By HAZEL JACKSON

There was a nice sized group at church Sunday, but not large enough. Rev. Colon Godwin substituted for Mr. Smith. Mr. Godwin sure did a wonderful job of speaking to us. We wish that he and his family could visit us more often.

Some of the visitors at church were Mr. and Mrs. Troy Carter; Mr. and Mrs. Colon Byrd; Mrs. Avis Strickland and children; Mr. Alton Strickland; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Core; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Godwin and family; Mrs. O. P. Sessoms; Mrs. Ermon Godwin; Mrs. M. O. Register; Linda Godwin; Peggy Sessoms; Barbara Register; Oliver Dixon; Jerry Kemp Warren; Stanly Godwin; and Mr. and Mrs. Colon Godwin. All you folks come again. We were really glad to have you with us!

Mrs. Lucy Dickerson and family of Arlington, Va. spent Monday evening thru Thursday morning with Mrs. W. A. Galney.

Mrs. Avis Strickland of Portsmouth, Va. (and children) have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Phillips.

Mr. and Mrs. Colon Byrd, Bobbie and Billy of Kingston, N. C. spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Wilson (Bill) Williford.

Mrs. Glenda G. Smith spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Godwin.

Mr. and Mrs. Erselle Glover spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Glover.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Glover and daughter had supper with Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Glover and family, Saturday night.

Mr. Clarence Edwards has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Godwin. He was out for services Sunday morning, also.

Olive Gray Herring spent Saturday night with Patricia McLamb. Sandra Herring spent Sunday with Mary Lou Core.

Vivian Tart spent Sunday with Joyce Jackson.

Shirley Marie Strickland spent Sunday with Mary Jackson.

Dwanda Faye Glover and Alice Faye Jackson spent Sunday with Gayle Strickland.

Dora Faye and Peggy Kirby spent Sunday with Olive Gray Herring.

Mr. and Mrs. David Earl Wise and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Core enjoyed Bar-B-Q pork and chicken, Wednesday evening at the Goldsboro Golf Club. They really do get around.

The Y. W. A. met Sunday afternoon at 2:30 with Miss Joyce Jackson. Miss Mary Lou Core had charge of the program. The hostess served refreshments to Misses Joyce Lee, Mary Jackson, Shirley Strickland, Vivian Tart, Mrs. Earl Core, Mary Lou Core, and one visitor, Sandra Herring.

The Youth Council met Thursday night with Mary Lou Core. Our next Youth Rally was planned by those present, they were Sandra Herring, Hazel Jackson, and Mary Lou Core. The hostess served refreshments consisting of ice cream and cake, after which the meeting adjourned to meet next month.

There will be a Youth Rally, Saturday night, August 15, at 8 p. m. EVERYONE is invited to come, especially the baseball and softball fans. There might be a few soft balls in the group so come on everyone and let's join the game, singing and fun.

Things to be seen... Little James Gale Lee driving a great big Farmall tractor on the road all by himself... Mr. and Mrs. Jim Jackson and family and Mrs. Casper Phillips getting ready to take that trip to New Mexico... Everyone in the Intermediate Union enjoying all that ice cream, Saturday nite... The Young Men's class looking forward to that "hot dog" roast... Everybody working hard.

News is short again, so, solong!

Scotch Pastor To Be Speaker

Dr. Campbell Ferenbach, Scottish minister who is holding an exchange pastorate at the Highlands Presbyterian Church in Fayetteville for several months, will be the guest speaker when the Women of the Lillington Presbyterian Church meet on Tuesday, Aug. 18, at 6:30 p. m. at "Summer Villa."

Following an annual custom, Mrs. Charles Ross will be hostess at her home to the five circles of the Lillington church and to the Women of the Summerville Presbyterian Church. Dr. Ferenbach will speak first, and a covered dish supper will follow with social chairmen from each circle assisting the hostess.

Mrs. Julian Hutaff of Fayetteville will introduce the visiting speaker and Mrs. Lacey Godwin of Fayetteville, president of the Fayetteville Presbyterian, will lead the devotional. Mrs. N. F. Lewis is president of the Lillington Presbyterian church women.

MISS LOIS BYRD AND MOTHER ENTERTAIN HONORING GUESTS

Four guests of honor were complimented at the porch party given on Saturday from 10:30 a. m. to noon by Miss Lois Byrd and her mother, Mrs. W. P. Byrd.

They were Miss Barbara Sangston of Unkintown, Pa., house guest of Miss Dorothy Seerdest; Mrs. Kenneth Rolph, formerly of Missoula, Montana, a newcomer to Lillington who resides in the Byrd apartment; Miss Evelyn Byrd of Danville, Va., sister and daughter of the hostesses; and Miss Mary Tarpley of Danville, Va.

Guests were greeted by Miss Lois Byrd and presented to a brief receiving line composed of the four honorees, each of whom was presented a yellow painted daisy corsage for her hair.

The punch table was improvised from blocks of ice featuring arrangements of lavender gladioli and fern frozen in the ice, and banked with sprays of purple crepe myrtle. Mrs. James F. Davis served grape punch and Miss Adelaide Shaw sliced a green ribbon sandwich loaf which was served from black enamel tray on a smaller table covered with a yellow linen cloth and decorated with a vase of pink roses.

Ham biscuits, fancy individual pastries, cookies, sweet sandwiches, carrot and celery curis were served by Miss Belle Hockaday.

Around 25 guests attended. Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. Vincent Wade of Fayetteville and Miss Wynona Fowler of Raleigh.

$30 Insurance Premium Brings $57,335 Payment

BOSTON (AP) — An insurance company has mailed a $57,335 check to a 22-year-old man for an insurance policy on which a single $30 premium was paid, it was disclosed today.

John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Co. said the award was largest ever paid on such a small premium payment for the type policy involved.

Last May 15, a partnership insurance policy was issued to Edward L. Long, 22, of Framingham and Charles K. Hammond, 24, of Somerville, Mass.

On June 11, the first $30 monthly premium was paid.

On June 24, Hammond was killed in an automobile crash.

UNSCHEDULED STOP
MERIDEN, Conn. (AP) — The New Haven Railroad has discovered that time is worth $5 a minute to a Meriden alderman. Richard Kimball sued the railroad under a little-known statute which provides that it must pay $25 to anyone delayed more than five minutes by a standing train. The railroad paid without protest when Kimball said that was exactly what happened to him.

Tools In Purse Save A Life

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — Ten-year-old Bill Redden probably owes life to Mrs. Ona Rasher's long habit of carrying a knife, scissors and a screw driver in her purse.

The youngster slipped while playing with a rope knotted around his neck and dangled from a tree, his feet almost but not quite touching the ground.

Eugene Carter, one passerby, didn't have a knife to use when he spotted the boy. But Mrs. Rasher also happened to be near by. Carter cut the rope with Mrs. Rasher's knife.
