

MRS. SHELDON RICHARD HALL

Miss Shirley Ezzell Of Dunn Is Married To Mr. Hall In Formal Ceremony Sunday

Miss Lillian Shirley Ezzell was attended by her sisters, as maid and matron of honor when she became the bride of Sheldon Richard Hall Sunday at five o'clock in the Divine Street Methodist Church of Dunn. The Rev. J. W. Lineberger, pastor of the church, officiated at the double ring ritual.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Lynn Craven Ezzell and the late Mr. Ezzell of Dunn, and Mr. Hall is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Price Hall of Follansbee, West Virginia.

Mrs. J. Shepard Bryan of Dunn, organist, Mrs. Lloyd Coats Jr., soloist, and Mrs. Kenneth Taylor of Newport News, Va., soloists, presented a program of wedding music. Mrs. Coats sang "Through The Years," Mr. Taylor sang "Because," and as a duet, they presented "Wanting You." "The Wild Rose" was played softly during the ceremony.

During the ritual, the couple knelt on a satin pillow which had been used at the wedding of the bride's parents. Vows were spoken before a background of palms, tall baskets of regal lilies, and floor candelabra holding cathedral tapers.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. R. L. Cromartie Jr., the bride wore a gown of blush white nylon and lace over satin, styled with an off-shoulder effect and a period bodice of lace. Long shirred sleeves ended in pleats over the hands and the tiered skirt of lace fell into a semi-train. Her finger-tip veil of silk illusion fell from a matching lace and pearl tiara. She carried a bridal bouquet of showered roses and fairy breath, centered with a white orchid.

Miss Peggy Lynn Ezzell, sister of the bride, of Dunn was maid of honor, and the matron of honor was Mrs. James A. Chase of New York City, the bride's sister. They wore floor-length gowns of pink, nylon net, fashioned with strapless bodices, tiered skirts, and matching stoles. They wore matching bandeau and carried arm bouquets of pastel mural daisies.

Serving as bridesmaids were Miss Meredith Cromartie of Dunn, cousin of the bride, Mrs. Henry Burnett of Follansbee, W. Va., sister of the bride, Miss Florence Howard of Dunn and Mrs. Kenneth Taylor of Newport News, Va. Their dresses, headresses and bouquets were like those of the honor attendants.

The bride's mother wore a gown of rose champagne. Chantilly lace and silk organza. With this she wore a matching coronet, long white kid gloves and a purple-throated orchid. Mrs. Hall, mother of the bridegroom, chose a Nile green nylon lace and crepe gown with matching headress and gloves. She also wore a white purple-throated orchid.

Honorary attendants, all wearing pastel gowns, were Miss Nadia Daughtridge of Raleigh, cousin of the bride, Mrs. Anthony Cavalle of Morgantown, W. Va., brother-in-law of the groom, James Chase of New York City, brother-in-law of the bride, Anthony Cavalle of Morgantown, W. Va., Robert Daughtridge of Rocky Mount, cousin of the bride, Billy Pearsall of Dunn, cousin of the bride, and Jerry Pope of Dunn. Serving as ushers were Joseph Harper of Raleigh, cousin of the bride, Lloyd Coats Jr., and Mr. Pope Jr., both of Dunn.

Mrs. Hall graduated from the Dunn high school and last week from the Duke University School of Nursing in Durham.

Following the wedding, Mrs. Ezzell entertained at a reception at her home.

When the couple left for a wedding trip to points west, the bride was wearing a navy blue crepe dress with matching stole, white accessories and the orchid taken from her bouquet. After their wedding trip, the couple will live in Fort Worth, Texas.

Lee-Hackett Vows Spoken Saturday At Baptist Parsonage

The wedding of Miss Mary Edith Hackett of Dunn to Mr. John David Lee of Dunn, Route 3, took place on Saturday morning at nine o'clock in the Parsonage of the First Baptist Church. The Rev. Ernest P. Russell officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Hackett of Dunn. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Lee, also of Dunn.

White decorations were used for the wedding. On the mantel was an arrangement of white daisy mums and white gladioli with fern. White candles were also used.

Mrs. C. C. Upchurch, pianist, presented several numbers and Mrs. David Adams, soprano, sang "O Promise Me".

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white summer suit with white accessories. She carried a white bird-caged cake and a white orchid and showered with Stephanotis. She was attended by Miss Mary Elizabeth Lee, sister of the groom. Miss Lee wore a pastel blue dress and a shoulder corsage of pink rose buds.

The groom's father was best man. Those attending the wedding were members of the family and special friends.

Immediately following the ceremony Mrs. David Adams entertained at a reception at her home.

Guests were greeted informally by the receiving line and invited into the dining room.

On the buffet in the dining room was an artistic white arrangement. The table was covered with a white cloth and held at one end the lovely two-tiered wedding cake and at the other the punch bowl.

Mrs. Ernest Russell served cake and Mrs. Adams poured punch. Others assisting in serving nuts and mints were Miss Betty Jean Barefoot, Miss Faye Monds, Philip and Kathy Adams.

Around thirty guests attended the reception.
