nounced today. The report covered all casuai-ties whose next of kin were noti-fied through last Friday and show-ed an increase of 1,159 over last week's report. The increase was comparable to those of the previous two weeks and reflected the heavy fighting in the closing phase of the war. The official casuality toll is due to rise still higher although the fighting has ceased. This results from the time lag caused by the necessity of cross-checking casual-ties before official notification is made. The new total includes 25.434 The new total includes 25,434

Soviets Slash Their Defense

Budget For The Coming Year

WASHINGTON (P) - Se nate Republican leader William F. Knowland said today GOP legislative leaders "might" meet here in late September to decide whether the state of federal finances warrants a special session of Congress.

The California senator made the statement after a White House breakfast with President Elsen-hower. It was Knowland's first visit with Mr. Elsenhower sine? his formal selection as Senate GOP Republican leader yesterday. Knowland said it would be about Sept. 25 before Treasury Secretary George M. death of Sen. Robert A. Taft may split bongressional Republicans in-to quarrelling factions. At the same time, he soknow-ledged his party owes a great debt to Taft. He said the late Ohio Senator "did a job that no other man could have stone in bringing this period" since the GOP took control of Congress and the ad-ministration last January. Minovland, 45-year-old Californ-nian with eight years of service in the Senate, was unanimously elec-ted Tueatay to success Taft as Senate GOP floor leader. The Republican caucus jetcled Sen Homer Ferguson, 64, of Mich-igan, to succeed Knowland as chairman of the Party Policy Com-mittee. Ferguson has been a Sen-ator for more than 10 years. Both men were elected without contest. Benson announced the new rules yesterday. Benson had wanted to elimin-ate federal payments for all but permanent conservation projects, such as well-drilling or establish-ing pastures. Oongress, however, voted to include recurring practic-es such as crop fertilizers. Benson's new program provides that payments may be withheld from farmers who fail to maintain conservation practices carried out under a previous program. Lanier Is Named At Buie's Creek
