

North Carolina—Cloudy west and mostly clear east portion with mild temperatures today and tonight. Sunny and slightly warmer Friday. With "Frolic" Anti-Freeze. You're set, you're safe, you're care.

IKE SAYS WAR NOT AROUND CORNER

DRUMMERS FOUND IT OUT—Drummers in Dunn's High School band take time out for a "parading out." Shown (l. to r.) are, Charles Mafford, senior; J. L. Jackson, junior; Johnny Dalrymple, freshman; and Benny Wood, eighth grader. Bobby Dixon, junior, was not present when the picture was taken. (Daily Record Photo.)

Little River Baptists To Convene Next Week

Last Minute News Shorts

TRUCKS UP — Allied police today broke up with clubs an angry demonstration by 250 Slovene students demanding for Trieste to remain a free territory.

Guards Increased Around Kidnapers

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (UP) — Federal authorities kept newsmen and all but official personnel out of the Jackson County jail today and increased the guard around the cells of kidnapers Carl Austin and Bonnie Heady.

Arter Whole Month, Lana Happily Wed

AMSTERDAM, The Netherlands — Lana Turner got up from the armchair, walked part way across the living room of her hotel suite and logged away a huge vase of flowers obscuring her husband, Lee Barker, draped at that moment on a sofa.

GOP Leaders Blame Benson For Wisconsin

WASHINGTON UP — Every Republican alarm bell in the country was bonging today thirty six hours after shaken administration politicians got the bad news from Wisconsin's Ninth District special congressional election.

Anti-Red Group Is Forced To Attend Lectures

PANMUNJOM, Korea (UP) — Heavily armed Indian guards forced anti-Red Chinese sit-down strikers to attend the first Communist lectures today but the prisoners rejected repatriation in overwhelming numbers.

+ Record Roundup +

CITY COUNCIL — Dunn's City Council will meet tonight at 7:30 to discuss several items which have been hanging in the air for several months.

Harnett Pastor Has Encounter With The Law

The Rev. B. F. Hall, well known Harnett pastor, today was receiving a lecture from what he termed "an unexpected minister with the law."

Churchill Wins Coveted Nobel Literature Prize

STOCKHOLM, Sweden UP — The coveted Nobel Prize for Literature was awarded today to British Prime Minister Winston Churchill who is credited with "mobilizing the English during World War II."

It was an open secret that the 78-year-old Churchill, who has dedicated his remaining years to the cause of world peace, would have preferred the Nobel Peace prize.

Trustees Discuss Campbell Problems

President Leslie H. Campbell of Campbell College gave the school's Board of Trustees some "84 questions" to answer Tuesday evening of this week at their quarterly meeting at the Carolina Hotel in Raleigh.

Roy V. Tew Dies Suddenly Today

Roy V. Tew, about 50, of Godwin, Route 1, prominent farmer and businessman and official of the South River FBA, died suddenly Thursday morning in Windsor.

Record Roundup

Mr. Tew was unique home from Belgoville, Delaware where he had been to the home office of the H. P. Cannon Co. concerning an establishment of the new paper plant in Dunn.

President On Speaking Tour In Farm Belt

By MERRIMAN SMITH UP White House Writer ABOARD EISENHOWER TRAIN (UP) — President Eisenhower opened his tour of the Middle Western farm belt today with advice to the nation not to be "fearful that war is just around the corner."

SIR WINSTON CHURCHILL

He Had The Cash, Stayed In Jail

One of Judge H. Paul Strickland's customers in Recorder's Court this morning brought a blank check sealed in an envelope to pay his fine, but he didn't get to go home, The Judge ordered Jack McNeill, Negro held overnight to sober up.

Harnett Farm Agent Wins National Honor

Harnett County's Farm Agent Cliff R. Ammons, with five other farm agents from North Carolina, will be honored by their national professional organization at Philadelphia, Pa. tonight.

Record Roundup

Mr. Tew was unique home from Belgoville, Delaware where he had been to the home office of the H. P. Cannon Co. concerning an establishment of the new paper plant in Dunn.