

Driver - Walton Vows Exchanged Saturday

The First Baptist Church in Bule's Creek was the setting for the formal wedding ceremony on Saturday evening at 8:00 uniting Miss Betty Gray Walton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Isaac Walton, of Bule's Creek, and Mr. William Roscoe Driver, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Wilburn Driver of Dunn. The Reverend Weldon Johnson performed the rites and was assisted by the Reverend Richard Rhea Gammon of Dunn.

Prior to the ceremony, Mrs. Re-la Whittenton, organist, and Mrs. Lloyd Coats, Jr., soloist, rendered a program of nuptial music. Mrs. Coats sang "Through the Years" and "Wedding Prayer." Mrs. Whittenton's selections included "Serenade," "Indian Love Call," "Ava Maria," "To A Wild Rose" and "Ich Lieb Dich." During the ceremony, "The Rosary" was played.

The double-ring ceremony was performed before a background of floor candelabra with cathedral tapers and tall baskets of white gladioli and chrysanthemums.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an original gown of lace over nylon tulle, fashioned with a yoke of tulle with appliqued points of lace and pearls at the waist. The gown featured a peplum of lace and extended into a full satin train. Her finger tip veil fell from a Juliet cap of matching satin appliqued with lace and seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white roses, tuberose and white orchids.

Miss Mary Walton attended her sister as maid of honor. She wore a white strapless gown of white net and French imported lace over taffeta. The gown was fashioned with a bouffant skirt, lace peplum and stole. Her bouquet was of Better Times roses.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Percy Walton, sister-in-law of the bride and Mrs. William Hartley, sister of the groom. Their gowns were white and were identical to that of the honor attendant. They also carried bouquets of red roses.

Eugene S. Driver attended his brother as best man. Serving as groomsmen were Captain William A. Hartley, brother-in-law of the groom and Wallace E. Warren. Ushers were Harry B. Driver, brother of the groom, Fred Walton, brother of the bride, James M. Mc-Lamb and William N. Creel.

Honorary bridesmaids were Miss Hilda Simpson, Mrs. Eugene S. Driver, Miss Susan Stack and Mrs. Martha Allgood.

Mrs. Walton chose for her daughter's wedding, a gown of rose crepe with sleeves and yoke of Chantilly lace. She wore a purple orchid at her shoulder.

Mrs. Driver wore a gown of blue lace and a purple orchid. The bride is a graduate of Bule's Creek High School and attended Campbell College.

The groom attended Dunn High School, Campbell College, Atlantic Christian College in Wilson and is a graduate of Bowling Green College of Commerce. He is now associated with R. K. Footman accounting firm in Dunn. Immediately following the wedding, the bride's parents entertained at a reception in the church parlors.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Cromartie, Jr. greeted guests at the door and Miss Catherine Campbell introduced them to the receiving line composed of the bridal couple, parents of the couple and wedding party.

Mrs. William C. Lee served bridal cakes and Mrs. Frank DuPre of Angier poured punch from a beautifully appointed table.

Presiding at the guest register were Mrs. John Henry Wilson and Mrs. David Wilson.

Dr. and Mrs. Perry Langston bade the goodbyes. After the reception, the couple left for a wedding trip to unannounced points. For her going away costume, the bride wore a navy suit with matching accessories and the white orchids from her bouquet.

Church Women Meet In Dunn

The Women of the Church of the First Presbyterian Church met in the church parlor Monday afternoon, Sept. 21, at 3:30.

The president Mrs. C. M. Watson opened the meeting with a reading of scripture and prayer.

Minutes were read by the secretary, Mrs. W. E. Baldwin and approved. In the absence of the treasurer, Mrs. Guy Hardee read the treasury report.

It was urged that the book "Jacob's Ladder" be read and circulated promptly. It was announced that the Dunn Church will be hostess to the District meeting on Nov. 13.

Mrs. J. Edgar Black Jr., was in charge of the program and her theme was "My Church Nurtures Church Growth." In her talk she stressed that as individuals we grow as we serve.

