

Miss Strickland Becomes Bride Of Mr. Robbins

Miss Gladys Strickland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Strickland of Asheville, was married to Howard C. Robbins, Saturday March 21. The morning ceremony took place at the Cullowhee Methodist Church in Cullowhee. Mr. Robbins is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Robbins of Asheville.

The Rev. James A. Allen conducted the double ring ceremony. Wedding music was presented by Miss Chris Gates, soloist, and Pat Montague, organist.

Miss Beverly Fowler and Miss Muriel Ashe attended Miss Strickland as bridesmaids. They wore ballerina-length dresses of pink and blue organza and carried bouquets of white carnations tied with matching ribbons.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Henry Strickland Jr. For the ceremony, she wore a white ballerina-length gown of Chantilly lace over nylon net. Her fingertip veil of illusion was attached to a coronet of lace trimmed with a coronet of lace trimmed with a white Bible topped with a white orchid.

Homer Wike was best man for his cousin, and the ushers were Clarence and James Wike.

Mrs. Strickland wore a navy suit with matching accessories and a corsage of lavender orchids. The bridegroom's mother wore a black dress with black accessories, and also wore a corsage of orchids.

The bride is a graduate of East Carolina College in Greenville, and is now librarian at the Cullowhee High School. Mr. Robbins is a student at Western Carolina Teachers College. The couple will make their home in Cullowhee.

Miss Lucille Aycock of Burlington and Miss Lela Aycock of Wilson will arrive tonight to spend the Easter holidays at their home here.
