Probe Communists In Colleges

Smith Professor Admits He Was In Communist Party

WASHINGTON (AP) — Prof. Robert G. Davis of Smith College today admitted to the House Un-American Activities Committee that he joined the Communist party in 1937 while teaching at Harvard.

Davis, balding and bespectacled English teacher at the Northampton, Mass., girls school, said he quit two years later. He began his testimony after Chairman Harold H. Velde (R-Ill.) said he could add "immeasurably" to the committee's work. Davis was the first witness called as the committee opened a controversial investigation of Communist influences in the nation's colleges.

Jelke's Mother Testifies Today

NEW YORK (AP) — The mother of Minot F. (Mickey) Jelke testified today in her son's defense against charges of compulsory prostitution and living off the earnings of a café society vice girl. Mrs. Ralph Teal produced a list of checks and other gifts of money, which she said she gave the 23-year-old heir between Jan. 1, 1951, and August, 1952. In that period the state charges young Jelke and a one-time movie bit player, Richard Short, ran a plush vice ring that supplied night club millionaires with prostitutes at $50 a date and up.

High Court Reverses Leer Assault Case

RALEIGH, N. C. (AP) — The State Supreme Court overruled the "assault by leer" conviction of Negro sharecropper Mack Ingram today by deciding that he could not be convicted of a criminal offense "solely for what may have been in his mind."

Hooper Appointed Campaign Chairman

Solons Divided On Governor's Bond Proposals

RALEIGH (AP) — North Carolina's legislators agreed today that Gov. William B. Umstead's proposed bond issues totaling $87,000,000 would serve a worthy purpose but were divided on whether they would tolerate an increase in the tax load. Senate President pro tem Edwin Pate of Scotland County said the bonds "will, of course, require more taxes," but "it is very necessary that the bonds be submitted to the people."

Rep. Clyde Shreve of Guilford agreed that the program could probably not be carried out "without additional sources of revenue" but he said, "If absolutely necessary, I'll go along with tax revision to get the necessary revenue." Umstead urged a $50,000,000 bond issue for school building, a $22,000,000 issue for mental institutions and another of $15,000,000 for institutions of higher learning.

Last Minute News Shorts

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower told a news conference he was willing to go half way to a meeting with Soviet Premier Josef Stalin or any other world leader under certain conditions. The conditions were: if he thought such a meeting would further the cause of world freedom, and if it would be consistent with what the American people expect of their chief executive.

Panty Raid Is Made By Girls

TOLEDO (AP) — Thirty-five giggling bobby soxers stormed through a men's dormitory at Toledo University last night on a panty raid in reverse. The girls in blue jeans and parka jackets made a whirlwind invasion of the three-story dormitory, starting half-dressed male students and stealing pairs of shorts as they raced from room to room. It appeared to be an outbreak of the same underwear fever that touched off a series of panty raids on women's dormitories at more than a dozen colleges last spring.
