filed the perjury charges yesterday after Elwood Crowley, in a prurient move, repudiated affidavits he had made.

TOPEKA, Kan. (AP) — Republican National Chairman C. Wesley Roberts today defends his $11,000 fee for securing a building to the state of Kansas. He appears before a special state legislative committee charged with determining if Roberts broke state lobbying laws and if the building was owned by the state before it was purchased by his client.

GREENVILLE, S.C. (AP) — Funeral services will be held here today for Rep. Joseph E. Bryson, who died of a brain hemorrhage three days ago. He was 69 years old. Speaker Joseph W. Martin named 10 delegates from the House of Representatives to attend the services at the Earle Street Baptist Church here at 3 p.m. EST.

Flin Flon, Man. (AP) — Tom Dobson, owner and publisher of the Daily Reminder at The Pas, said today his paper did not carry a story on Stalin's death "because it wasn't worth it." Dobson said editor Dory Thacker felt "there was more important news."

LANGLEY AIR FORCE BASE, Va. (AP) — The Air Force reported three crewmen missing and "presumed dead" in the crash of an Air Force B-26 light bomber into a river after a takeoff here last night.

GENEVA, Switzerland (AP) — Ex-Queen Narriman of Egypt was secluded in a plush hotel suite here today to "think over" the next step in her broken marriage with exiled King Farouk. Dark-eyed Narriman, 19, quit Farouk's Rome villa yesterday and flew to Switzerland with her mother. Baby King Ahmed Fuad, Farouk's only male heir, was left behind.

CAMPECHE, Mexico (AP) — Fourteen American shrimp boats were en route to their home ports today after being held under guard for more than two weeks for poaching in Mexican territorial waters for which each was fined $1,700. A crewman of one of the shrimpers, the "Howdy Shaw" of Ft. Myers, Fla., was shot and killed by a Mexican soldier-guard during the detention, but U. S. and Mexican officials agreed the shooting was accidental.

COLUMBIA, S.C. (AP) — Gov. James F. Byrnes said today reports that John W. Davis had received an enormous fee for arguing a school segregation case before the U. S. Supreme Court were "absolutely untrue" and that Davis had handled the case free.

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP) — The Sporting News, baseball's "bible," said today in a copyrighted story that club owners in both major leagues will be asked Monday to approve transfer of the St. Louis Browns to Baltimore and the Boston Braves to Milwaukee.

DILLON, S.C. (AP) — The state today rested its case against two men charged with the pistol slaying of Darlington attorney J. U. Red Watts Jr., and defense attorneys said they expected to wind up their case late this afternoon. Defendants Lamar Herring, 32, Bennettsville service station operator, and Tom Rich, 37, Lumberton, N. C. used car dealer, were among eight defense witnesses scheduled to take the stand.

SOMEWHERE IN KOREA (AP) — Col. Royal N. Baker became the world's leading jet ace today with his off to the man whose record he beat. Major Davis got his 11 jets in a few days where it took me almost a year to do," Baker said today after knocking down his 12th Russian-built jet in what he called an "easy fight."

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla. (AP) — Investigators, alarmed by the fact that a famous hillbilly musician and the estranged wife of fake "alcohol therapist" H. R. Marshall both died after he prescribed for them, sought today to find out what happened to 50 or 60 other patients. Marshall, a paroled convict, prescribed chloral hydrate—"knockout drops"—for hillbilly singer and composer Hank Williams and Mrs. Marshall, 48. Williams died Dec. 31 in his automobile at Oak Hill, W. Va.

BANQUET CLIMAXES S. S. CONTEST AT SECOND BAPTIST CHURCH

As the climax to a Sunday School attendance contest, the losing team of the Golden Circle Class of the Second Baptist Church entertained the winning group at a delightful banquet last evening in the basement of the church.

This class is composed of young married couples and, for the past several months, has been having a contest between the red and blue teams. Mrs. Morris Knox is captain of the winning team, the reds, and Mrs. Robert Beasley captained the blues.

The Easter motif was carried out in all appointments with the tables arranged in the shape of a T and centered with Easter bunnies, nests filled with colored eggs and small bouquets of jonquills.

A delicious three course dinner of orange juice, fried chicken, creamed potatoes, cole slaw, garden peas, candied yams, hot biscuits, lime jello topped with whipped cream and coffee was served.

The Rev. E. C. Keller gave the invocation and guests were welcomed by the class president, Morris Knox.

