First Meeting Is Held By Truce Group

By LEROY HANSEN (AP Staff Correspondent) PANMUNJOM, Korea, Tuesday (AP) — The Communists agreed today to start the exchange of war prisoners, including 3,313 Americans, on Aug. 5.

They will exchange more than 12,000 Allied captives for 74,000 Chinese and North Korean prisoners who want to return to Communism in "Operation Big Switch."

The announcement came after the military armistice commission ended its first meeting here. American army teams flocked to the nearby Allied base at Munsan to prepare for the prisoner exchange.

They assembled at "Freedom Village," where sick and wounded prisoners were exchanged in "Little Switch" last April. BUILDING ROADS — Construction gangs also went to work building up the roads over which Communist vehicles must travel to reach the prisoner exchange point.

Most famous of the American prisoners is Major Gen. William F. Dean, who was captured by the Communists on July 22, 1950 while drawing from Tejon.

S. C. Weed Mart Opens Thursday

LAKE CITY, S. C. (AP) — The first leaves of an estimated 170,000,000 pound 1953 South Carolina tobacco crop go on sale Thursday at the opening of the state's 11 flue-cured tobacco markets.

Tobacco prices were expected to be somewhat higher than last year due to smaller acreage and shorter supply. The South Carolina Warehouse Association voted to allow five and a half hours of sales each day.
