

WARREN IS NAMED CHIEF JUSTICE

California Governor Is 14th Named To High Judicial Post

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (UP) — Earl Warren is a man who has lived with law books, helped make laws or enforce them for nearly 40 years.

The tall, handsome Californian, 62-years-old, becomes the 14th man in history to occupy the nation's highest judicial position. Warren succeeds Fred M. Vinson of Kentucky, who died of a heart attack Sept. 8.

Eisenhower announced the recess appointment at a news conference, his first formal meeting with reporters since July 22. The nomination will be sent to the Senate when Congress reconvenes in January.

Warren succeeded Fred M. Vinson of Kentucky, who died of a heart attack Sept. 8. He said the reason he selected Warren was that he is a man of integrity, honesty, possessed of a middle-of-the-road philosophy and experienced in the law as well as the operation of government.

After a secret face to face talk with Warren in California Sunday, Attorney General Herbert Brownell Jr. submitted his formal recommendation for filling the vacant chief justiceship to the President Tuesday.

Warren's appointment marks the first time a Republican chief executive has named a man to the Supreme Court since President Hoover appointed Benjamin Cardozo of New York as associate justice in March, 1932.

Mr. Eisenhower and Brownell were in consultation over the appointment ever since Chief Justice Fred M. Vinson died Sept. 8.

Warren was understood to have had some sort of commitment from the Eisenhower administration before Vinson died. Presumably he was promised a court appointment when a vacancy occurred and on the strength of this announced he would not seek re-election as governor.

The new justice will face a docket of some 300 petitions for review filed during the summer, to say nothing of 35 or 40 cases accepted last spring and ready for argument. Since the court grants review when only four justices vote for it, Warren's examination of all the petitions would not necessarily be required at the outset.

The Brooklyn hurler won 20 while losing 13 this year, compared to Reynolds' 13 wins and seven losses.

Blank Check Is Offered Kidnappers

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — Millionaire auto dealer Robert Greenpeace sat by the telephone in his suburban mansion today waiting for word from the kidnaper who took his brown-eyed six-year-old son from a convent school two days ago.

The 71-year-old father, near collapse after two days of anxious waiting, offered a "blank check" to the kidnappers if they would return his son, Bobby, alive.

But Kansas City detective reported there had been no word from the red-haired woman who posed as Bobby's aunt Monday to spirit him away from the fashionable Institute of Notre Dame de Sion, where he was a first grader.

The telephone rang frequently in the pretentious English-style mansion where Greenpeace, his 15-year-old wife and their daughter Virginia, 12, wait for cry-eyed silence. But the callers had all been crank calls with worthless tips or sympathetic friends.

LONDON (AP) — Prime minister Winston Churchill returned home from an enforced rest on the French Riviera today and reports that he has decided to ask for a meeting soon with President Eisenhower and French Premier Joseph Laniel.

Allice officers charged angrily today that the Neutral National Reparation Commission has sold out some 22,000 anti-Communist prisoners to the Reds, but were told there would be "no appeal" from the commission ruling.

Gov. Earl Warren

Warren Has Lived With Law 40 Years

By MERRIMAN SMITH, United Press White House Reporter. WASHINGTON (UP) — President Eisenhower today chose Gov. Earl Warren of California to be chief justice of the United States.

For almost all of his adult life, the California governor's career has been linked to the practice of law although he has spent practically no time in a courtroom as a trial lawyer and never served as a judge.

Like the late Chief Justice M. Vinson, Warren comes from a family of modest means. He was born the son of a Norwegian railroad brakeman in Los Angeles on March 19, 1891. Warren has amassed no personal fortune since he entered public office in 1919.

Warren has a hard-to-define political philosophy which he says is based on the belief that the people want "social progress but are dead set against socialism."

It's a political outlook which has won him some enemies within his own Republican Party in California and, from time to time, has irritated such organizations as the American Medical Association and never failed to attract the voters of both major parties in California.

His strong belief in expanding the role of the federal government in social and economic life has been a major factor in his political career.

Ike Doesn't Plan To Ask For Sales Tax

WASHINGTON (UP) — President Eisenhower said today the administration does not intend to ask Congress to levy a federal retail sales tax.

He volunteered the information to a crowded news conference to quiet speculation on the subject. He said the Treasury has made a thorough study of the sales tax proposal and has concluded that, according to all logic, this field of taxation belongs to state and municipal governments.

But Eisenhower did not rule out the possibility that the administration might ask Congress to approve a general manufacturers tax. He said excise taxes at the manufacturers level have been levied for years and he did not know how the Treasury would re-assort excise taxes in its new tax program now being formulated.

WASHINGTON (UP) — President Eisenhower said today he plans to report to the American people on what effect Russian development of hydrogen weapons will have on international relations and the chances of reducing world tensions. The President in a new conference discussion of foreign affairs also:

1. Denounced the forced retirement of a Roman Catholic Cardinal in Poland as a source of deep resentment to the American people. He referred to the Polish suspension of Stefan Cardinal Wysinski.

2. Said he has not been approached about the revival of the postponed Bermuda conference with British Prime Minister Sir Winston Churchill and French Premier Joseph Laniel.

3. Said a number of proposals for Big Three, Big Four or Big Five meetings are under study at the State Department with a view to taking the fullest opportunity of any discussions with the Soviet Union or her satellites to lower world tension. He conceded that no conclusions have been reached.

Spanish Group Visits Dunn On Goodwill Tour Of America

Waitresses at Johnson's Restaurant ignored Emily Post yesterday and went around pointing to everything they wanted. But, they had a good reason. The Restaurant was invaded by 67 Spanish youth making a goodwill tour of the U. S.

Besides making a goodwill tour, the youth were making the best entertainers that Spain has produced. The group was selected on the basis of their performance in competition with 30,000 other persons who wanted to make the trip. Each of the 67 was an expert in his or her own type of entertainment—whether it was singing, dancing or performing stunts.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Barnes, proprietors, and Manager Jack Rollins welcomed the foreign visitors—with friendly smiles, bows and gaspitations. Neither of the three, of course, could speak Spanish. Serving them were Mrs. Falson Pope and Miss Jackie Johnson.
