

WEATHER

North Carolina — Cloudy and cool today with rain and occasional snow over east portion. Clearing west tonight and in east portion early Saturday.
With "Frestone" Anti-Freeze
You're set, you're safe, you're sure.

The Daily Record

The Record
Gets Results

VOLUME 3 TELEPHONES: 3117 - 3118 DUNN, N. C., FRIDAY AFTERNOON, NOVEMBER 6, 1953 FIVE CENTS PER COPY NO. 236

Disputed Trieste Wracked By Bloody Riots

LITTLE CHICAGO—M. A. Thompson, manager of Durham and Southern shop here, is shown above with his "Little Chicago" of model trains. In two years Thompson has purchased more than $4,000 worth of trains, track, and other equipment.

Dunn Trainman Operates Private Line In Off-Time

By CARL CONNER
Record Staff Writer

You would think a man who works five days a week on railroads, and has 37 years such work to his credit, would like to relax and forget tracks and cars once he darkens the doors of his home. But not so with M. A. Thompson of Dunn.

School Bus Driver Cleared In Wreck

A charge of "following too closely" behind another truck was dismissed in Harnett Recorder's Court on Tuesday against a young Lillington school bus driver, Wayman C. Parker, 17, of Lincolnton, Route 1.

June Guy Dies At Age Of 75

June T. Guy, age 75, died at 7:15 p. m. Thursday night in the Dunn Hospital where he had been seriously ill for several days. Funeral services will be conducted on Saturday afternoon at 2:30 p. m. from the First Baptist Church in Dunn.

Church Plans Men's Program

Plans for a three day program "for men only" to be held each evening at 7:30, November 15, 16, and 17, were announced today by Cooper Jackson, publicity chairman of the program.

You Can't Lose In Record's Contest

Next Wednesday marks the first announcement of relative vote standings in the big race for the Dodge Royal V-8 sedan to be awarded to the winning contestant in The Daily Record's "Everybody Wins" subscription drive now under way.

+ Record Roundup +

KICK-OFF DINNER—A kick-off dinner for the United Fund of Dunn will be held at Johnson's Restaurant Monday evening, November 8, at 7 o'clock, according to an announcement today by Norwood Stephenson, full instructions and information for completing the drive will be given at the dinner, Stephenson stated.

Dunn Tobacco Market Will Close Nov. 12

Dunn's Tobacco Market will close next Thursday, November 12, for this season, Sales Supervisor Norman J. Suttles announced today. Sales should reach 10 1/2 million pounds, an all time record for the local warehouses by closing time.

Through yesterday, sales totaled $1,150,394 with the average for the year hitting $54.73 per hundred pounds thus far. With the market nearing the end of the season, sales have been off this week. Yesterday the total for the warehouses here was 66,934 lbs. for $32,486.90 or an average of $48.54.

FAST RECORDS BROKEN
Sales this year have exceeded any previous record made by the market by almost a million pounds. Six years ago when the market opened a record of approximately 9,800,000 was set which has not been exceeded until this year. Warehousemen have been well pleased with the increase in sales this year, according to Suttles. While there are always a few scattered farmers who are dissatisfied with prices, most of those selling here this year have been well pleased, it was reported.

ACL Will Erect Safety Signals

City Council approved a request by the Atlantic Coast Line last night to remove the watchman from the crossing at Edgerton Street and place gates and flashing red lights in his place. The railroad company stated that they would place the gates at the crossing if the town would not require them to place the watchman relieved at that crossing on another one. The request was granted and a resolution drawn.

Federal Agents Capture Four

Four alleged bootleggers were ordered held for trial in Federal Court Friday shortly after their capture at a whiskey distillery in Johnston County.

The defendants were listed as: Willie Johnson, 45, of Benson; William Taft Suggs, 37, of Benson, Route 3; Carl Avery, 36, of Spring Lake, Route 1, and Edward Harber of Benson.

They were seized in a raid conducted by Federal ATU agents and Cumberland County ABC officers, assisted by Constable Albert Jackson of Dunn, Route 1.

The government warrant charges them with operating a distillery and removing and concealing non-tax-paid spirits.

The officers found 550 gallons of mash and a gallon and a half of whiskey. The run apparently had just been started when the officers arrived.

At a hearing held before Mrs. George Arthur Jackson, local United States Commissioner, the four defendants were bound over to the April term of U. S. District Court at Raleigh under bonds of $500 each.

NO LICENSE NEEDED—Ferry Ewitt, Dunn candy and cigar salesman, came to City Council last night to complain about receiving a bill for privilege tax on his business. He told Council that he has not sold in Dunn for more than two years. The tax was dropped. However, Ewitt told Council he

DIGNITARIES AT WOW MEETING—Featured here are some of the speakers and officials who took part in the annual log rolling of the Capitol District of Woodmen of the World, held Thursday at Erwin. Left to right are, seated: Warren Jackson of Spivey's Corner, new president; Former Governor Ed Rivers of Georgia, the main speaker, and Charles A. Hines of Greensboro, national director; standing: Dr. W. H. Carter of Greensboro, secretary; J. E. (Fats) Williams of Dunn, retiring president and newly-elected chaplain; W. E. Spell, consul commander of the Erwin camp; and State Manager Nick Newberry of Charlotte. (Daily Record Photo.)

