

MISS ROSALYN POOLE ANNOUNCES WEDDING PLANS FOR SATURDAY

Miss Rosalyn Poole, daughter of Dr. Marvin B. Poole and the late Mrs. Lucille Johnson Poole has announced plans for her wedding to Mr. James S. Farthing, Jr. of Fort Jackson, S. C. and Dunn, which will take place on Saturday, December 13 at eight o'clock in the First Baptist Church of Dunn. The Rev. Ernest P. Russell, pastor, will officiate at the ceremony.

Mrs. Henry Whittenton, organist and Miss Betty Jo Smith soloist of High Point will present the wedding music.

The bride will be given in marriage by her father, and serving as matron of honor will be Mrs. Henry Hutaff of Durham. Maid of honor will be Miss Mary Ann Westbrook of High Point and Dunn.

Bridesmaids are Miss Irma Jean Sykes of Rocky Mount and Miss Anne Rouse of Washington, D. C., formerly of Dunn.

Mr. James S. Farthing will serve as best man for his son and ushers will be Earl Davis Farthing, brother of the groom, Charles Overman, Wade Brannon and Thad Pope, Jr.

A reception will be held immediately following the ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Andrews.

On Friday night, the wedding rehearsal will take place in the First Baptist Church, followed by the cake cutting at the home of the bride.

Mrs. Jessie Davis is directing the wedding.

MISS ROSALYN POOLE HONORED AT BEAUTIFUL TEA SATURDAY

Mrs. R. J. Denny, Mrs. J. P. Crumpler, and Mrs. J. S. Farthing complimented Miss Rosalyn Poole bride-elect of James Farthing Jr., on Saturday, December 6 from four until six o'clock at the Denny home on South General Lee Avenue.

Mrs. G. L. Hooper Sr. greeted the guests and introduced them to Mrs. J. R. Johnson who presented them to the receiving line composed of Mrs. Denny, Mrs. Crumpler, Mrs. Farthing, Miss Poole, the honoree, and Miss Nancy Abernathy, bride-elect of Charles Overman, who shared honors with Miss Poole.

On her arrival, Miss Poole was presented an orchid corsage and Mrs. Abernathy a corsage of white roses. All those assisting in the home were given corsages of white carnations.

The bridal motif of white and green was used in the spacious and very attractive living room and dining area. A beautiful arrangement of giant white mums and snapdragons was used in the picture window. Pink and white snadragons were used at the entrance.

A beautiful styro-foam design with frosted greenery and blue lights was used on the mantle. Also a Christmas choral scene was on the piano.

Mrs. C. M. Watson directed the guests to the dining area where Mrs. H. Paul Strickland received.

Mrs. S. N. Butt was in charge of the serving assisted by Miss Betty Byrd Crumpler, Miss Mary Ann Westbrook, and Mrs. Al Compton.

The tea table was covered with an imported Canadian cutwork linen cloth centered with a miniature bride and groom as they descended the steps of the church. The church was flanked with Brial Cliff white roses, snapdragons, and fern. Tall white tapers in silver candelabra illuminated the table.

At the close of the party, the miniature bride and groom were presented to the honoree.

Mrs. M. B. Poole presided over the tea service and Mrs. P. G. Parker of Erwin served bridal cakes. The refreshments consisted of miniature Parker House rolls filled with barbecue, Calla lily pastries, wedding cake sandwiches, decorated mints, salted pecans, decorated bridal cakes and Russian tea.

Mrs. Al Compton and Miss Mary Ann Westbrook were soloists for the occasion accompanied by Mrs. M. M. Jernigan and Mrs. Henry Whittenton, who played at intervals

Mrs. Charles Skinner presided over the register and said the goodbyes to about 150 guests.

Bride-Elect Honored At Afternoon Party

Mrs. A. W. Blanchard and Mrs. C. T. Latimer entertained for Miss Rosalyn Poole, December bride-elect, on Thursday afternoon at "Lakewood," the Blanchards' beautiful new home.

The guests who were invited to come for a coffee hour and miscellaneous shower found Christmas everywhere. The front door was lighted with a large round Santa Clause face attractively encircled with pine sprays.

Mrs. Charles Hutaff and Mrs. J. O. Warren greeted the guests and Mrs. J. C. Andrews, Mrs. J. R. Johnson and Mrs. Wade Brannon assisted the hostesses in receiving elsewhere.

There was never a more beautiful party. Candlelight and a cherry popping fire in the huge fireplace made everyone feel in a party mood immediately. It would be hard to describe in detail all of the beautiful flower arrangements and Christmas scenes that were used in the various rooms for the whole place made one feel that she was in Fairyland. Profusions of red roses and red carnations, gold leaves and red candles were used in the living room.

The dining room featured silver and white with many flickering tapers. The table was covered with a magnificent imported cloth edged with wide bands of lace. The table was centered with silver leaves massed around a tall five-branched candelabra whose white candles were festooned with clusters of silver bells. Three exquisite figurines completed this lovely setting.

Mrs. J. S. Farthing Sr. served individual bridal cakes and Mrs. M. B. Poole poured coffee. Canapes, cheese biscuits, party sandwiches, mints, and salted pecans were also served.

