Ike May Seek Extension Of Profits Tax

By UNITED PRESS

House and Senate leaders predicted today that Presi-dent Eisenhower will ask Congress next Tuesday to extend the excess profits tax for six months.

The lawmakers iay it would be the lawmakers lay it would be bad politics to give big business a tax break before individual income taxpayers. The excess profits tax is due to expire June 30. A six months extension would have it die on Jan. 1 when individual intaxes are due to be cut 10 pe cent. Although there was widespread belief Mr. Eisenhower would ask for the excess profits tax extension. GOP leaders insist the President has not disclosed his plan to them. "One Senate leader predicted Mr. Eisenhower will "accent the pos-litive" by emphasizing the savings tresulting from hudget outs and the sulting from budget cuts and the aspects for lower taxes in 1954. In the bankers association, Spears at present, is vice-chairman of Group Four, an area which includes 11 Counties, Harnet, Wake, Johnston, Catham, Orange, Dur-nam, Person, Granville, Vance, Warren and Franklin Counties. Last year he served the same position which probably calls for more voluntary time than any of the group offices.
