Protest Heard Over Increase In Tapping Fee

By LOUIS DEARBORN Record Staff Writer Water, with particular reference to the new schedule of rates for taps made outside the city limits, proved the main item of business at the meeting last night of the Dunn City Council.

Scheduled to start at 7:30, the meeting did not get underway until an hour later. Meanwhile, Mayor Ralph Hanna, and commissioners Bill Bryan and J. Leon Godwin, waited, unable to proceed until the other two members of the board arrived.

TWO STRAGGLERS Commissioner B. A. Bracey finally showed up at 8:25 and Commissioner J. V. Bass at 8:27. Water and sewage hit the board in the first item considered, the request by A. B. Smith to bring a portion of the Fleishman property into the city.

Smith and Godwin appeared before the board and said they were willing to comply with the policy set up by the old board, of installing water and sewer facilities and streets, but that they felt they should only have to furnish the material and that the town should pay for the labor involved.

POLICY CALLED "UNFAIR" The policy set up under an ordinance requiring the property owner to bear all the cost unless he is willing to cooperate with the town development, but we feel that this co-operation should be a two-way proposition.

The policy was set up after the town lost a sizeable chunk of money on another development and was designed to protect the town against a similar loss.

MATTER TABLED The proposal was tabled and City Manager A. E. Umble Jr. was instructed to get together with Godwin and ascertain the approximate cost of the labor required in supplying facilities to the development.

Two rate residents of the section between Dunn and Erwin appeared to protest the new out-of-town water rates. One of these, Wilby West, accused the town of supplying water to Erwin at no cost in return for a 98 year lease.

Meeting Slated For Tonight May Bring Peace

By LEROY HANSEN (AP) Staff Correspondent SEOUL, Korea, Saturday — (P) — United Nations and Communist delegates meet at Panmunjom today in a truce session that may mean the bloody three-year Korean war is coming to its end.

Reports here, in Tokyo, in Washington and in United Nations headquarters in New York are that the two delegations are within a hair's breadth of agreement on the main outstanding issue.

That issue is the disposition of those Chinese Communist and North Korean prisoners, held by the U. N. Command, who refuse to go home to Red-ruled territory.

There is only the reservation that hopes for peace have been high before and that the Communists, at the last hour, have thrown new complications into negotiations.

Their aged President Syngman Rhee asserted bitterly that agreement with the Communists on the present terms would be tantamount to a death warrant.

Gen. Mark W. Clark, U. N. supreme commander, and United States Ambassador Ellis O. Briggs conferred with Rhee for an hour yesterday, pleading with him to go.
