CHICAGO (P — A 30-year-old man leaped from the 14th floor of a skyscrapper YMCA hotel early today, lived through the fall and threatened to "do it again." Doctors at St. Luke's hospital said Alexis V. Grekoff suffered numerous lacerations, fractures and a "crushed head" in the jump but was conscious when brought to the hospital. They said his condition was "serious". Grekoff told police who rushed him to the hospital he was "tired of it all." And vowed he would try to take his life again if he got WASHINGTON (IP) — Financier Serge M. Rubinstein anxiously hoped for new court action today to hait his arrest on deportation charges.

A stay of arrest, issued by the U. S. Court of Appeals New Year's Eve, was due to expire at 11 a. m.

Rubinstein's lawyers said he was ready to surrender to deportation officials if the stay was not extended.
