

BULLETINS

ATLANTA, (P) — Police today hunted a "sex fiend" who battered and slashed Betty Bagley, a 22-year-old crippled girl to death only a few days before she was to be operated on to correct her deformed feet.

WASHINGTON, (P) — Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy said today he has subpoenaed three more witnesses to testify before his Permanent Investigating Subcommittee about an alleged Communist plot to kill him.

WASHINGTON, (P) — Government personnel experts said today thousands of high-salaried federal workers will lose Civil Service job protection under a forthcoming order of President Eisenhower. The order is the latest step in the new administration's effort to "clean house" by ousting Democrats from key jobs.

EDINBURGH, Scotland, (P) — Queen Elizabeth II arrived today, for the first royal visit of its kind in 131 years, to find her northern capital decorated with flags and flowers for her "little coronation" Wednesday.

WASHINGTON, (P) — Some senators were critical today of a House bill to ease the income tax burden of congressmen.

They said lawmakers would theoretically be able to get away with paying no taxes at all by writing off their whole salaries — and even outside income — as business expenses.

PARIS, (P) — The Duke of Windsor observed his 59th birthday here today with the woman he left the British throne to marry. A secretary said the Duke and Duchess were spending most of the day quietly at their Paris home where they had received "a great number" of cables, letters and phone calls from friends and well-wishers.

WASHINGTON, (P) — Two Gulf state senators promised a floor fight today to make the continental shelf oil bill more favorable to the states. Sens. Russell B. Long (D-La.) and Price Daniel (D-Tex.) said they would push for amendments to permit adjoining coastal states to receive tax revenue from oil and gas production from the ocean-bottom lands of the federally - controlled continental shelf.

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (P) — The 44th annual convention of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People opened here today.

About 800 delegates from 45 states were expected to attend the convention. The theme was "the task ahead."

COLUMBIA, S. C. (P) — A widespread manhunt for a cop killer was underway in Richland County today, but Sheriff Strother S. Slight's office said it has made "no progress" since the bullet-pierced body of deputy Allen F. Bennett was found yesterday.

RIO DE JANEIRO, (P) — The Brazilian safety council has announced that all drivers in Rio will be subject to physical and mental tests beginning next month. "The time has come to do more than just check motorists' eyesight," a spokesman explained. "We must determine their mental attitude toward driving and their reactions."

MERCED, Calif. (P) — A southbound Santa Fe passenger-mail train collided with a northbound freight at a siding 10 miles east of here today and two persons were reported killed. One of the dead was identified as K. A. Roberts, of Richmond, Calif., engineers of the passenger train. The other was a Mexican "wetback."

BOSTON, (P) — Arthur Godfrey now ties his own shoes for the first time in 20 years. Massachusetts General Hospital said the radio and television star, recovering from a hip operation, is walking with crutches and riding a stationary bicycle.

MOSCOW, (P) — Foreign correspondents and diplomats were permitted to travel in many formerly-banned areas of Russia today in a large - scale lifting of restrictions by the Soviet government. The new travel regulations were disclosed last night in a note sent to the American embassy and all foreign envoys in Russia.

COPENHAGEN, Denmark (P) — Plans to establish North Atlantic Treaty Organization air bases in Denmark were torpedoed today by the Social Democratic party. Hans Hedtoft, party chairman, announced his group will oppose an Allied request to station Air Force personnel in this country, at the highly strategic entrance to the Baltic Sea.

WASHINGTON, (P) — President Eisenhower will not hold a news conference this week, press secretary James C. Hagerty announced today.

WIMBLEDON, England, (P) — Maureen Little Mo Connolly, 18-year-old queen of women's tennis, opened her bid for a second straight Wimbledon title today with a 6-0, 6-0 victory over Dora Kilian of South Africa.

NEW DELHI, India (P) — Fifteen persons were injured and 20 were arrested today during demonstrations which followed the sudden death of Dr. Shyamprasad Moolherji, leader of the extremist Hindu organization Jana Sangha.

HONOLULU, (P) — A four - day mass protest strike by 24,000 members of the International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union was ended today. The workers, including longshoremen and members of the allied sugar and pineapple industries, began drifting cak to their jobs late yesterday.

MARSEILLES, France (P) — Gen. Wilhelm Bittrich, last of the commanding generals of Hitler's armies to stand trial on war crimes charges in France, was sentenced today to five years in prison. He was promptly freed, since his stay in prison while awaiting trial exceeded the term of his sentence.

WASHINGTON, (P) — The House Judiciary Committee today refused to subpoena Supreme Court Justice Tom C. Clark to testify before its investigating subcommittee. Chairman Chalmers W. Reed (R-Ind.) said he was not at liberty to reveal the vote. It was reported that the subpoena was rejected by 22 to 5.

WHEELING, W. Va. (P) — A Brinks Express messenger walked into the suburban Bank of Warwood today as a holdup was in progress and himself became the victim. A gunman snatched a bag containing $599 in cash and $9,147 in checks from the messenger, R. H. Tempelman, and

City Council

RALEIGH (P) — The State Utilities Commission today ordered a halt in a general 10 to 25 per cent rate increase on express and newspaper shipments scheduled to go into effect on most North Carolina bus lines July 1.

LENOIR (P) — Caldwell County's list of polio victims stood at 36 today following removal of three more children stricken with the disease to an Asheville hospital. Dr. William Happer, county health officer, identified the latest victims as William Scott Harrison, 6, Ray Davis, 17 months, and Shirlee Crump, 4.

SALISBURY (P) — George A. Kirkland, 48, athletic director at Catawba College, died at his home here today of a heart condition. Kirkland was head coach at the North State Conference school from 1934 to 1949. During the period his football teams won eight conference titles, two basketball championships and four baseball championships.

TIFFIN (P) — Delegates to the general synod of the Evangelical and Reformed Church today resumed debate on a controversial "area plan" of reorganization. Opponents of the proposal claimed the reorganization would cause various church districts to lose their autonomy.

CLUB PLANS
The afternoon in which both women and men golfers will participate in are: A nine hole handicap round, a putting contest on the putting green, lowest number of putts during the nine hole round, a hole-in-one contest from actual play, and a hole-in-one contest from out front of the number nine green in view of all spectators. Other contests may be added to the events. Golfers from Erwin, Dunn, Linden, Lillington, and Bule's Creek are expected to take part in the contests. Present officers and directors of the club are: Guyton Smith, president; Earl Westbrook, first vice president; Willard Mixon, second vice president; Earl Jones, secretary-treasurer; Dr. C. W. Byrd, E. W. Smith, and J. W. Furdie, directors. Seven new directors will be elected July 1st for the coming year, and from the directors officers will be elected. The total membership of the club is now near the two hundred mark.

PROMISED OR LEFT IMPRESSION
It was reported that at that meeting Mayor Hanna promised—or left the positive impression—that he would oppose the project. Instead, he broke the tie to add the extra burden on the taxpayers. Commissioner Bass pointed out that without Mayor Hanna's action the board might possibly have been able to cut taxes. Commissioner Bryan also pointed out that the money Mayor Hanna and the other two commissioners want to "donate to private property" could have been used for recreational purposes.

Commissioner Godwin said today that Mayor Hanna told him he planned to call a special meeting of the board in the next day or two and that the public and press would be invited.

MAY TRY EXPLAINING
Mayor Hanna has indicated that he will attempt to explain and justify his position at this meeting. Early this afternoon, the press had not been notified when the meeting will take place. "If they don't notify you," said Commissioner Godwin, "I'll do it myself as soon as they call me."
