

Elton Godwin Is Honored On 10th Birthday

Felton Godwin celebrated his 10th birthday yesterday with a birthday party at 3:30 at his home. Felton is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Godwin.

The children played several games and contests with prizes going to J. E. Coats, Judy Prince, and Dale Norris. Later Felton's mother served Ritz crackers, birthday cake, cookies, homemade fudge, and iced drinks. She was assisted by Mrs. John Raynor and Mrs. Bill Matthews.

Felton opened the many nice gifts he received from the children attending his party. Guests were Kenneth Matthews, Earl Wayne Hinson, Elton Tripp, James Watson, Buddy Godwin, Carolyn Ann Fowler, Barbara Jean Fraley, William Avery, Joe Middlebrook, Carol Turner, Dale Norris, Irene Crables, Charles Bassford, Edwin Stone, J. E. Coats, Frankie Coats, Barbara Coats, Judy Prince, Kenneth Crane, Sherry Crane, Harry Britton, Ginny Aycock, and Waycoe Jackson.

B & PW Conducts Auction Sale

The Business and Professional Women's Club met in the General Lee Room at Johnson's Restaurant on Tuesday evening for their November dinner and business meeting.

A Thanksgiving note was evidenced in the table decorations and the dinner, which consisted of a delicious turkey and dressing plate with pecan pie and coffee. Mrs. Angela Shell gave the invocation. Mrs. Nathan Cannady, president, presided and a brief business session was held.

The finance committee was in charge of the program which was an auction sale, the proceeds to go into a scholarship fund for a girl to attend nursing school. Members of the club brought the articles to be sold and Nathan Cannady served as auctioneer. The doors were thrown open to the public at Johnson's and guests were invited to participate in the sale. Around 30 members of the B & PW attended the meeting.

Mrs. Stancil Has Meeting Of Entre Alia' Bridge Club

Mrs. Bill Stancil was hostess on Wednesday evening to members of the Entre Alia' Bridge club and a special guest, Mrs. Frank Clifton. Rose buds formed one of the bouquets in the living room and an arrangement of pyracantha berries was also used.

At the conclusion of the bridge game, Mrs. Lewis Godwin held the high score tally and was given a straw cornucopia. Mrs. Edwin Stewart captured a novelty gray boat for second high and consolation, dusting powder, went to Mrs. Mack Barefoot.

During the game, the hostess passed coca-colas and cheese wafers and at the close of the evening, delicious pineapple cake and toasted nuts were served with coffee.

Members playing were Mrs. Godwin, Mrs. Stewart, Mrs. Barefoot, Mrs. Paul Walker, Mrs. George Exum, Mrs. Nathan Bass and Mrs. Norwood Stephenson.
