Methodist Circle Meets At Home Of Mrs. Cora Parker

Mrs. J. L. Ward, circle chairman, presided at the Monday afternoon meeting of Methodist Church Circle No. 1. Hostesses for the group were Mrs. Cora Parker and Mrs. Fred Baggett.

Mixed summer flowers were used in the Parker home with roses predominating.

A most appropriate devotional thought was offered by Mrs. J. W. Wilson.

During the business meeting a number of items were discussed by the members, with Mrs. Ward presiding.

The hostesses served party sandwiches, salted nuts, cookies and punch to the following members present: Mrs. P. A. Lee, Mrs. Ward, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Mamie Ford, Mrs. Cornelia Tart, Mrs. A. P. Adock, and Mrs. H. C. Turlington.

Mrs. Ralph Wade and Mrs. Charles Roach were guests at the meeting.

MANTHO, N. C. — The fish really were biting in North Carolina.

S. Whitley caught a one pound fish and was displaying it to friends. When he brought the fish close to his face, it nipped Whitley's lip.

Mrs. Allred And Mrs. Vannoy Fete Fifth Graders

Mrs. Leonard Allred and Mrs. Worth Vannoy entertained at a winter roast on Tuesday at the Dunn Recreation Park for their sons, Charles Allred and Jimmy Vannoy. Guests for the outdoor affair were students in Mrs. Horace Ryal's fifth grade, who are classmates of the honorees.

The children enjoyed roasting wieners which were served with all the trimmings and cold drinks. Afterwards they enjoyed the facilities for play in the park.

Around fifty attended the gala affair. Special guests were Mrs. Ryal, teacher, Mrs. Katherine Sercy, sister-in-law of Mrs. Allred, and her daughter, Celia Sercy.

Presbyterian Women Have Birthday Meeting

The annual Birthday Meeting of the Women of the First Presbyterian Church was held on Monday evening at 8:00 in the church parlors.

The Birthday objectives this year are the four Furlough Homes for Returned Missionaries. Mrs. J. W. Jurdie Jr. was in charge of the program. After singing the hymn "I Love To Tell The Story," Mrs. Myres Tilghman read the scriptures and gave the meditation.

Miss Flora McQueen, a former missionary to Korea, gave an interesting talk on the Furlough Homes and their needs. Mrs. R. R. Gammon described one of the homes, "Mission Court," in Richmond where she and Mr. Gammon lived one summer. A Birthday offering was received.

As the benediction, Mrs. Gammon sang "Bless This House," accompanied by Mrs. E. W. Smith, Jr.

A social hour followed in the Fellowship Hall. Mrs. C. M. Watson, assisted by Mrs. Purdie, served lime punch, cookies and toasted nuts from a decorated table.
