the home.

The bride and groom remembered their attendants with gifts and the host and hostess presented the honored guests with a blanket.

The table in the dining room held a unique centerpiece consisting of Santa, his sleigh and candles. Other groups of candles burned on each side.

Mrs. Wilbert Lee, mother of the host and hostess assisted in the dining room where guests were served punch, assorted sandwiches, cookies, nuts and candies, buffet style.

Guests included Miss Joyce "Mickey" Ivey, and Mr. Wallace Ray Core, the honored couple, Rev. and Mrs. R. R. Gammon, Rev. Glen Fishbeck, Mrs. Reta Whittenton, Miss Becky Bryant, Miss Mary Lou Lee, Miss Anna Daniels, Mrs. Nat Johnson, Mr. Billy Monds, Mr. and Mrs. Carlyle Core, Miss Jean Ivey, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Capps of Raleigh and Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Lee.

ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT
Mr. and Mrs. John H. Dyer of Winston-Salem have announced the engagement of their daughter, Ann, to Charles H. McLemore of Greensboro and Wade. Mr. McLemore is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. O. L. McLemore of Wade. The wedding is planned for early Spring.

PARENTS HERE
Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Lanier have as their guests for the holidays her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Madison Smith of Savannah, Georgia. The Laniers were called to Savannah by the sickness of Mr. Smith and remained there until he was well enough to travel.

Morrison-Brown Vows Are Spoken Here On Sunday

Miss Ollie Inez Brown of Raleigh and Sgt. Walter L. Morrison Jr., of Camp Lejeune were united in marriage Sunday morning at the Hood Memorial Christian Church in Dunn. The bride is the niece of Mr. and Mrs. Wilton Stanley and has visited her aunt here many times.

Dr. George Cuthrell, pastor of the church, officiated at the nine o'clock double-ring ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. W. H. Brown and the late Mrs. Brown of Four Oaks. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Morrison of Oquossoc, Maine.

Mrs. T. J. Jackson, organist, presented a program of wedding music before the ceremony, and Mr. Eugene Huggins sang "Oh, Promise Me."

The vows were spoken before a setting of greenery, white candles and mums.

The couple entered the church together and there were no attendants. For the ceremony, the bride wore a white wool-shoulder dress embroidered with seed pearls and rhinestones. Her hat was white wool to match her dress and she wore accessories of black and a corsage of green orchids.

Ushers were Bruce Brown of Four Oaks, brother of the bride, and her cousin, Roger Stanley of Dunn.

The bride is now associated with the Southern Bell Telephone Co. in Raleigh, and upon their return from a wedding trip the couple will make their home at 421 Cutler St. there.

Following the wedding breakfast, the couple left for a wedding trip to New York. They will then go to Oquossoc, Maine to spend Christmas with the bridegroom's parents.

Dinner Party Honors Bridal Couple Sunday

Mrs. W. M. Brannon and son Wade entertained on Sunday night at a dinner honoring Miss Nancy Abernathy and Mr. Charles Overman, who will be wed on December 31. The party was held at Holt's Lake.

Christmas decorations were effectively used. The table was decorated with white poinsettias and green candles. Greenery was used down the center of the table.

Miss Abernathy was presented a corsage of cymbidium orchids and Mr. Overman was given a carnation boutonniere. The host and hostess remembered the honored couple with a floor lamp.

A turkey dinner was served in the cafe at the lake and dessert was served in the Brannon cottage. The dessert consisted of cake, coffee, cookies, and cheese straws. Since it was Miss Abernathy's birthday, she cut the cake and served it.

Those present for the affair were the honored couple, Miss Rita Fleishman of Fayetteville, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Coats, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Coats, Mr. and Mrs. Sonny Draughon, Miss Mary Alice and Kay Ryals, both of Benson, Earl Davis Farthing, Miss Polly Pope, Miss Shirley Jane Johnson, Miss Betty Cathey, Miss Kathleen Barker, Miss Sybil Barrett, Miss Carolyn Westbrook, Douglas Overman, James Brannon, George Brannon, Miss Regie Tyler, and host and hostess.

that a group of veterans from Alamance county were not being treated as free people should be treated by the 1951 Legislature, thus from this point we sought recognition for the veteran and his rights in North Carolina, and from this point we shall continue to see his recognition. Our belief is that whatever is good for the veteran is good for his town and community.

beils and greenery formed the centerpiece which was illuminated by burning white tapers. The wedding breakfast served buffet style consisted of mixed fruit juice, chicken ala king on waffles, cranberry conserve, hors d'oeuvres, coffee and Christmas cookies. Mrs. Lena Ingram, grandmother of the bride, cut and served the wedding cake at the end of the breakfast.

WEDDING BREAKFAST

Capt. and Mrs. Earl Ingram, aunt and uncle of the bride, entertained at a wedding breakfast immediately following the ceremony at their home in Dunn.

Several artistic floral arrangements carrying out the green and white color scheme were used in the living room and dining room of the Ingram home. Mistletoe was also used in decoration.

The dining room table carried out the bridal motif. White wedding