Mrs. Hooper told the women of her work at Hillcrest, after which Mrs. Black closed the meeting with prayer.

Christian Women Meet At Church

The Christian Women's Fellowship met last night in the auditorium of Hood Memorial Christian Church.

Following the opening hymn, "What A Friend We Have In Jesus," Mrs. S. N. Butt presented a timely devotional on "The Sound Of Many Voices," using as her scripture, Revelation 19:6.

Miss Mabel Lynch was in charge of the evening program for Circle No. 3. The topic, "Among These Restless Throngs" was ably discussed by Mrs. Lester Jones, Mrs. Grace Swain and Mrs. Mangum Butler and dealt with the migratory laborers and the challenge to the church to better their conditions both spiritually and physically.

The program closed with a duet by Mrs. Elwood Britt and Miss Esther Ricks. They sang "Where Cross The Crowded Way."

During the business session, with Mrs. Woodrow Hill presiding, the minutes were read by Mrs. Paul Barefoot and approved. Mrs. Hill announced that on Sunday, September 27, national and state workers would be at the church to aid the members in planning their expansion program in all departments. There will be three sessions: the first at 11:00 a. m. with Miss Margaret Lawrence of Indianapolis, presiding; the next, at 2:30 p. m., when Mr. Thomas P. Inabinet of Wilson will discuss the young people's work; the last at 8:00 p. m., the speaker to be announced later this week. All members were urged to attend these classes.

Literature Week will be observed in October and plans are now being formed for the observance.

All circles reported and turned in their quota of money for the church building program.

The ladies were dismissed with the National Benediction.

ber 27. The Rev. Mayness Mitchell of Pikeville will preach at 11 a.m. There will be a picnic dinner at 12:30. All friends and former members of the church are invited to attend.

Buffet Supper Honors Couple

Mr. and Mrs. John Henry Wilson and Capt. and Mrs. William A. Hartley entertained at a lovely buffet supper on Friday evening, honoring Miss Betty Gray Walton and William Driver, who were married in a formal ceremony on Saturday night.

The pre-rehearsal supper was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Driver, which was beautifully decorated in the traditional wedding decor.

The dining room table was adorned with a white madiera cloth, centered with a lovely arrangement of white glads, tuberose, carnations and fern with three-branched silver candelabra holding white tapers on either side.

Mrs. William C. Lee served turkey and dressing and Mrs. J. N. Creel presided at the coffee service. Candied yams, creamed asparagus, cranberry salad and individual lemon pies completed the delectable supper.

Approximately 40 guests attended the bridal courtesy.

D.A.R. TO MEET

The Cornelius Harnett Chapter, D A R will meet Friday afternoon at 3:45. The meeting will take place at the home of Mrs. George Britton with Mrs. Britton and her sister, Miss Vara Lee Thornton acting as co-hostesses. All members of the D A R are asked to be present.

WEEKEND HERE

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Dames of Miami, Florida, spent the weekend here with her aunts, Mrs. N. B. Bass and Mrs. Ella Godwin. The Dames were enroute home after an extended trip to Washington, D. C., New York and Hartford, Conn. Mrs. Dames is the daughter of the late Ed Norris, formerly of Dunn.

Driver-Walton Cake Cutting At Tart Home

Following the Driver-Walton wedding rehearsal on Friday evening, Mr. and Mrs. David Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Casper Tart entertained at a cake-cutting for the bridal couple and wedding party.

The Tart home on the Erwin Road was thrown ensuite and beautifully decorated with green and white floral arrangements.

In the dining room, the table was covered with a handsome lace cloth and held a bridal bouquet of white carnations, tuberose and asters, interspersed with fern.

Tall lighted tapers in five-branched silver candelabra cast a soft glow over the appointments.

