HOLLYWOOD — (P) — Shapely singer Martha Tilton was back in town today with a new husband and a broken leg. Miss Tilton, who was married Sunday in Las Vegas, Nev., to test pilot Jim Brooks, arrived with her right foot and leg encased to the knee in plaster.

SANTIAGO, Chile — (P) — The "rippling" earthquake which rocked central Chile Wednesday killed 10 persons and injured 22, official figures showed today. The 40-second quake, centered in the Concepcion-Chillan area, rocked the earth so violently that many persons not otherwise injured became "seasick."

NEW YORK — (P) — The Crowell Collier Publishing Co. announced today that Collier's magazine will be published semi-monthly beginning with the Aug. 7 issue. Clarence E. Stouch, president of the company, said the 65-year-old weekly would be increased from 72 pages to 112 pages with the inception of the new publishing schedule. The newsstand price will remain 15 cents.

MYRTLE BEACH, S. C. — (P) — The Aerovox Corp. today planned a $400,000 expansion program which would increase employment at the electronic condenser manufacturing plant by 50 per cent. Vice president Charles E. Kramp yesterday announced that the 50,000 square foot expansion would create 500 additional jobs at the concern which now employs 1,000.

BENNETTSVILLE, S. C. — (P) — A youthful fugitive, whose bid for freedom ended in a farmhouse near here, today awaited the arrival of authorities who will return him to the Stanly County, N. C., prison camp. Kenneth Rogers, 19, of Hendersonville, N. C., was captured by two state highway patrolmen at the home of David Farrish late yesterday afternoon after an intensive search.

LOS ANGELES, Calif. — (P) — Sen. Wayne Morse, the Oregon Independent, says the early months of the Eisenhower administration "have more than amply justified my resignation from the Republican Party." The 51-year-old lawmaker, here to speak for the United Jewish Welfare Fund, told newsmen yesterday that "facts" of the new administration have "more than borne out the warnings I voiced earlier."

BRISTOL, Pa. — (P) — The Bucks County coroner examined today how a body found floating in the Delaware River was identified as that of Eugene Medlin, who escaped from a North Carolina road gang in 1948. Dr. William L. Goldfarb offered the identification. Medlin was scheduled to be buried in Kannapolis today.

HARWICK, England — (P) — Three of the five persons killed in Wednesday's tragic sea collision off this east-coast port were American women on a round-the-world trip, it was announced today. STATE NEWS BRIEFS

WINSTON-SALEM — (P) — Company and union negotiators resumed talks today on a new contract between the CIO Communications Workers of America and Western Electric Co. to cover 5,200 electronics workers in three North Carolina plants.
Union representative John Walker said the agreement between the CIO-CWA and Western Electric covering 6,500 warehouse and repair workers reached last night in New York does not affect the North Carolina negotiations.

ASHEVILLE — (P) — A duPont executive told industrial leaders here last night that the Republican administration may be management's last chance to demonstrate that free enterprise "can provide better living for more people than any other system the world has devised."
Henry E. Ford, director of duPont's development department addressed the Southeastern conference of the Society for Management. He told the delegates that pre-election fears that business would take over the government "have turned out to be wholly unjustified."

WINSTON-SALEM — (P) — Vice Adm. Joseph J. Fisher, former chief of the U. S. Navy in Korea and now head of the Naval Academy at Annapolis, will arrive here next Thursday for a three-day stay.
Joy will speak at the Armed Forces Day banquet May 15 here. He and his wife will be guests in the home of Rep. and Mrs. Thurmond Chatham.

RALEIGH — (P) — Motor Vehicles Commissioner L. R. Fisher has tendered his resignation "at the pleasure of the governor," and Capitol observers speculated today that his successor would be L. C. Rosser, the man Fisher replaced last June.
Rosser was fired by former Gov. Kerr Scott after the second primary when he supported Gov. William B. Umstead rather than Scott's choice, Judge Hubert E. Olive. He is now field representative for the American Association of Motor Vehicles Administrators in Washington.

ROCKINGHAM — (P) — Army doctors said today that all Cpl. William W. Smith needs now is "good food and proper rest." He's in the right place to get it.
The Rockingham soldier, who spent almost two and a half years in a Communist prisoner of war camp in Korea, came home to his family yesterday and a joyful but tear-stained welcome. When he left home long ago he weighed a husky 180 pounds but was down to 135 when he got back.

Codringtons Give Garden Party At Their Home

One of the highlights of the Season was an outdoor party given by Dr. and Mrs. C. B. Codrington of Dunn on Friday evening, May 1st. Dr. and Mrs. Codrington were host and hostess to the faculty of the Harnett County Training School and a number of friends to an outdoor party in their lovely garden, which was beautifully lighted with colored bulbs, thus giving a gala appearance to the affair. Roses, petunias, lilies and many other spring flowers with the background of shrubbery lent quite an enchanting scene for the occasion. Tables were arranged for games.
The guests were greeted at the garden gate by Dr. and Mrs. Codrington who gave a warm and friendly welcome to all. Games were enjoyed by all who wished to play, while others engaged in friendly conversation. A delicious menu, consisting of barbecued pork and chicken, cole slaw, potato chips, pickles, olives, corn bread, rolls, cookies, hot coffee, soda pops, candies and salted nuts was served.
A spirit of informality prevailed throughout the evening. More than 50 guests were present.
Among the out-of-town guests were Master Sgt. and Mrs. W. C. Collins of March Air Force Base, California and Staff Sgt. and Mrs. C. V. Brown of Fort Benning, Ga. Everyone enjoyed a wonderful evening and did not realize as the hours passed. Each guest departed with words of thanks to the host and hostess for a most enjoyable time.

Greenville's TV To Go On Air Soon

WILSON — Eastern North Carolina's first VHF television station, WNCN-TV, is scheduled to begin telecasting in early September, station officials announced today.
A Hartwell Campbell, secretary and manager of the station being built at Greenville, told a directors meeting here last night that a contract has been signed with Columbia Broadcasting System making the station a primary outlet in the CBS network.
Soundings are being taken for the station's 575-foot transmitting tower which will be placed in July or August. The station will begin transmitting test patterns sometime in August.
Earl McD. Westbrock of Dunn is president of this station.
