Mrs. Bradsher Is Den Mother

Mrs. Ambrose Bradsher was elected a den mother at the monthly pack meeting of Lillington Cub Scouts on Wednesday night at the Community Center. The other den mother now serving is Mrs. B. C. O'Quinn.

Scout regulations require that a den mother have a son of eight to 11 years of age enrolled in Cub Scouting. Mrs. Bradsher's son, Richard, and Mrs. O'Quinn's son, Byron, are both Cub Scouts.

The pack meeting attracted a round 50 parents and Scouts. They viewed a film on Cub Scouting with Mrs. Howard Watkins serving as narrator. Cub Scout Master Andrew Jackson presided and distributed to the Cub Scouts small replicas of the Liberty Bell in appreciation of the role Cub Scouts in getting out the vote in the November national elections.

House to house distribution of paper Liberty bells reminding citizens to vote on Election Day was promoted nationally by the non-partisan Crusade for Freedom Foundation. In Lillington Cub Scouts hung the paper bell on door knobs on election eve.

Jackson announced that 12 Cub Scouts were re-registered and eight new Cub Scouts were also enlisted bringing the total Cub Scout registration to 20. Each den mother will have ten boys.

At the close of the program frozen custard was served to the entire group as a courtesy from Eddie Davis, owner of Eddie's Place whose son, Joe, was one of the new Cub Scouts joining on Wednesday night.

BUILD NEW HOME
Mr. and Mrs. Archie Woodworth have moved into their new home located on 13th street between James and Killgrew streets. The house, which is of modernistic design, is built of California redwood and Tennessee crab orchard stone.
