Tommy Denny Has Fourth Birthday Party On Tuesday

Twenty-two little folks gathered on the lawn at 5:30 at 505 South General Lee Avenue to celebrate Tommy Denny's fourth birthday on Tuesday afternoon.

After swinging and playing ball, the children were served an iced fruit drink. Many other games were enjoyed after which party plates of birthday cake, ice cream and candy fruit drops were served.

Each child was given a toy car and a balloon as a favor from Tommy.

Tommy received many lovely gifts from his guests. Those helping him to celebrate were Alice Butt, Nell Raynor, Billy Weddle, Chuck Thomas, Kay Godwin, Mary Ann Russell, Mick Mixon, Bubba Weddle, Chuck Thomas, Kay Godwin, Mary Ann Russell, Mick Mixon, Johnny Parker, Beth Wellons, Ben Justesen, John Randall and James Richard Strickland, Dennis Strickland, Dennis S.

CURRIN-SANDERS VOWS ARE SAID IN CEREMONY SATURDAY

Miss Eloise Sanders and Ernest L. Currin Jr. were married Saturday afternoon at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church in Lemon Springs with the Rev. T. E. Nelson officiating. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Fletcher Sanders of Lemon Springs and Mr. Currin is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest L. Currin of Olivia. The bride has been a member of the faculty of Benhaven School in Olivia.

Wedding music was presented by Miss Betty Lou Currin of Olivia, sister of the bridegroom, and Irvin Currin of Olivia, brother of the bridegroom, soloists, and Alton Harrington, pianist.

As her sister's matron of honor, Mrs. Braxton Bunn of Spring Hope wore a ballerina-length gown of pink organza and taffeta made with a protrud neckline, bouffant skirt, and matching sash. She carried a nosegay of pink roses and carried a bouquet of white roses and carnations with purple orchids. Mr. Currin was best man for his son, and the ushers were Francis Currin of Sanford, brother of the bridegroom, Braxton Bunn of Spring Hope, brother-in-law of the bride, Alton Harrington and Andrew Harrington, both of Olivia. The mother of the bride wore a dress of blue linen with seed pearl applique, black accessories and an orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother chose an aqua nylon lace dress with white accessories and an orchid corsage.

Following the ceremony, the parents of the bride entertained at a reception at their home. For a wedding trip to western North Carolina, the bride wore a pink shantung dress with matching jacket, white accessories, and an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Currin is a graduate of East Carolina College. Mr. Currin, a graduate of the law school of the University of North Carolina, is now employed with an insurance company in Richmond, Va. where the couple will make their home.

Junior bridesmaids were Miss Joan Currin of Sanford, niece of the bridegroom, and Miss Janice Brantley of Lemon Springs. The flower girls were Miss Joan Godfrey of Sanford, cousin of the bride, and Frankie Layton of Lemon Springs. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of pink and white organza made with a scalloped neckline, bouffant skirt, and matching sash. She wore a two-tiered veil of pink nylon illusion with a beaded coronet. Her colonial