Ed Williford, class teacher, had charge of the program of entertainment for the evening, which included several songs by the group and a solo "When I Wore A Tulip" by Bennie Slaughter.

Mrs. E. C. Keller delighted the

"I naturally am not in a position to discuss the case at this time," said Mr. Porter, "but the true facts will be disclosed in court and I assure all of my friends that I will be completely vindicated when the truth is known."

Mr. Porter declared that he is the victim of circumstances and pointed out that his side will not be heard until the case reaches court.

"I appreciate the many kind expressions of confidence voiced in me since the case was made public," said Mr. Porter, "and I assure you that when the truth is known I will be cleared of any blame."

James Bass Dies In Dunn Hospital

James William Bass of Dunn, aged 80, died at 8 p. m. this morning in the Dunn Hospital after an illness.

He had been an employee of the Dunn Hatchery for the past several years. He was a native of Sampson County.

Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at 3:00 at the Spring Branch Baptist Church and burial will be in the family cemetery near the church.

The body will be carried to the church for one hour prior to the service to lie in state.

Surviving are three sons, James F. Bass of Norfolk, Va., Clarence Lee Bass of Dunn and Luther Howard Bass of Hampton, Va. Two daughters, Mrs. Ida Mae Porter and Mrs. D. C. Stewart, both of Dunn, route 4, also one sister, Mrs. Henry Norris of route 4, Dunn and several grandchildren.

Woodmen Slate Special Meeting

A joint meeting of the Dunn and Erwin Camps of the Woodmen of the World will be held Monday night at 7:30 at the Dunn lodge hall. It was announced today by Gene Hood, Consul Commander of the Dunn Camp.

Erwin officers, headed by J. E. (Fats) Williams and Harvey Williams, Captain of the Drill Team, will put on the Protection Degree in a practice session for the competition for the state championship, now held by the Degree Team from Kannapolis.

Several new members are to be initiated, and the meeting will conclude with the showing of a film from the home office entitled "Fraternity in Action."

given the opportunity to direct the band during the concert. C. W. Surles, saxophone player, will conduct "Salutation March." Raymond West, trumpet player, will lead the band in Soja's "Washington Post," and Everett Turlington, also a trumpet player, will conduct "Them Bases" which features the heavy section of the band.

The Arion Award winners in both band and chorus will be presented their medals during the concert. The award for the outstanding band senior for this year will be presented by the Dunn Rotary Club and goes to Everett Turlington. The chorus award is sponsored by the Dunn Woman's Club and Miss Claudette Young will be the recipient this year. The winners were chosen by their respective organizations earlier this year.

Everyone is extended a cordial invitation to attend the annual joint concert. The program is designed to appeal to the musical tastes of all, so come out for an evening of relaxation and enjoyment. There will be no charge for admission.

Crew said the state highway patrol already has authority to order a motorist to fix items that might endanger safety. He suggested that the license fee might be raised $1 a year and the additional $1,300,000 used to hire more patrolmen.

The Senate action in killing the inspection bill was the first setback for any item of Gov. William B. Umstead's legislative program. Umstead had called for a "workable" motor vehicles inspection law as a feature of his highway program.

WINS ROUND

But Umstead won a round on another measure in the Senate.

The upper chamber put off action on a bill to "redistrict and increase the number of superior court judicial districts. The House has already passed a bill which adds a regular resident judge to each of six districts but does not redistrict the present districts.

A senate committee will consider the House-approved measure next week.

The House bill has the blessing of the governor. Umstead has said he does not want the judicial redistricting bill passed.

In the House, Rep. Thomas W. Allen of Garville County introduced a measure today to regulate the sale and distribution of eggs by requiring all wholesalers to obtain a certificate from the commissioner of agriculture.

The Allen bill would make unlawful, improper, incorrect or misleading labelling of eggs as to weight, size and grade. The Board of Agriculture would set standards of quality to "promote the highest and fair dealings in the interest of the poultry industry and consumer" and state inspectors would make periodic checks.

A measure offered by Rep. Addison Hewlett of New Hanover would allow the board of commissioners of any county with a population of at least 60,000 or of a city with a population of at least 45,000 to enter into contracts providing for hospitalization and medical care of indigent, sick or afflicted poor.

Legislators yesterday travelled to the Marine base at Camp Lejeune. But rain forced cancellation of a planned demonstration, helicopter assault landing and evacuation of wounded. Instead the Marines took lawmakers, their wives and guests to the post theater where they saw a Bob Hope Movie "Off Limits."

Afterward the group of about 200 was entertained at a tea in the officers club.
