

White-Barnes Yaws Are Said In Benson

Placed their vows before Rev. Ivey T. Poole, pastor of the bride Mrs. Leola Ryals Barnes of Benson and Ed Lewis White of Pine Level were united in marriage at 8:00 o'clock Tuesday evening, August 18. The double ring ritual was used.

A simple arrangement of Oregon fern balls on pedestals and branched candelabra holding lighted candles composed the church decorations.

At the close of the ceremony Miss Mary Alice Ryals, niece of the bride of Benson, sang as a benediction O. Perfect Love.

For the solemnization the bride wore an ensemble of black velvet and jersey featuring a trim of rhinestones. Her ciel blue hat was trimmed in blue pearls and accessories were of ciel blue. At her shoulder she wore a white orchid. Mrs. Ryals, mother of the bride, wore a black crepe dress with dusty rose trim.

Mrs. White, a daughter of Mrs. Vira Ryals of Benson and the late Archie T. Ryals was graduated from Benson High school and from a Dunn commercial school and has business interests in Benson as a partner in the Ryals Brothers and Barnes hardware and furniture store.

Mr. White, a son of Mrs. T. F. White of Pine Level and the late Mr. White was graduated from Strayer's Business College in Richmond, Va and served with the U. S. Marine Corps during World War II. He is associated with the Carolina Packers in Smithfield, and is currently serving as mayor of Pine Level for a third term.

Following a wedding trip to New York the young couple will establish residence in their recently completed home in Pine Level.

A small group of close relatives of the couple attended the ceremony.

Mrs. Strickland New Member Of Bridge Club

Mrs. Lloyd Strickland was welcomed into the Cards and Gossip Bridge Club Monday night as a new member when Mrs. Ed Wade entertained at her home. Mixed summer flowers with red gladioli and verbena predominating were arranged in colorful bouquets.

When guests arrived they were served delicious frozen peach salad with iced tea. Later Mrs. Wade passed coca-colas, and candy and nuts were on the two tables.

High score prize for the club members, a towel and washcloth set, went to Mrs. Eugene Huggins. Mrs. R. A. Duncan Jr. was high for the guests and she received a novel drip set for the kitchen. For tallying low, Mrs. Dwight Rowland was given individual candy dishes. The traveling prize, wooden spoons, went to Mrs. Lloyd Strickland, and Mrs. Ella McLamb Kimball won the bingo prize, a manicure set.

Club members attending were Mrs. Eugene Huggins, Mrs. Dwight Rowland, Mrs. Lloyd Strickland, and Mrs. O. M. Leslie. The guests were Mrs. R. A. Duncan Jr., Mrs. Ella McLamb Kimball, Mrs. Marvin Godwin and Mrs. Bill Lawrence.

Mrs. Johnson Is Guest Of Club Tuesday Night

Mrs. Hart Johnson was a guest of the Tally Ho bridge club last night when Mrs. Sherrill Johnson entertained at her home in Carr Heights at 8 o'clock. Unusually attractive bouquets of mixed summer flowers were used to enhance the beauty of the Johnson home. In the living room, a massive arrangement of yellow mums was outstanding.

During progressions the hostess served potato chips, dainty cookies, brownies, nuts and mints with fruit punch.

High score prize for the evening, a hair brush, went to Mrs. Bill Bryan. Mrs. Nathan Cannady was second high and she received a gift of twin lipsticks. The consolation prize went to Mrs. Bart Johnson.

Members playing with Mrs. Johnson were Mrs. Bill Cunningham, Mrs. Bill Bryan, Mrs. Locke Muse, Mrs. Ed Tart, Mrs. T. C. Hyman Jr., Mrs. Nathan Cannady and the hostess.

NOTICE OF SPECIAL BOND ELECTION

To be held on October 3rd, 1953 on the question of the issuance of fifty-million dollars State School Plant construction and improvement bonds and for the issuance of twenty-two million dollars State Mental Institutions Bonds.

The people of Harnett County shall take notice that Governor Umstead has called a special bond election to be held on October 3rd, 1953 on the two questions of whether the State of North Carolina shall issue fifty million dollars State of North Carolina School Plant Construction and Improvement Bonds and twenty-two million dollars State of North Carolina Mental Institutions Bonds. Under instructions from the State Board of Elections the registration books for this special election will be open on Saturday, September 5th, 1953 at nine o'clock at the polling places, and remain open until sunset on Saturday, September 19th. The various registrars in the county will be at their polling places for registering voters on the three Saturdays of September 5th, September 12th and September 19th.

Please take notice that this is not a special registration. Therefore, all persons who are now registered on the general election registration books WILL NOT have to register again to vote in this special election. If you are not registered on the general registration book in your resident precinct, you will have to register to vote in this special bond election; however, if you are properly registered you will not have to re-register to vote in this election. If you are not certain that you are properly registered now, you had better check with your precinct registrar on one of the three Saturdays mentioned above.

DOUGALD McRAE, Chairman
Harnett County Board of Elections.
