Connie Stewart Feted At Erwin Party

Connie Stewart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tye Stewart, celebrated her eleventh birthday with a lovely party at the Park Center Saturday evening from 7 until 9:30 o'clock.

The room was very pretty with arrangements of summer flowers and the only illumination was by candlelight. The table was covered with a white cloth and centered with a basket of pink flowers tied with a ribbon bearing the inscription "Happy Birthday Connie." White candles in crystal holders were also used on the table.

Mrs. Stewart poured punch from one end of the table and Mrs. Vera McCaskill served individual cake squares inscribed with an eleven from the opposite end. Mrs. Teddy Neidzwich assisted in serving open face sandwiches, potato chips, and mints. Pencils and note paper were given as favors.

During the course of the evening Connie opened her gifts and the group enjoyed games and dancing.

B. F. Aiken Honored By Mill Employes

Employees of number 5 card room of Erwin Mills and friends paid tribute to Mr. B. F. Aiken upon his retirement as head of that department at a chicken dinner served by Griffins of Goldsboro at the Park Center Saturday afternoon at five o'clock.

Mr. Aiken was presented a masonic ring by the group for his twenty six years of service as their overseer.

Mr. Aiken expressed his appreciation for the gift and their cooperation during his time as overseer of the card room.

Mr. R. C. Webb, new overseer, was introduced to the group. He asked the group to help him keep the reputation of Number 5 card room as being the best in the Erwin chain.

Mr. Aiken will continue to make his home in Erwin.

Mr. Hughes Retires, Honored in Erwin

Employees of No. 5 Spinning, Spooling and Winding Departments of Erwin Mills entertained at a dinner at Maynards Lake Saturday evening from 6 until 7 o'clock honoring Mr. R. A. Hughes who is retiring September 1st after 27 years of service.

A delicious barbecued chicken and pork dinner was served by Griffins of Goldsboro.

Music was furnished by The Johnson Brothers and Tennessee Entertainers of W.P.T.F. of Raleigh Among their selection were three of Mr. Hughes favorites, "Rocking On The Waves," "Daniel Prayed," and "Listen To The Mockingbird."

Mr. J. K. Bruton presented three hundred prize winning pimento red pullets to Mr. Hughes for his chicken farm at Haw River. Mr. Bruton also expressed his appreciation for Mr. Hughes life and service to Erwin Mills.

In his acceptance speech, Mr. Hughes thanked everyone and told them to help their new overseer, Mr. Clyde Johnson and co-operate with him in the fullest.

The arrangement committee for the event was Elderidge Norris and Shelton Barbour.

At the end of the dinner everyone went to the pavilion for a round of square dancing led by V. C. Swanson.

Around 100 were present.

SPEND WEEK-END

Rev. and Mrs. Jack Byrd of Sparta spent the weekend with their parents.

New Heart Drug

NEW HOPE is held out for thousands of sufferers of hardening of the arteries through a new drug discovered by Dr. Albert J. Boyle (left) and Harold Brown of Wayne University, Detroit. So far, the drug has produced "hopeful results in selected human patients," according to Dr. Boyle, who emphasized that more tests are needed before it can be distributed to physicians. (International)

Trailed By Police

WILLIAM HOWELL, paroled convict for whom the eastern seaboard is being combed, was reported seen in Poughkeepsie, N.Y., trying to hitch-hike a ride. He is believed by police to be the man who drove the intended getaway car in the gang-style slaying of Thomas Lewis, A.F.L. labor leader, in the Bronx. The killer, Edward "Snakes" Ryan, was shot to death by a cop before he could reach the car. (International)