Warren Jackson Elected To Head District WOW

Warren Jackson of Dunn, was elected president of the Capitol District of the Woodmen of the World at the annual log rolling session of the fraternal order held Thursday at Erwin.

The Erwin session drew the largest attendance in the history of the district. Delegates from approximately 50 camps in the 11-county district were present. Officials said the program was also the best ever held.

Mr. Jackson, who was elevated from the vice presidency, succeeds another Dunn man, J. E. (Fats) Williams, who retired after a very successful term of office.

PROGRESS REPORTED
In the annual report, Retiring President Williams cited a substantial growth in membership and in activity, in keeping with the theme of the year, "Fraternalism in Action" (Continued On Page Three)

Thomas Not Red, So He Gets Job

John Thomas of a local newspaper, swore last night that he is not and never has been a member of any political party which attempted to overthrow the government of the U. S. by force.

It was all part of a ceremony which Mayor Ralph Hanna read to Thomas as he became Dunn's Civil Defense Director. Hanna, in announcing the appointment, said that Thomas wanted to see someone appointed and so he was appointing him. At the time Thomas was seated in the City Council meeting as reported.

Thomas replaced Al Wallenwaber who resigned due to the heavy load of other duties. Wallenwaber is now heading the SALE CONFIRMED—Sale of a lot to C. O. Warren on E. Broad for $1,100 was confirmed last night by Dunn Council.

CHRISTMAS BULBS City Council approved the purchase of 1,000 new Christmas light bulbs at a cost of $150 last night. City Manager stated that about that number has gone out.

UNITED FUND WEEK—City Council voted last night to provide (Continued On Page Three)

At Least 10 Killed, Many Others Hurt

TRIESTE (UP)—Disputed Trieste was wracked today by bloody riots.

The violence, fanned by strongly-nationalist Italian elements, brought death to at least 10 persons, injury to scores and touched off international chain reactions including:

1. Armed intervention by U. S. and British troops to restore order.
2. A formal Italian protest to the United States and British against the shooting of Italian demonstrators in Trieste.
3. Anti-American and anti-British demonstrations and rioting in Rome.

GUNS SET UP

American and British troops set up machine gun positions and patrolled Trieste's blood-stained streets in armed jeeps under order to use bullets and bayonets if necessary to preserve order.

At least temporary calm was restored after the appearance of the Western Allied Troops, but the situation was tense and explosive. U. S. and British soldiers in full battle kit were called out when local Trieste police reported the (Continued on Page Three)

Wade Opens New Equipment Firm

Morris Wade, Dunn businessman, has announced the opening of a new business next to Keith's Shoe Shop on N. Wilson Avenue. The establishment will be known as Morris Wade Sales Company and will handle office machines and office furnishings.

Wade has operated his business from his home at 408 S. Orange for the past three or four years, but will discontinue work there now that the office is open in the business district, he said.

Besides offering office machines and furniture for sale, the new business will also handle machine repairs and offer typewriters for rent.

Included in the machines offered for sale will be typewriters, calculators, check writers, and other business equipment including file cabinets, desks, and chairs.

Wade has been a native of this area for the past 40 years during which time he has been engaged in various businesses here. The new office here will be open from 9:30 to 4:30 six days a week, Wade announced.

Sidewalk Rummage Sales Are Stopped

Dunn's Commissioners passed an ordinance last night aimed at putting sidewalk and street rummage sales out of business following a protest of East Broad residents to sales being held in front of their homes.

The Commissioners received a petition signed by 15 residents of E. Broad calling for an ordinance that would take the rummage sales off the streets. Council went further and ordered that all sellers of rummage on private property shall pay a license fee of $25 if they wish to continue in business. Councilmen felt that selling rummage constitutes a business as much as a dry goods store, and therefore included the license tax in the ordinance.

SATURDAY LAST DAY
While the wording of the ordinance was not completed last night, Councilmen agreed that as of November 10, next Tuesday, it shall be illegal to sell rummage on streets and illegal to sell on private property (Continued On Page Six)

Legion Adopts New Projects

The Dunn Post of the American Legion has adopted plans for refurbishing its club building and for resumption of American Legion Junior Baseball. It was announced today by Commander Roy J. Brown.

At a meeting of the post Thursday night, the Legionnaires voted to spend $1,500 on new furniture and a television set for the Legion building and to spend $750 on the baseball program.

Commander Brown pointed out that the post recently paid off all indebtedness on its property. Each member of the post will be given a key to the Legion building so he can enjoy television, reading, games and other forms of recreation to be provided. Commander Brown said Troy Godwin would manage and coach the Legion team. The post's traditional Armistice supper will be held next Wednesday night.

The Chapter Plan spells "pay as you go" for the needs of such or (Continued on Page Six)

The plan has been adopted to make it easy for everyone to give to charity without having to give in bulk. At the time "pay as you go" is the central theme of the Chapter Plan because as everyone may have his employer's contribution of the trouble of making up a (Continued on Page Six)