Laurinburg Death Case Nearing Jury

Laurinburg (AP) Judge William H. Hatch denied a defense motion for non-suit of a first degree murder charge against Harry Howell today and attorneys for the prosecution and defense began their final arguments to the jury. A prosecution witness was the state to testify that Howell shot the victim, a Christmas night dapper in a Laurinburg-Maxton air base. Saunders of Red Springs told the court that five men jumped on Graham as he left the dance. Howell was getting to his feet after being knocked down a second time when "I saw Howell pull the shot and he was about 10 feet away with the gun in his right hand."

Here's Success Tale of Dress Designer

NEW YORK (AP) — A lot of little girls think they'd like to grow up to be dress designers. Gertrud Suttles, who shows and designs, says she's had a lot of fun making dresses for the French women who live in the town. The German girl, who has lovely material, says she's had a wonderful time making things for the women. She says she's had a lot of fun making things for the women. THERE'S SOMETHING ABOUT A BAND — Even playing in a rhythm band is an exciting musical experience. For students of the first three grades at LaFayette School the rhythm band developed many musical skills. Expense was small. Band played for the P. T. A. on the night of May 4 in the school auditorium. Miss Arnette Bryan, first grade teacher, is the director and accompanist is Mrs. Ralph Johnson. (Photo by T. M. Stewart).

Coronation Program Has Rigid Schedule

LONDON (AP) — A 101-2 hour time table for Queen Elizabeth's coronation June 2 has been worked out on a minute-by-minute basis. It shows that the guests who will view the ceremony in Westminster Abbey must be in their seats a minimum of 2 1-2 hours before the queen arrives. The ceremony itself will last 2 3-4 hours. From 6 a. m. when the abbey is opened until 4:30 p. m. only one time has been left approximately that of the arrival of the queen at Buckingham Palace after her state procession through the streets of London, following the coronation. Officials figured that the crowd of cheering millions of Britons, and of visitors from all over the world, might slow the parade.

Under the law, the city council cannot legally hold executive sessions. The new officials also made it clear today that they are opposed to secret and private sessions held in advance to regular council meetings. Sometimes, governing boards meet privately in advance to decide what they're going to do at a council meeting. Commissioner Bryan declared today: "If anybody who has business with the city board doesn't want the public to hear it they'd better not come around because I won't be present when any secret sessions are held."

This far Suttles is the only nominee for the post, but nominations can be made from the convention floor. However, Suttles is reported to have the backing of most of the eastern North Carolina clubs. Those who have planned to attend from Dunn include: Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Biggs, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lowe, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Peay, Mr. and Mrs. Mack Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. Woody Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Suttles and Worth Vanoy. Biggs is president and Lowe is president-elect of the Dunn Club.

Television Fair Set For Raleigh

RALEIGH, N. C. — The biggest television event in North Carolina history will be presented here May 21-23 when the first Raleigh-Durham TV Fair is scheduled in the William Neal Reynolds Coliseum at North Carolina State College. Arrangements have been made to entertain 50,000 persons during the three-day event. There will be 40 booths where exhibitors will show the latest in television sets, antennas and converters. The exposition will precede the opening of WNAO's TV station, which will begin telecasting May 28. It will be the first UHF station in North Carolina. Continuous entertainment has been planned throughout the TV Fair. The hours that the fair will open include Thursday, May 21, from 7 to 11 p. m.; Friday, May 22, from 9 to 11 p. m.; and Saturday, May 23 from 2 to 1 p. m. A 20-minute show each hour will be shown through a closed television circuit in the Coliseum. Among the television, radio and stage stars who will perform in person for these shows will be Homer and Jethro, famed stars of the Breakfast Club, National Barn Dance, and Victor Records; Lanny Ross, singing star of the movies, the Mutual Broadcasting System; and records; Hal LeRoy, famous Hollywood dancing artist; the Dining Sisters, Capitol recording, radio and television performers; and Mrs. Hank Williams, wife of the late hillbilly star. In addition, local entertainment talent will be on hand to give

Shirley's Daughter Meets The President

WASHINGTON (AP) — Linda Susan, five-year-old daughter of Shirley Temple, upped to President Eisenhower today and demanded to know if he had eaten his breakfast. "Yes," she later quoted the chief executive as replying, "I did have my breakfast, a business breakfast." That answer apparently satisfied the daughter of the former child star of the movies; at any rate she didn't ask any more questions on that score. Miss Temple and her husband, Lt. Cmdr. Charles A. Black, called with Linda Susan on the President because the little girl had been "dy-