Miss Poole looked lovely in her sapphire blue silk shantung afternoon frock, wearing her purple orchid which was a gift from the hostesses.

The shower of gifts was presented in a most unusual manner. Mrs. Latimer and Mrs. Blanchard concealed them in a clothes hamper. They covered it in gold foil and tied it all the way around with a wide red satin ribbon, completing it with a large bow. This huge Christmas package was opened by the honoree who saw inside the hamper lettered in gold her own name and that of her fiancé. Among the many lovely, useful gifts were the presents from the hostesses. Mrs. Latimer's an electric iron and Mrs. Blanchard's gift was an electric percolator.

Around fifty-five guests enjoyed this delightful affair.

Church Circle Has Meeting

Mrs. Hulda Prescott was hostess to members of Circle VI of the Hood Memorial Christian Church last night at her home on North Wilson Ave. An arrangement of yellow and white mums decorated the living room along with several dish gardens.

Miss Frances Surles, circle leader, presided over the business meeting. Mrs. Woodrow Hill, president of the Christian Women's Fellowship, was a special guest at the meeting.

A short devotional was given by Mrs. Jack Hemingway. Mrs. Hemingway and Mrs. Wayne Justesen reviewed the last chapters of the study course book, "These Rights We Hold."

At the close of the meeting, Mrs. Prescott served chocolate nut cake with coffee or iced drinks to Miss Frances Surles, Mrs. Jack Hemingway, Mrs. Wayne Justesen, Mrs. Woodrow Hill, Mrs. Frank McLeod, Mrs. Hoover Adams, Mrs. Tommy Harrell and Mrs. Felton Tart.

Mrs. Monroe Honors Husband On Birthday

Mrs. L. A. Monroe surprised her husband on Monday night with a steak supper on the occasion of his birthday.

Guests arrived at 7:30 and were invited into the dining room where they enjoyed a delicious steak supper with all the trimmings. The birthday cake was cut and served with ice cream and coffee as a dessert course.

Those enjoying the informal affair were Mr. Monroe, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Barbour, and Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Hill.

DR. MILDRED HARTSOCK SPEAKER FOR WOMAN'S DAY OBSERVANCE

In cooperation with the national observance of Woman's Day in all Christian Churches throughout the land, the Hood Memorial Christian Church worship services Sunday morning were conducted by the women of the church.

Special music was rendered by the church choir for this memorial day and the President of the Christian Women's Fellowship Mrs. Woodrow Hill, presided over the services.

Mrs. Hill introduced the speaker for the morning who was Dr. Mildred Hartsock, head of the English Department of Atlantic Christian College in Wilson.

Dr. Hartsock stressed the importance of women's work in the church at all times and discussed a number of outstanding women of the past and present who have attained high places in the fields of religion, politics and education. "The advantages for women at the present are far-flung in many fields of endeavor," she said, "and we should ever be alert to these possibilities."

At the close of the services, Dr. George Cuthrell, pastor of the church pronounced the benediction.

Circle No. II Has Meeting Monday

Circle No. II of the Hood Memorial Christian Church met at the home of Mrs. Lillian Surles on Monday afternoon at 3:30.

Presiding over the meeting was the leader, Mrs. George Cuthrell who gave a most inspiring devotional.

This was followed by the program taken from the study course book "These Rights We Hold" and presented in an informative manner by Mrs. Pat Lynch.

The hostess served chicken salad sandwiches, cookies and coffee for refreshments.

Members present for the meeting were Mrs. Lynch, Mrs. Cuthrell, Mrs. Vera Lee, Mrs. Casper Tart, Mrs. Claude Pope, Mrs. George Owens, Miss Mary Phillips, Mrs. R. F. Jernigan, Mrs. Woodrow Hill, Mrs. Stewart and Mrs. O'Neal.

Mrs. Butt Hostess To Circle No. I

Mrs. Doug Butt was hostess to Circle No. I of the Hood Memorial Christian Church on Monday morning at 10:00 o'clock.

In the absence of Mrs. Wilson Stanley, leader, Mrs. Herman Neighbors presided over the business and gave the devotional.

Mrs. John Riley had charge of the program, which was the final chapters of the study course book that has been studied by the circles this quarter.

Cokes and peanuts were enjoyed at the close of the meeting by the following members present. Mrs. Neighbors, Mrs. Riley, Mrs. Jerry Butler, Mrs. John Ingraham, Mrs. Houston Jernigan, Mrs. Phipps and Mrs. W. W. Carroll.

Party In Raleigh Fetes Miss Poole

Miss Rosalyn Poole, bride-elect of Saturday, was complimented in Raleigh last evening when Mrs. Eldrie Bagwell and Mrs. Clarence Smith entertained at the home of the former at eight o'clock.

The Bagwell home was lovely with attractive arrangements of white gladioli and mums being used effectively throughout the rooms.

Guests enjoyed various bridal games and contests and prizes were awarded the winners.

Delicious refreshments consisting of chicken salad sandwiches, bridal cakes, nuts and lime ice were served.

The hostesses presented the honoree a white mum corsage and gifts of a blanket from Mrs. Bagwell, an aunt of the bride-elect, and from Mrs. Smith, sheets.

Around twenty guests were present for the delightful social affair.