Mrs. J. W. Driver, mother of the groom, presided over the silver punch bowl and the bride's mother, Mrs. R. L. Walton, served the wedding cake after the bridal couple had cut the first slice. Toasted pecans and butter mints completed the refreshments.

Around fifty guests, including members of the wedding party and out-of-town guests, attended the nuptial affair.

Miss Ann Jackson, daughter of Mrs. Ada Jackson of Dunn, has returned from Rex Hospital in Raleigh. She still must remain in a cast for six weeks.

Members of the Young People's Service League of St. Stephens Episcopal Church paid an enjoyable visit to Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Tyler's cabin on the Cape Fear River below Fayetteville Saturday afternoon and night.

The group enjoyed a boat ride down the Cape Fear on Mr. Tyler's boat. When they returned they enjoyed a hamburger supper. Those present were Roger Sessoms, Sylvia Fann, Jerry Taylor, Emily Thomas, Ann Thomas, Bill Thomas, Johnny Stevens, Mrs. Ronelle Johnson, Thomas Cameron, Rev. W. R. Insko and Mr. and Mrs. Tyler.

Mrs. Griffin Hostess To Bridge Club

Mrs. L. W. Griffin was hostess to members of her bridge club and a guest Friday evening at 8 o'clock at her home on Old Post Road.

The living room where two tables were set up for play was very lovely with early autumn flowers.

During the game Mrs. Griffin passed mints and coca-solas and at the end of play delicious apple pie a la mode and coffee was served.

Mrs. B. G. Thomas was awarded high score prize and Mrs. Whitney Thomas won the traveling prize. The guest prize went to Miss Eleanor Kincannon. Those playing included Mrs. B. G. Thomas, Mrs. Fred Thomas, Mrs. A. R. Marley, Mrs. Edward Thomas, Mrs. Z. E. Matthews, Mrs. B. B. Hudson, Mrs. J. R. Cathey, and Miss Eleanor Kincannon.

Sewells Host To Episcopal Church Group

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Sewell were hostesses to the officers and teachers of St. Stephens Episcopal Church School at their home Sunday evening at 7 o'clock.

Mrs. Z. E. Matthews, church school superintendent presided over the meeting and the Rev. W. R. Insko discussed problems in the church school. Plans were also outlined for increasing the number of classes but no definite action was taken on this.

The hostess served ice cream, cake, and toasted pecans to Mrs. Matthews, Mr. Insko, Mr. Ray D. Caldwell, Mr. John Follett, Mrs. Frank Ralph, Mrs. Byron Stevens, and Mrs. Chester Taylor.

A 30-Year Dream Coming True!

He used to stand on the curb in front of his father's house—and watch the Cadillacs sweep majestically by—carrying fine ladies and gentlemen on happy excursions.

That's when the dream started in his heart—and refused to leave.

Six times, before today, he has signed his name to an application for a motor car title—and, on every occasion, he knew it was a compromise.

But not this time! He is taking the keys to a beautiful 1953 Cadillac—and his 30-year-old dream is coming true.

And what a fulfillment it will be, as he rolls out into the highway and takes the longest way home!

First of all, he'll get those quick glances of approval which tell him the dream he dreamed for so many years is still in the hearts of others.

And then the car's great performance will begin to unfold itself.

Silence—almost complete silence—just the soft sound of the wind slipping by . . . the quietest, easiest response to the accelerator he has ever imagined . . . steadiness and roadability and handling ease that remove all but the merest effort from managing the car.

And, oh, what marvelous comfort! It's like sitting in the easiest chair conceivable—and moving smoothly and effortlessly through space.

And then, almost before he knows it, he'll be home—and in the driveway—with the family rushing out with the final voice of confirmation.

Man—this was worth waiting and working for!

And, of course, the years and the miles will add their proof as to the wisdom of his choice: dependability—long life—economy of upkeep and operation—and unusual resale value.

Yes, there is every practical reason for owning a Cadillac—as well as every personal one.

Better come in and see us today. It's probably easier than you think to make your dream of Cadillac ownership come true.
