YOUNG AMERICA

Integrity, confidence, and courage are reflected in the face of this lad. If all of America's youth were as assured of his heritage of happy, useful, unselfish, Christian citizenship, our nation need not fear the future. True, there are times of war and conflict and no one can foresee the outcome. It is therefore especially comforting to know that this Boy Scout and thousands like him are being trained to meet the challenge.

The Boy Scouts are taught and encouraged in every way to respect and to serve their fellow men and their country. Moral and spiritual training holds an important place in their program, and practical applications of all they learn are fostered.

And the Scout is taught to serve God too. He attends Church regularly and takes an active part in its work.

This then is at least a part of Young America that is receiving the blessings of Christian training. But there are millions more who are not. Won't you encourage the youngsters of your community to seek the Church? Take groups of them with you and make them feel that Sunday morning means Sunday School and Church.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
