Truman Budget Sets Record

Records Broken By Truman In Spending

WASHINGTON (AP)— President Truman broke all records for collecting and spending people's money. His tax take in nearly eight years was about $348,000,000,000.

Most of the World War II spending is charged to Mr. Roosevelt. His grand total for 12 years was approximately $370,000,000,000— not much more than Mr. Truman disposed of in eight.

Dunn Merchant Draws Sentence

J. M. Neighbors, Dunn business man now in bankruptcy, submitted in Superior Court to charges of issuing several thousand dollars of worthless checks.

In four specific counts Neighbors was sentenced to six years on the roads, suspended on payment of the checks and substantial fines.

Neighbors was first given two years on the roads each on two counts for issuing worthless checks to Wayne Wholesale Grocery Company of Goldsboro.

GETS PLEASANT SURPRISE — E. C. Hood, District Manager of the Woodmen of the World, and newly installed Consul Commander of the Dunn Camp, was pleasantly surprised last night by a present of $85 from the members.

Asks 79 Billion As Essential In National Safety

WASHINGTON (AP)— President Truman sent Congress today a proposed spending budget of $78,600,000,000 for fiscal 1954 and said the Republicans ought to continue present high taxes—or even raise them.

He said the whole total is "essential for the safety and well being of the nation" in this time of arm-ing against the Soviet threat.

If the Republican Congress adopt the whole budget and unlikely "if" — federal spending in fiscal 1954, beginning July 1 this year, would be the biggest except during World War II.

President-elect Eisenhower and such GOP leaders as Sen. Robert A. Taft have set a general goal of cutting it to $70,000,000,000.

Mr. Truman said the government would go in the red by $9,900,000,000 (Continued On Page Two)

Woodmen Hold District Meet

General Assembly Is Getting Organized

RALEIGH (AP)— Both houses of the North Carolina General Assembly met at 10 a.m. today to handle organizational matters and head in to the long grind of law making ahead.

Lt. Gov. Luther Hodges and House Speaker E. T. Bost Jr. went to work to try to complete committee assignments by early next week.

Capitol sources said at least one of the bills is definitely sorted. The bill will be signed by Gov. Umstead.

Approximately 350 members representing 12 to 15 Camps in this area attended the District meeting of the Woodmen of the World at the Dunn Armory yesterday.

The meeting began with opening ceremonies by the Erwin Camp's Drill Team and the afternoon session starting at 4:30 was used for business and degree work.

The meeting was thus engaged, the men were being entertained in an adjoining room by the Dunn Camp of the Woodmen's Circle.

At the conclusion of the afternoon exercises, the group adjourned for a barbecue supper and the meeting was resumed at 7:00 p. m. with Mayor Ralph E. Hanna welcoming the visitors on behalf of the visiting Woodmen.

District Manager Eugene Hood recognized the guests and Camps and then drew a laugh when he was made speechless by the surprise presentation of $85 by J. E. (Fats) Williams on behalf of the members for his outstanding work.

Criminal Term Ends With Untried Cases

A criminal term of Harnett Superior Court was at an end today after Judge Paul Frizzelle adjourned court late Wednesday in order for the judge and other court officials to attend the inauguration of Governor Umstead in Raleigh.

Two new true bills of murder, one a first degree charge, came from the grand jury in its closing hour of deliberation. Eula Mae Brown was charged with the premeditated killing of Zollie Brown on Nov. 24 near the Harnett-Sampson County line. Mack Samuel Oakley was accused of the December 13 killing of Bernie Bass.

The grand jury dismissed the charge of rape against Archie Ma- son, labelling the charge not a true bill.

Solicitor Jack Hooks could look back on a good week's work tele-scoped into a three day span. Break- ing and entering and larceny cases dominated the docket. Defendants convicted drew stiff prison and road sentences.

Burgled Grocer Has Two Roles

Walter Tucker, well known Lillington Negro grocer, took two different roles this week in Harnett Superior Court.

He was the prosecuting witness in a robbery case and appeared to advantage, convicting Jesse Bill Rag- land, for stealing dressed chickens from his market.

Later Tucker was called as a defendant, accused of speeding 30 miles an hour on the road from Fayetteville to Lillington. Things were not going so well for Tucker who was trying to defend himself until Solicitor Hooks refreshed the Judge's memory and told him who Tucker was.

Others from the bar spoke up and gave Tucker a good reputation.

"Oh yes," said the judge, "you suffered quite a loss," referring to the robbery.

"Cut the $100 fine to $50" said the judge, after Tucker admitted he was "stepping down on it" in his Buick.

"Those chickens spoiled on me." (Continued On Page Three)

Two Are Caught At Still Site

Hurcie Odell Patterson, 19, of Lillington, Route 3, and George Wilkins, 27, Dunn, Route 2, were caught yesterday morning at a still by Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Department officers.

The pair were charged with setting up and operating a non-regis- tered distillery, working at a dis- tillery and making mash for dis- tillation, 1,800 gallons of which were found at the site.

They waived a hearing before U. S. Commissioner Mrs. Mallie A. Jackson and were bound over to the April term of Federal Court in Raleigh under bond of $500 each.

BULLETINS

WASHINGTON (AP)— President Truman's proposed spending budget, submitted to Congress today, was described as "fantastic" by Republicans who said it can be but by $10,000,000,000. They also brushed aside Mr. Truman's proposal that taxes be increased. Even the Democrats refused to take this suggestion seriously.
